As announced on 25 February 2021, Maas Group Holdings Limited (MGH) has declared a fully franked interim dividend of 2 cents per share. MGH also announced the establishment of its Dividend Reinvestment Plan (DRP) with participating shareholders to be offered shares at a 5% discount to the Volume Weighted Average Price (VWAP) for the 5 trading days immediately after the dividend record date.

Frequently Asked Questions

Am I eligible to participate in the Plan?

All Company Shareholders with registered addresses in Australia and New Zealand are eligible to participate in the Plan. Please see the Rules in this booklet for more information about eligibility.

How do I participate in the Plan?

Participation in the Plan is voluntary. If you wish to participate in the Plan, you must either complete and sign a Plan Election Form and send it to the Registry or make your Online Election on the Registry's website (as outlined in the corporate directory on page 17 (Corporate Directory)).

A Plan Election Form and reply paid envelope are enclosed with this booklet. Additional Plan Election Forms can be downloaded at www.investorcentre.linkmarketservices.com.au or are available upon request by calling the Registry on +61 1300 554 474.

What if I have more than one Shareholding?

A separate Plan Election Form must be lodged, or Online Election must be made, for each holding of Participating Shares.

If, at any time, you choose to combine any or all of your Shareholdings, you should contact the Registry to make sure that the appropriate Plan Election Form or Online Election continues to apply.

Do all of my Shares have to participate in the Plan?

No. You can choose to have less than your full Shareholding participating in the Plan by selecting "Partial Participation" on the Plan Election Form or by making an Online Election and specifying the number of Shares that you wish to participate in the Plan. If you choose partial participation, your Dividend entitlement for Shares that are not participating in the Plan will be paid to you in cash (by direct credit to your nominated bank account).

If you choose partial participation in the Plan, any Shares issued or transferred under the Plan will not be added to the number of Participating Shares for the purpose of the next Dividend. If you want to change this outcome, you can complete and lodge a new Plan Election Form or amend your Online Election on the Registry's website (as outlined in the Corporate Directory).

Can I change my level of participation in the Plan?

You can change your level of participation in the Plan or terminate your participation in the Plan at any time by completing and lodging a new Plan Election Form with the Registry or by amending your Online Election on the Registry's website (as outlined in the Corporate Directory). Any amendments made to your level of participation, whether by a new Plan Election Form or amending your Online Election, must be received by the Registry by the Election Date to be effective for the relevant Dividend period.

Is there a minimum or maximum level of participation?

The Board may specify a minimum or maximum level of Shares that may participate in the Plan.

When will my participation in the Plan begin?

Your participation in the Plan will begin on the first Dividend Record Date after your completed and signed Plan Election Form is received by the Registry or you submit your Online Election. The Plan Election Form must be received by the Registry no later than one Business Day after the Dividend Record Date to be effective for the relevant Dividend period. Any amendment to your Online Election must be done at no later than one Business Day after the Dividend Record Date to be effective for the relevant Dividend period.

How much does it cost to participate in the Plan?

To the extent permitted by law, the Company will pay any brokerage, commission, or other transaction costs for Shares that you acquire under the Plan.

Under current Australian law, no stamp or other duties are payable in connection with the Plan.

How many Shares will I receive?

The number of Shares that you will receive is calculated by dividing the Dividend less any amount that is deductible by the Company as withholding tax or tax required to be remitted to the Australian Taxation Office on your Participating Shares), by the Reinvestment Price. Your entitlement will be used to purchase as many new Shares as possible at the Reinvestment Price. The application of this formula will normally result in a residual fraction of a Share. The value of that residual fraction will be carried forward in a Participant's individual Plan account.

What happens to the carry forward residual positive balance in my Plan account if I end my participation in the Plan, sell my Shares or the Board suspends or terminates the Plan?

In the event that:

- you cease to participate in the Plan because you have sold all of your Shares;
- you choose not to participate in, or the Board suspends or terminates, the Plan and you sell all of your Shares before the next Dividend Record Date;
- you have terminated your participation in the Plan by sending to the Registry a completed Plan Election Form or Online Election in accordance with rule 10; or
- the Company receives a notice of death,

you are taken to have directed the Company to transfer any residual positive balance in your Plan account to a charitable organisation at the Board's discretion.

The residual positive balances are not transferrable and do not accrue interest.

How is the Price determined?

