CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

The Directors and management of Mosaic Brands Limited (Mosaic or Mosaic Brands or the Company) are committed to conducting the business of Mosaic and its controlled entities (the Group) in an ethical manner and in accordance with the highest standards of corporate governance. The Company has adopted and substantially complies with the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Fourth Edition) (Recommendations) to the extent appropriate to the size and nature of the Group's operations.

The Company has prepared this statement, which sets out its corporate governance practices during the financial year, ended on 27 June 2021. This statement identifies any Recommendations that have not been followed and provides reasons for not following such Recommendations. The responses to the recommendations below are prepared with respect to the year ended 27 June 2021 (Reporting Period) and apply to the whole of the Reporting Period unless otherwise stated.

The Company's corporate governance policies and charters and policies are all available under the Corporate Governance section of the Company's website (<https://mosaicbrandslimited.com.au>) (Website).

Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight A listed entity should clearly delineate the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management and regularly review their performance.
1.1	A listed entity should disclose a board charter setting out: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	Complying The Board has adopted a charter (Board Charter) which establishes the role of the Board and its relationship with management. The Board Charter clearly articulates the division of responsibilities between the Board and management, in order to manage expectations and avoid misunderstandings about their respective roles and accountabilities. As detailed in the Board Charter, the primary role of the Board is pertaining to all matters relating to the strategic direction, policies, practices, goals for management and the operation of the Company. The Board is also responsible for the overall corporate governance of the Company. The Board Charter additionally sets out the role and responsibility of the Chairman, and outlines the Board's policy on when and how Directors may seek independent professional advice at the expense of the Company. The Board has delegated to the Managing Director / Chief Executive Officer (MD) the authority and power to manage Mosaic Brands and its businesses within levels of authority specified by the Board from time to time. The MD may sub-delegate aspects of his authority and power but remains accountable to the Board for Mosaic's performance and is required to report regularly to the Board on the progress being made by Mosaic's business units.

			In accordance with the Board Charter, the Board reviews the Board Charter at least annually and, in doing so, reviews the division of functions between the Board and management to ensure that it continues to be appropriate to the needs of the Group.
1.2	A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive or putting someone forward for election as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	Complying	Richard Facioni was re-elected as director by a general meeting of the Company during the Reporting Period. Security holders were provided with all material information on the re-election decision in the Explanatory Memorandum attached to the relevant Notice of General Meeting.
1.3	A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Complying	All Directors and senior executives have entered into written agreements with the Company. The Company has entered into an agreement with its Managing Director. Specifically, each Non-Executive Director has been given a letter of appointment and the Board Charter which outlines terms including the Director's duties, obligations, remuneration, expected time commitments and notification of the Company's policies. Similarly, senior executives have a formal job description and services agreement or employment agreement with the Company describing their term of office, duties, rights and responsibilities, and entitlements on termination.
1.4	The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Complying	The Company Secretary is accountable to the Board, and all Directors have access to the Company Secretary. The decision to appoint or remove the Company Secretary is made or approved by the Board. The Company Secretary is responsible for the day to day operations of the company secretary's office, including the administration of Board and Committee meetings, overseeing Mosaic's relationship with its share registrar and lodgements with the ASX and other regulators. The Company Secretary is also responsible for communications with the ASX about listing rule matters, including making disclosures to the ASX in accordance with Company's Continuous Disclosure Policy. The Company Secretary supports the effectiveness of the Board by monitoring compliance with Board policies and procedures, and co-ordinating the completion and despatch of Board agendas and briefing papers. The role of the Company Secretary is outlined in the Board Charter in Section 8.4.

