NAOS EMERGING OPPORTUNITIES COMPANY LIMITED (ASX: NCC) TO RAISE UP TO $23.0 MILLION THROUGH A LISTED, UNSECURED CONVERTIBLE NOTES ISSUE

NAOS Emerging Opportunities Company Limited (NCC or the Company) has today lodged a prospectus (Prospectus) with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) for the issue of redeemable, unsecured, unsubordinated, convertible notes (NCC Notes) (the Offer). The Offer is subject to approval by NCC shareholders which will be sought at an Extraordinary General Meeting to be convened by the Company (EGM). A notice of meeting for the EGM will be released on the Australian Securities Exchange (ASX) today and will be sent to NCC shareholders.

The NCC Notes will provide investors with a listed exposure to a fixed interest rate yield and the possibility to benefit from appreciation in the price of NCC's ordinary shares (Ordinary Shares) above the conversion price for the NCC Notes of $1.15 by allowing holders to convert their NCC Notes into Ordinary Shares at any time after the date of issue until (and including) 30 September 2026.

The Board of Directors believe the issue of NCC Notes provides the ability to increase the overall size of the investment portfolio without diluting existing NCC Shareholders in order to allow its investment manager, NAOS Asset Management Limited (Investment Manager) to take advantage of a number of current investment opportunities.

The NCC Notes also have the potential to increase the size of the Company's equity base over the longer term should holders of the NCC Notes elect to convert their NCC Notes to Ordinary Shares, which unlocks the benefits of scale, meaning lower costs for all shareholders as the Company grows.

Key terms of the NCC Notes

- Face Value: each NCC Note will have a Face Value of $100;
- Interest Rate:
 - ♦ Until the First Step-Up Date (30 September 2026): Fixed at 4.50% per annum;
 - ♦ From the First Step-Up Date (30 September 2026): Fixed at 5.50% per annum; and
 - ♦ From the Second Step-Up Date (30 September 2027): Fixed at 6.50% per annum;
- Interest payments: paid semi-annually, in arrears on each of 31 March and 30 September, with the first interest payment payable on 30 September 2021;
- Maturity Date: 30 September 2028 (if not converted or redeemed earlier);
- Convertibility: convertible into Ordinary Shares upon notice at a fixed Conversion Price (subject to adjustment for certain dilutionary and other capital transactions by NCC) at any time until 30 September 2026;
- Conversion Price: the Conversion Price is $1.15;
- Issue size: the issue of the NCC Notes will raise up to $23.0 million (before costs);
- Ranking: the NCC Notes rank equally with each other and without any preference amongst themselves, and at least equally with all other unsubordinated and unsecured obligations of NCC (other than any obligations preferred by mandatory provisions of applicable laws). The NCC Notes rank ahead of Ordinary Shares; and
- Liquidity: application will be made for the quotation of the NCC Notes on ASX under the ticker code "NCCGA".
