III SHARE CAPITAL – SHARES

Article 7

The share capital is six hundred and ninety-two million four hundred and eighty-one thousand eight hundred and seventy-five euros (€692,481,875).

This capital is divided into one hundred and thirty-eight million four hundred and ninety-six thousand three hundred and seventy-five (138,496,375) shares with a nominal value of five (5) euros each.

Article 8

The Shares are tradable without restriction, subject to the Stapled Share Principle.

Subject to the rules governing the distribution of dividends and liquidation surpluses set out below, each Share entitles the holder, during the term of the Company or its liquidation, to payment of the same net sum for an equal nominal value in any distribution or redemption such that, where necessary, the total sums shall be divided equally between all the Shares regardless of any exemptions or reductions of tax or any other charges to which the distribution or redemption may give rise.

The share capital may be increased by resolution of the shareholders, subject to the Stapled Share Principle.

The share capital may be reduced by extraordinary resolution of the shareholders, either by reducing the nominal value of the Shares or, subject to the Stapled Share Principle, by reducing the number of Shares in issue.

A resolution to cancel Shares shall only relate to Shares which the Company holds or will acquire from its shareholders.

Each time more than one Share is required to exercise a particular right, shareholders who own only one Share or who do not own the minimum number required may not exercise said right but may at their own initiative group their Shares together for the purpose of exercising said right.

Article 9

The Shares may be in registered or bearer form at the holder's choice.

However, any shareholder other than a natural person who, directly or through entities acting as intermediaries that it controls within the meaning of Article L. 233-3 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), comes to own a percentage of the rights to dividends of the Company at least equal to that referred to in Article 208 C II ter of the French General Taxation Code (Code Général des Impôts) (a “Shareholder Concerned”) must, within a maximum period of five stock exchange days, register all the Shares that it owns and arrange for the entities that it controls within the meaning of Article L. 233-3 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce) to register all the Shares that they own.

This obligation to register applies to all Shares already owned directly or indirectly and to any that might be acquired in excess of this threshold, and will continue for as long as the Shareholder Concerned holds a direct or indirect stake equal to or in excess of this threshold.

The Shareholder Concerned must, within five stock exchange days of this threshold being exceeded, send the Company a copy of the application for registration, by registered letter with proof of receipt requested. This letter shall not exempt the Shareholder Concerned from the obligation to send the declaration of exceeding the statutory threshold referred to in Article 9 bis below.

In the event of failure to apply for registration of the Shares that it owns in the manner set out above, the Shareholder Concerned that retains its securities in the form of bearer Shares in breach of this Article will be stripped of the right to participate in General Meetings of the Company and more generally of the right to exercise the voting rights attached to the Shares that should have been registered pursuant to the provisions of this Article.

Any Shareholder Concerned whose direct or indirect stake becomes less than the threshold referred to in Article 208 C II ter of the French General Taxation Code (Code Général des Impôts) may at any time apply for its Shares to be converted to bearer Shares in the manner set out above.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Shares shall be in registered form where this is required by law.

The Shares are indivisible for the Company's purposes.

Title to the Shares is evidenced by their registration on accounts held for that purpose in accordance with the terms of the law either by the Company in the case of registered Shares or by an authorised financial intermediary in the case of bearer Shares. If requested by a shareholder, the Company or authorised financial intermediary shall issue a certificate of registration on accounts.

The Company may at any time, in accordance with the terms of the law, ask its central depository for information about the name or corporate name, nationality and address of holders of securities conferring the right to vote at general meetings either immediately or in the future, as well as the number of securities held and, as necessary, any restrictions attached thereto.

Article 9 bis

Any shareholder, acting alone or in concert with other shareholders, that comes to hold a number of Shares (including any share equivalent within the meaning of article L. 233-9-I of the French Commercial Code (Code de Commerce)), or voting rights (including any voting rights equivalent within the meaning of article L. 233-9-I of the French Commercial Code (Code de Commerce)) representing two percent or more of the total number of Shares in issue or voting rights of the Company, respectively, or any further multiple thereof, must, no later than ten stock exchange days after exceeding the threshold, advise the Company in writing of the total number of Shares and voting rights held sent by registered letter with proof of receipt requested to the Company's registered office. Such declaration must specify the total number of Shares and voting rights held, together with the total number of share equivalents and the potential voting rights attached to it.