1.5	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a diversity policy; (b) through its board or a committee of the board set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executives and workforce generally; and (c) disclose in relation to each reporting period: (1) the measurable objectives set for that period to achieve gender diversity; (2) the entity's progress towards achieving those objectives; and (3) either a. (1) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole workforce (including how the	Part-Complying The Company is committed to the principles of employing people with a broad range of experiences, skills and views. All executives, managers and employees are responsible for promoting workforce diversity. Mosaic Brands values a diverse and inclusive workplace and is committed to finding ways to actively support and encourage a workforce made up of individuals with diverse skills, experiences, backgrounds and attributes. The Company recognises the importance of benefiting from all available talent and uses diversity as a driver for recruitment. The Company has a diversity policy which documents its principles and commitment in relation to diversity. This policy is disclosed on the Company's website. Whilst the Company has not set formal measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity, the Company is nonetheless committed to recruiting employees from a diverse pool of qualified candidates. As at 27 June 2021, the respective proportions of men and women in the Company were: • Board – 4 Director positions with 3 males, 1 female • Senior Executives - there are 15 positions with 7 males and 8 females • Senior Managers - there are 28 positions with 11 males and 17 females • Managers - there are 221 positions with 38 male and 183 female • Non-manager positions – there are 7,748 positions (full time and part time or contract) with 213 male and 7,535 female The Board is charged with the responsibility of undertaking an annual review to: ▪ assess its policies and procedures in reference to its diversity objectives;

1.6	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	Complying	The Directors undertake an annual process to review the performance and effectiveness of the Board and individual directors. The process for performance evaluation of the Board, its committees and individual directors is set out in section 6.5 of the Board Charter. The Company Secretary oversees this process. As part of the review, each Director completes a questionnaire relating to the Board’s role, composition, procedures, practices and behaviour. The questionnaires are confidential. The Chairman leads a discussion of the questionnaire results with the Board as a whole, and provides feedback to individual Directors as necessary. A performance evaluation for the Directors has taken place in the Reporting Period.
1.7	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for evaluating the performance of its senior executives at least once every reporting period; and (b) disclose for each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation has been undertaken in	Complying	The Board, together with the Company’s Managing Director (MD), evaluates the performance of the Group’s senior executives annually. The Board reviews the MD’s performance annually. Senior Management review annually their respective Managers, their performance goals and the extent to which such goals have been achieved. Senior executives supply the Board with information in a form and timeframe, and of a quality that enables the Board to discharge its duties effectively. Directors are entitled to request additional information where they

The Company has a senior executive performance evaluation policy in its Board Charter. An evaluation of the Managing Director and other senior executives was undertaken in the Reporting Period in accordance with the process set out in the evaluation policy.
Principle 2 – Structure the board to be effective and add value The board of a listed entity should be of an appropriate size and collectively have the, skills, commitment and knowledge of the entity and the industry to enable it to discharge its duties effectively and to add value.
2.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose	Part Complying	The Board has established a Nomination Committee within the framework of the Remuneration Committee and its roles and responsibilities are set out in the Remuneration & Nomination Committee charter. The Remuneration and Nomination Committee, where required: ▪ identifies suitable candidates with appropriate skills, experience, expertise and diversity to complement the existing Board, in order for the Board to discharge its mandate effectively and to maintain the necessary mix of expertise on the Board; ▪ undertakes appropriate checks on candidates and seeks confirmation from candidates that they will have sufficient time to fulfil their responsibilities as a director; and ▪ subject to the results of such checks and confirmations, makes recommendations to the Board on their appointment. Where appropriate, external consultants are engaged to assist in searching for candidates and undertaking relevant checks. The Remuneration and Nomination Committee also periodically reviews its composition and performance and considers matters pertaining to succession plans and ensuring that adequate succession plans are in place (including for the recruitment and appointment of Directors and senior management).

