

ASX RELEASE (11 MARCH 2021)

Tetra Health Launches First Face to Face Clinic Site at Astrid Melbourne clinic co-located with Astrid Dispensary in South Yarra

Epsilon Healthcare Limited (ASX:EPN) (Epsilon or the Company) is pleased to announce that the Company's telehealth medicinal cannabis clinic group, Tetra Health is launching its first physical clinic for in-person consultations, with first consultations commencing from today.

Tetra Health has partnered with Astrid Healthcare Pty Ltd (Astrid) which operates the Astrid Dispensary in South Yarra, Melbourne. Under the agreement with Astrid, Tetra will be Astrid's preferred medicinal cannabis clinic partner for in-person consultations, and will offer patients the opportunity to see a Tetra doctor in-person in a separate consulting room co-located at the Astrid Dispensary.

Jarrold White, Chief Executive Officer of Epsilon Healthcare commented:

"We see the expansion of the Tetra Health operation into physical locations as being an extension of the patient centric ethos that underpins Tetra Health. Working with Astrid through Tetra Health we expect this new clinic to offer a unique personal patient experience from a team highly motivated and guided by ensuring the best patient care.

"As a registered pharmacy with a physical dispensary the Astrid relationship also offers Tetra and the wider Epsilon group of brands the opportunity for further expansion and distribution of products which will be the second phase of the current clinic relationship and we are excited to explore this over the coming weeks with the Astrid Founders".

Patients through this new clinic will be charged a higher rate for their treatment than the current telehealth offering, however patients will be able to access Medicare rebates on their treatment costs making the out-of-pocket cost similar to current telehealth patients whilst

Lisa Nguyen, Founder and Head Pharmacist of Astrid commented:

"We're very pleased to be working with Tetra Health to offer a patient-centric medicinal cannabis service offering co-located in our newly launched Astrid Dispensary in South Yarra. As a boutique specialist pharmacy pioneering in cannabinoid medicines, plant based therapies, and nutraceuticals, we see this opportunity as a key add-on benefit to our patients."

Laura Farhat, General Manager of Tetra Health commented:

"We have been receiving significant interest from patients for an in-person consultation offering backed by our strong nurse support. We expect to see strong uptake from patients in Melbourne through this clinic, and will look to expand this model into additional regions over time.

"Astrid, led by founder and head pharmacist, Lisa Nguyen, has been a great partner for our first launch, as her team brings a wealth of experience and passion for medicinal cannabis and other alternative therapies".

The clinic is located at 575 Chapel Road, South Yarra, Victoria and appointments can be made by contacting Tetra Health on 1800 861 099 or at patients@tetrahealth.com.au.
