Quarterly Report to 30th September 2020

- Successful renewal of EL5291
- Management changes
- Review of ZIRP technology
- R&D tax receipt
- Future funding opportunities
- Since the onset of the Covid-19 pandemic, Austpac has complied with social Distancing and employees have worked from home. All site project activity has been suspended until a clear direction has been set by the government.

Renewal of EL5291

Austpac Resources successfully renewed the exploration license of EL5291. The licence was renewed for 3 years and allows Austpac Resources to continue with its exploration activities. A work program will be developed once COVID-19 restrictions are lifted in Victoria.

Management Changes

Austpac Resources underwent a restructure in the quarter. The CFO resigned; Austpac Resources technical team are now working as consultants on an as need basis. All other employees are no longer with the company. Colin Iles was appointed CEO.

A review was implemented to reduce costs as appropriate for the current operations of the Company. The cost reduction program is expected to reduce monthly administration costs by approx. $ 40,000 – $ 50,000 per month.

ZIRP Process

The results from Proof of Concept program in Q2 2019-20 was a technical success and requires further work to develop the process as a commercially viable process. Austpac is investigating partnerships with companies in the steel industry to develop a commercialised plant for the international steel market. This process is in the early stages and engagement with these companies is part of the 2021-22 business plan.

Tax funding received

Austpac Resources received a tax refund in the quarter for work completed in 2019-20 financial year for the R&D grant of $ 405,693.

Future Funding

Austpac Resources are researching new opportunities to expand its mining and exploration portfolio and are confident of securing funding for these opportunities.