that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.
2.2 A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Complying	The Board aims to be comprised of Directors which have, at all times, the appropriate mix of skills, experience, expertise and diversity relevant to Mosaic's businesses and the Board's responsibilities. The Board regularly evaluates the mix of skills, experience and diversity at Board level, and has developed and adopted a Board skills matrix which has been tailored to the circumstances and requirements of Mosaic. The skills matrix is reviewed annually by the Board to ensure that ongoing needs in relation to supervising the Company and its operations are being met, and to take into account any changes in the Company's circumstances and strategic priorities. The objectives of the skills matrix adopted by the Board are to: ▪ Identify the skills, knowledge, experience and capabilities that are considered to be desired of the Board as a whole, in order for the Board to fulfil its role and in light of Company's strategic direction; ▪ Ascertain the current skills, knowledge, experience and capabilities of the Board, and provide the incumbent Directors with an opportunity to reflect upon and discuss the current composition of the Board; and ▪ Identify any gaps in skills or competencies that can be addressed in future director appointments. The Board considers that it currently has an appropriate mix of skills and diversity. The Mosaic Board comprises directors who collectively have the skills, knowledge and

(c) the length of service of each director.		In reaching the conclusions set out above, the Board considered the guidelines of materiality for the purpose of determining Director independence set out in the Board Charter and Box 2.3 of the Recommendations. The Board will continually assess whether there are any factors or considerations which may mean that a Director's interest, position, association or relationship might influence, or reasonably be perceived to influence, the capacity of the Director to bring an independent judgement to bear on issues before the Board and to act in the best interests of the Company and its security holders generally. The Corporations Act and monthly Board meeting processes require Directors to advise the Board of any interest they have that has the potential to conflict with the interests of the Group, including any development that may impact their perceived or actual independence. If the Board determines that a Director's status as an independent Director has changed, that determination will be disclosed and explained in a timely manner to the market. The length of service of each Director is set out above and in the Company's Annual Report.
2.4 A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	Not Complying	Of the five Directors on the Company's Board of Directors as at the date of this Statement, two are independent. The Company has not complied with this recommendation during the Reporting Period. Given the present size and nature of the Company, the composition of the Board is considered appropriate at this time. The Board will consider the appointment of further independent directors if the Company increases in size and complexity.
2.5 The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	Part Complying	The positions of Chairman and the CEO/MD are held by separate persons. (Richard Facioni and Scott Evans respectively). Mr Richard Facioni, Chairman of the Board, is a Non-Executive Director. He is not an independent director. Nevertheless, the Board remains of the view that it is in the best interests of the Company for Richard Facioni to continue as Non-Executive Chairman given his skills and wealth of experience.

3.2	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclosure a code of conduct for its directors, senior executives and employees; and (b) ensure that the board or a committee of the board is informed of any material breaches of that code.	Complying	The Board is committed to observing the highest standards of corporate practice and business conduct. Accordingly, the Board has adopted a Code of Conduct. The Code of Conduct articulates acceptable practices for directors, senior executives and employees, to guide their behaviour and to demonstrate the commitment of the Company to ethical practices. The Company also seeks to ensure that advisers, consultants and contractors are aware of the Company's expectations as set out in its Code of Conduct. Responsibilities of Mosaic's personnel under the Code of Conduct include protection of Mosaic's business, using Mosaic's resources in an appropriate manner, protecting confidential information and avoiding conflicts of interest. The Company's Code of Conduct is disclosed in the Corporate Governance section of the Company's website.
3.3	A listed entity should: (a) Have and disclose a whistleblower policy; and (b) Ensure that the board or a committee of the board is informed of any material incidents reported under that policy.	Complying	The Board has established and adopted a Whistleblower Policy. The Whistleblower Policy is reviewed by the Board The Company will take appropriate steps to ensure that the Board is informed of any material breaches of the Whistleblower Policy. A copy of the Company's Whistleblower Policy is available on the Company's Website.
3.4	A listed entity should: (a) Have and disclose an anti-bribery and corruption policy; and (b) Ensure that the board or a committee of the board is informed of any material breaches of that policy.		The Board has an Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy. The Anti-Bribery and Corruption Policy, as part of the code of conduct, will be reviewed regularly by the Board. Principle 4 – Safeguard integrity of corporate reports

A listed entity should have appropriate processes to verify the integrity of its corporate reports.