Any Shareholder Concerned that comes to hold at least 10% of the rights to dividends of the Company, must indicate in its declaration of meeting or exceeding the said threshold, under its own responsibility, whether or not it is a Deduction Shareholder (as defined in Article 21 of the Articles of Association). In the event that such a shareholder declares that it is not a Deduction Shareholder, it must provide evidence of this in the manner provided by Article 21 of the Articles of Association. Any Shareholder Concerned having given notice of the aforementioned threshold being met or exceeded must give the Company early notice, in any event at the latest ten (10) stock exchange days before the payment of distributions, of any change in its fiscal status which would result in it acquiring or losing the capacity of a Deduction Shareholder.

Any Shares exceeding the threshold that have not been disclosed in accordance with these requirements shall be disqualified for voting purposes at all general meetings held for a period of two years after the date on which the requisite disclosure is finally made, if the failure to disclose has been duly noted and if requested by one or more shareholders holding at least two percent of the Company's share capital in accordance with the terms of the law, unless the voting rights have already been stripped pursuant to Article 9 paragraph 4 above.

Similarly, the voting rights attached to any Shares that have not been disclosed in accordance with these requirements may not be exercised by the holder either in person or by proxy.

Article 9 ter

The Company may at any time avail itself of the legal provisions with respect to identifying shareholders and identifying securities conferring the right immediately or in the future to vote at shareholders' meetings in accordance with articles L. 228-1 to 228-3-3 of the French Commercial Code (Code de Commerce).

IV - MANAGEMENT BOARD

Article 10 – Composition of the Management Board

1. The Company is managed by a Management Board composed of a maximum of seven members. The Management Board exercises its functions under the supervision of the Supervisory Board.

The members of the Management Board, who must be natural persons, are not required to be shareholders.

If a seat becomes vacant, the Supervisory Board shall fill it within two months.

Business transacted at shareholders' meetings is qualified as either ordinary or extraordinary in accordance with the terms of the law, and such meetings are governed by the relevant quorum and voting conditions prescribed by law.

In accordance with the provisions of Article L. 22-10-46 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), the General Meeting of April 16, 2015 confirmed that each Share gives the right to one vote in the general shareholder's meeting and no Share can give a double voting right.

Notices of meetings are given in the form and within the time period prescribed by law.

Meetings take place at the registered office or any other place indicated in the notice of meeting.

Any shareholder, regardless of the number of Shares held must, to have the right to attend, personally or by a representative, the Shareholders' Meetings and participate in the discussions, justify, under legal conditions, the recording into account (inscription en compte) of its Shares in his name or in the name of the intermediary registered on his behalf pursuant to article L 228-1 paragraph 7 of the French Commercial Code (Code de Commerce), either in the accounts of registered Shares of the Company, or in the accounts of bearer security of the entitled intermediary, within the time limits and in compliance with the modalities provided by the French Commercial Code (Code de Commerce).

Postal or electronic voting will take place under the conditions laid down in current legislation.

In particular, shareholders can, under the conditions laid down by law and regulations, send the proxy and postal voting form prepared by the Company or its centralising institution, either on paper or, pursuant to a decision of the Management Board published in the announcement and notice of the meeting, by electronic transmission including the internet.

Postal votes will be taken into account on condition that the voting forms are received by the Company at least three days before the Meeting. However, electronic voting forms can be received by the Company until no later than 3 p.m., Paris time, on the day before the General Meeting.

Shareholders who, for this purpose and within the required time limits, use the electronic voting form available on the website set up by the centralising institution dealing with the Meeting, will be treated in the same way as shareholders present or represented. The electronic form can be completed and signed directly on this website using any process determined by the Management Board that satisfies the conditions defined in the first sentence of the second paragraph of Article 1367 of the Civil Code (Code civil) (namely the use of a reliable process of identification guaranteeing the connection between the signature and the form), Articles R. 225-77 3° and R. 22-10-24 of the French Commercial Code (Code de commerce), and, more generally, in the current legislative and regulatory provisions, and which may, in particular, consist of a user name and password.

