

FIRSTWAVE
CLOUD SECURITY TECHNOLOGY

ASX Release: 7 June 2021

Director Appointment/Resignation

FirstWave Cloud Technology Limited (ASX:FCT) (FirstWave), the Australian global cybersecurity technology company, confirms the appointment Mr David Hwang to the Board as a Non-Executive Director and the resignation of Non-Executive Director Mr David Acton.

Mr Hwang is an experienced corporate lawyer specialising in capital markets, corporate governance and compliance. He currently serves as Principal of Automic Legal (formerly Whittens & McKeough), an Australian specialist law and corporate governance firm. He also serves as Chief Compliance Officer of Automic Group.

He has extensive expertise in legal, governance and compliance matters for ASX-listed entities across a wide range of industry sectors, including technology, and currently serves as company secretary for a number of ASX-listed companies, including LiveTiles Limited (ASX:LVT) and BikeExchange Limited (ASX:BEX). He holds a Bachelor of Laws from UNSW and is also a Notary Public.

Mr Hwang will join the Board on 7 June 2021.

Commenting on Mr Hwang's appointment, FirstWave Executive Chairman, John Grant, said: "The FirstWave Board has benefited greatly from David's counsel since it appointed Automic to provide company secretarial services last year. His skill, commerciality and pragmatism have been highly valued and he joins FirstWave at an important stage of its development. We look forward to his contribution as a Board member."

Mr David Acton resigned as a Non-Executive Director and Chair of FirstWave's Remuneration and Nominations Committee effective 4 June 2021, having served on the Board since 17 June 2020.

Executive Chairman, John Grant, said "David has made a significant contribution to FirstWave during his time on the Board. We thank him sincerely for his insights and application and wish him the best for the future."
