

Urbanise wins large Middle East customer

Urbanise.com Limited (ASX:UBN) announces that it has secured a new 3-year agreement with a leading Dubai-based property developer, Nakheel, to deliver a fully integrated facilities management and strata solution.

The developer will use Urbanise's end-to-end platform to deliver facilities management and strata services to customers across an extensive portfolio which includes residential developments, hotels and resorts, malls and corporate office premises.

The contract is expected to contribute approximately A$760,000 in annual recurring revenue (ARR). This will be reflected across both the facilities management and strata divisions and will form part of the backlog until go-live. The implementation process will involve transitioning two systems to Urbanise's single integrated solution.