Proxies or votes issued by such electronic means before the Meeting, and the acknowledgment of receipt in respect thereof, will be regarded as irrevocable and universally enforceable documents, on the understanding that in the event of the sale of securities before midnight, Paris time, on the second business day preceding the Meeting, the Company will invalidate, or make the consequential amendment to, the proxy or vote issued before that date and time, as the case may be.

In case of usufruct, the right to vote at ordinary and extraordinary general meetings vests in the holder of the beneficial interest in the Shares, subject to the Stapled Share Principle.

Pursuant to a decision of the Management Board published in the notice of meeting, votes may be cast at General Meetings by way of videoconferencing or other means of telecommunication allowing shareholders to be identified.

Shareholders attending the meeting by videoconferencing or other means of telecommunication that permits their identification and complies with the provisions of the law as set out by Conseil d'Etat decree are counted as present for the purpose of calculating the quorum and majority.

(a) The income statement summarizes all items of income and expenditure for the financial year, the difference being the net profit for the year after deduction of depreciation, amortisation and provisions.

The net profit for the year, less any prior year losses and amounts transferred to reserves in accordance with the law plus any retained earnings, constitutes the year's distributable profits.

Apart from the year's distributable profits, the shareholders' meeting may also resolve to distribute sums from other reserves to which they are entitled, expressly indicating which reserve accounts are to be used. However, dividends shall be deducted in priority from the year's distributable profits.

The sum of the year's distributable profits plus any reserves which the shareholders' meeting resolve to distribute constitutes the amount available for distribution.

After approving the financial statements and duly noting the existence of an amount available for distribution, the shareholders' meeting determine the sum to be distributed in the form of a dividend.

Any Shareholder Concerned (as defined in Article 9 above) whose own situation or that of its associates renders the Company liable to the payment (the "Deduction") referred to in Article 208 C II ter of the French General Taxation Code (Code Général des Impôts) (a "Deduction Shareholder") will owe the Company the amount of deduction due as a result of the distribution of dividends, reserves, premiums or "income deemed to have been distributed" within the meaning of the French General Taxation Code (Code Général des Impôts), at the time of payment of the distribution.

In the event of there being more than one Deduction Shareholder, each Deduction Shareholder will owe the Company the proportion of the Deduction owed by the Company resulting from its direct or indirect shareholding. The capacity of Deduction Shareholder will be assessed on the date of payment of the distribution.

Any Shareholder Concerned shall be deemed to be a Deduction Shareholder. If it declares itself not to be a Deduction Shareholder, it must provide evidence of this to the Company at the latest fifteen (15) business days before the date of payment of the distributions, by supplying a satisfactory and unreserved legal opinion issued by a law firm with an international reputation having recognised expertise in the area of French tax law, certifying that it is not a Deduction Shareholder and that the distributions paid to it do not render the Company liable to pay the Deduction.

The Company may request any additional evidence as well as information, and the position of the French tax authorities, and may, if necessary, withhold payment of the distribution to the Shareholder Concerned until satisfactory answers are obtained.

In the event that the Company directly and/or indirectly owns a percentage of the rights to dividends of one or more SIIC of the kind referred to in Article 208 C of the French General Taxation Code (Code Général des Impôts) (a "SIIC Subsidiary") at least equal to that referred to in Article 208 C II ter of the French General Taxation Code (Code Général des Impôts), and in the event that the SIIC Subsidiary has paid the Deduction by reason of the situation of the Deduction Shareholder, the Deduction Shareholder shall owe the Company, on the date of payment of the distribution, as the case may be :

- either an amount equal to the amount owed by the Company to the SIIC Subsidiary in respect of the payment of the Deduction by the SIIC Subsidiary;
- or, in the absence of any payment to the SIIC Subsidiary by the Company, an amount equal to the Deduction paid by the SIIC Subsidiary multiplied by the percentage of the rights to dividends of the Company in the SIIC Subsidiary, in such a way that the other shareholders of the Company do not have to bear the economic cost of any part of the Deduction paid by any of the SIIC in the chain of shareholdings by reason of the Deduction Shareholder (the "Additional Indemnity").

In the event of there being more than one Deduction Shareholder, the amount of the Additional Indemnity will be paid by each of the Deduction Shareholders in proportion to their respective rights to dividends divided by the total rights to dividends of the Deduction Shareholders.