The Price will be the Market Price, which is the average of the daily volume weighted average price of Shares sold on ASX during the five Trading Days commencing on and including the second Trading Day after the relevant Dividend Record Date to which the Dividend relates.

The Board may apply a Discount from time to time in its discretion.

How will I know how many Shares I have received under the Plan?

You will be sent a statement after each issue or transfer of Shares to you under the Plan. If you have chosen Partial Participation, you will also receive your direct credit payment advice for the cash Dividend on your Non-Participating Shares.

What is the taxation treatment of Dividends paid under the Plan?

Dividends reinvested into Shares are usually treated in the same way as cash dividends for Australian tax purposes. The Company cannot advise you on the tax implications of participating in the Plan and recommends that you obtain professional advice about the consequences of participating in the Plan.

The cash dividends used to purchase new Shares are net of any applicable Australian withholding taxes. The details of any withholding tax paid will be on the Plan statements.

Can I sell my Plan Shares?

You can sell your Shares, including Shares issued or transferred to you under the Plan, at any time. If you have elected "Partial Participation" on your Plan Election Form or when making your Online Election, the number of Shares sold will first reduce the number of Non-Participating Shares held by you before, if necessary, reducing the number of your Participating Shares. You can change this outcome by completing and lodging a new Plan Election Form or by amending your Online Election on the Registry's website (as outlined in the Corporate Directory). If you sell all of your Shares, your participation in the Plan will end.

Can the Plan be changed or terminated?

The Company may vary, suspend, recommence or terminate the Plan at any time.

- (d) Subject to rule 2(e), an application from an eligible Shareholder to participate in the Plan will be effective for the next Dividend, provided the Shareholder's Plan Election Form is received by the Registry or the amended Online Election is made, by the Election Date.

- (d) If a Participant elects partial participation, they must state the number of Shares that are to be Participating Shares. The Plan will only apply to that number of Shares specified by the Participant in the Plan Election Form or Online Election (but not any Shares issued or transferred under the Plan unless the Participant alters the participation level in accordance with rule 3(a)).
- (e) If, at any relevant Dividend Record Date, a Participant's total Shareholding is less than the number of Participating Shares specified in the Participant's Plan Election Form or Online Election as applicable, all of the Shares in that Shareholding will be deemed to be Participating Shares in respect of the relevant Dividend. Any Shares subsequently acquired will participate at the next Dividend Record Date, up to the number specified in the Plan Election Form or Online Election that was last received by the Registry before the relevant Election Date,
- (f) The Board may determine from time to time that participation is subject to a minimum and/or maximum number of Shares.

4 Operation of the Plan

- (a) Each Dividend from time to time due and payable by the Company to a Participant in respect of Participating Shares will be applied by the Company in subscribing for or arranging for the transfer of Shares in accordance with rule 7(a).
- (b) A separate Plan account will be maintained for each Participant.
- (c) At the time of each Dividend payment, the Board will for each Participant:

- (d) Subject to rule 6(f), the number of Shares issued or transferred to a Participant will be the whole number equal to, or where not a whole number, rounded down to the nearest whole number calculated by the formula:

Number of Shares

T is any withholding tax or other amounts to be withheld in relation to such Shares; and RP is the Reinvestment Price.

6 Reinvestment Price of Shares

- (a) The Reinvestment Price at which each Share is issued or transferred to Participants for a particular Dividend is the Market Price, less any Discount, as may be determined by the Board.

- (c) The Reinvestment Price must be calculated by the Board or another person nominated by the Board, by reference to information the Board approves from time to time. The determination of the Reinvestment Price is binding on all Participants.
- (d) The Reinvestment Price, once determined, will be announced to ASX.
- (e) In relation to each Dividend, the amount of a Participant's Dividend on Participating Shares not reinvested in Shares (excluding amounts representing a fraction of a Share), less any amount that is deductible by the Company as withholding tax or tax required to be remitted to the Australian Taxation Office as a result of failure by the Participant to supply a tax file number, will be paid to the Participant without interest.
- (f) interest.

If the number of Shares to be issued or transferred to a Participant under this Plan will result in the number of a Participant's Participating Shares exceeding the maximum level of participation determined by the Board under rule 3(f), if any, then the Board may:

- (i) scale back the amount of the Dividend to be reinvested by each Participant on a pro-rata basis to the extent necessary to ensure that the maximum level of participation is not exceeded; and
- (ii) pay to each Participant any portion of their Dividend that is not reinvested (without interest).
