

2 July 2021

Federal Court Judgement

The Directors of Site Group International Limited ("Site" ASX:SIT) inform the market that the Federal Court of Australia has made an adverse finding against its subsidiary, Productivity Partners Pty Ltd in proceedings commenced by the Australian Competition and Consumer Commission. The decision related to the enrolment practices of Productivity Partners over a three month period in late 2015. The Federal Court also found that Site was knowingly concerned in that conduct.

Site is proud of its history of providing education and training to people and organisations throughout Australia, Asia and the Middle East. It will continue to focus on providing the best education and training outcomes for its students.

Site will carefully consider the judgment when it becomes available and will provide an update once that review is complete.

Authorised for release by the Board.

--- END ---

Media and Investors

Craig Dawson

CFO

+61 (7) 3114 5188

craig.dawson@site.edu.au

Principal & Registered Office: Level 2, 488 Queen St, Brisbane QLD 4000

About Site

Site Group International Limited (“Site”) operates several businesses specialising in the delivery of education, training and labour services. Services are delivered to government, corporate and individual clients, predominately operating in energy, mining, construction, oil and gas and industrial sectors.

Site Group International Limited is an emerging company with a strategic business model pursuing earnings-accretive growth based on previous acquisitions along with organic growth.

Site Group International Energy

The Site Group International energy division based in Singapore and Malaysia builds immersive training environments for the purpose of undertaking competency development, specifically the Engineering, Procurement, Construction and Commissioning of Safe Live Process Plant environments.

Site Institute

Site Institute is an Australian Registered Training Organisation and International CRICOS education provider specialising in engineering, trade, and business qualifications. Site Institute has students studying from more than 25 countries including Brazil, China, Colombia, France, Germany, Hong Kong, Italy, Nepal, Taiwan, UK, and Zimbabwe.

Site Online Learning

Site Online Learning (SOL) services and hosts Site’s learning, student and competency management systems across its businesses, develops online learning programs, and converts existing learning content into online programs. SOL services clients within Government, Corporate, and Education and Training sectors to transform their training programs online, utilising advanced online engagement methodologies.

Site Skills Training, International

Site Skills Training, International focuses on developing workforces throughout Asia and the Middle-East. With its head office based in the Philippines 300,000sqm Clark Freeport Zone facility. It places students under real-world work situations utilising various immersive training environments, including an underground mine, safe live process plant, hydraulic power generation, and full service kitchen.

Site Skills Training, International works with governments and organisations of emerging and developed nations to meet the needs of workforce nationalisation targets to ensure locals are skilled for the future.

Site WorkReady

Site WorkReady (SWR) provides workforce solutions to companies in the mining, energy, construction, and hospitality industries. They ensure workers meet the experience and skill requirements of projects to reduce training lead times by clients. SWR works with Governments and Companies located throughout Australia, New Zealand, Asia, Africa, and the Middle-East; deploying over 3,500 skilled tradesmen who are cross-skilled to provide a level of flexibility to client project requirements.

TESOL Asia

TESOL Asia is a training and industry focussed organisation for Teachers in the English as a Second Language (ESL) sector. It provides access to training, consulting, industry conferences and academic journals around the world.

Wild Geese International

Wild Geese International (WGI) operate an Oil and Gas Competency Development and Design consultancy business unit. An Australian Registered Training Organisation, Wild Geese have integrated into Site’s broader national and international service capability.