The Company will be entitled to set off its indemnity receivable against any Deduction Shareholder, on the one hand, against the sums to be paid by the Company to that Deduction Shareholder, on the other hand. Thus, the sums deducted from the profits of the Company and exempt from corporation tax pursuant to Article 208 C II of the French General Taxation Code (Code Général des Impôts) to be paid to the said Deduction Shareholder in respect of each share owned by it, in accordance with the distribution decision referred to above or pursuant to a buyback of Shares, will be reduced by the amount of the Deduction owed by the Company in respect of the distribution of these sums and/or of the Additional Indemnity.

The amount of any sum owed by a Deduction Shareholder will be calculated in such a way that the Company, after payment of such sum and taking account the tax situation potentially applicable to it, is placed in the same situation as if the Deduction had not become payable.

In the event (i) that after a distribution of dividends, reserves, premiums or “income deemed to have been distributed” within the meaning of the French General Taxation Code (Code Général des Impôts) deducted from the profits of the Company or of a SIIC Subsidiary which is exempt from corporation tax pursuant to Article 208 C II of the French General Taxation Code (Code Général des Impôts), it should appear that a shareholder was a Deduction Shareholder on the date of payment of the said sums and (ii) that the Company or the SIIC Subsidiary ought to have made payment of the Deduction in respect of the sums thus paid, and the said sums were not the subject of the set-off provided for above, that Deduction Shareholder shall be obliged to pay the Company, by way of compensation for the loss that it has suffered, a sum equal, on the one hand, to the Deduction plus any penalty or late payment interest that might have been paid by the Company in respect of each share of the Company that it owned on the date of payment of the distribution of dividends, reserves or premiums concerned, and, on the other hand, if applicable, to the amount of the Additional Indemnity (the “Indemnity”).

If applicable, without prejudice to any other actions that it may take, the Company shall be entitled to set off its receivable in respect of the Indemnity against any sums that might subsequently be paid out to the said Deduction Shareholder.

(b) The General Meeting shall have the power to grant each shareholder an option between payment of the dividend or interim dividends in cash or in Shares, in respect of all or part of the dividend or interim dividends distributed. Any such resolution shall be subject to the Stapled Share Principle. The General Meeting may also decide, for all or part of the dividend, interim dividends, reserves, or premiums distributed, or for any capital reduction, that the distribution of dividends, reserves or premiums or the capital reduction will be made in kind in the form of corporate assets, including securities. In the event of a distribution paid in Shares, Deduction Shareholders shall receive part in Shares and the other part in cash (the latter amount being paid by a payment into an individual current account), so that the set-off mechanism described above can be applied to the fraction of the distribution paid by way of a payment into an individual current account, on the understanding that no fractional Shares will be created and that Deduction Shareholders will receive a cash amount equal to the value of fractional Shares.

(c) The time, manner and place of payment of dividends shall be determined by the Annual General Meeting, or failing that, by the Management Board with the Supervisory Board’s authority. Dividends must be paid within a maximum period of nine months from the end of the financial year.

Any remaining balance is transferred to retained earnings or several reserve accounts by resolution of the shareholders.

IX – WINDING-UP – LIQUIDATION

Article 22 – Winding-up, liquidation

On expiry of the Company or in the event of early winding-up, the shareholders' meeting shall, at the proposal of the Management Board, determine the method of liquidation, appoint one or more liquidators and fix the scope of their powers.

The term of office of the members of the Management Board, the Supervisory Board and the Statutory Auditors shall automatically end with the appointment of a liquidator or liquidators.

During liquidation, the ordinary and extraordinary shareholders' meetings shall retain the same powers as during the life of the Company, and more particularly the power to approve the liquidation statements and grant the liquidators discharge from their duties.

After payment of all liabilities and expenses, any liquidation proceeds are applied first and foremost to redeeming any as yet unredeemed share capital. Any remaining surplus is divided among all the shareholders either in cash or in Shares.

X – DISPUTES – PUBLICATION FORMALITIES

Article 23 – Disputes

Any disputes arising in connection with the Company's affairs during its term or its liquidation, whether as between the shareholders and the Company or as between the shareholders themselves, shall be settled in accordance with French law by the courts having jurisdiction thereof.

Article 24 – Publication formalities

Full powers are conferred upon the bearer of an original, copy or extract of these Articles of Association for the purpose of fulfilling the requisite publication formalities.