4.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have an audit committee which: (1) has at least three members, all of whom are non-executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, who is not the chair of the board, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee; and (5) in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have an audit committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting,	Part - Complying	The Board has an Audit and Risk Committee. It is comprised of David Wilshire (Chair), Jacqueline Frank and Richard Facioni. All members of the committee are non-executive directors. Jacqueline Frank, is an independent director. The relevant qualifications and experience of the committee members are disclosed in the Board of Directors section on the Company's website. The Audit and Risk Committee has a charter disclosed in the Corporate Governance section of the Company's website. The number of times that the Audit and Risk Committee met throughout the financial year and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings, and the relevant qualifications and experience of the Audit and Risk Committee members are disclosed in the Company's Annual Report.

	including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner.
4.2	The board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	Complying	The Directors are committed to the preparation of financial statements that present a balanced and clear assessment of the Group's financial position and prospects. The Board reviews the Group's half yearly and annual financial statements. The Board has a process to receive written assurances from the CEO and the CFO that the Group's financial reports present a true and fair view, in all material respects, of the Group's financial condition and operational results, and are in accordance with relevant accounting standards, and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively. The Board does and will continue to seek these assurances prior to approving the annual financial statements for all half year and full year results The Company has complied with this recommendation during the Reporting Period.
4.3	A listed entity should disclose its process to verify the integrity of any periodic corporate report it released to the market that is not audited by an external auditor		Where the Company communicates with the market from time to time outside of the Audit period it ensures that additional information has documented support

Principle 5 – Make timely and balanced disclosure

A listed entity should make timely and balanced disclosure of all matters concerning it that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of its securities.

Mosaic Brands Limited

(Company)

5.1	A listed entity should have and disclose a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under the Listing Rule 3.1.	Complying	The Board has adopted a Continuous Disclosure Policy which has established procedures designed to ensure compliance with ASX Listing Rule disclosure requirements and to ensure accountability at a senior management level for that compliance. The focus of these procedures is on continuous disclosure of any information concerning the Group that a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price of the Company's securities and improving access to information for all investors. The purpose of the procedures for identifying information for disclosure is to ensure timely and accurate information is provided equally to all shareholders and market participants. The Company Secretary is responsible for all communications with the ASX. All Company announcements are vetted and authorised by the Board and senior management to ensure they are made in a timely manner, are factual, do not omit material information and are expressed in a clear and objective manner that allows investors to assess the impact of the information when making investment decisions. A copy of the Continuous Disclosure Policy is available in the Corporate Governance section on the Company's website.
5.2	A listed entity should ensure that its board receives copies of all material market announcements promptly after they have been made	Complying	Material market announcements are approved by the Board at regular board meetings scheduled to coincide with ASX filing timetable requirements. Other material market announcements are communicated in monthly Board papers.
5.3	A listed entity that gives a new and substantive investor or analyst presentation should release a copy of the presentation materials on the ASX Market Announcements Platform ahead of the presentation.	Complying	Results presentations and transcripts of the Chairman's address at annual general meetings are released on the ASX Market Announcements Platform before the start of the meetings. Other presentations to new or substantive shareholders or investor analysts are released on the ASX Market Announcements Platform prior to the relevant presentations.
Principle 6 – Respect the rights of security holders A listed entity should provide its security holders with appropriate information and facilities to allow them to exercise those rights as security holders effectively.

ACN 003 321 579
(Company)

6.1	A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	Complying	The 'Investor Information' section of Mosaic's Website is the primary medium of providing information to all shareholders and stakeholders. It has been designed to enable information to be accessed in a clear and readily accessible manner. The Investor Information section of the Website contains information relevant to shareholders and stakeholders including: ▪ all relevant announcements made to the market, including annual and half yearly reports; ▪ information provided to analysts or media during briefings; and ▪ the full text of notices of meeting and explanatory material. All corporate governance policies and charters adopted by the Board are available in the Corporate Governance section of the Website.
6.2	A listed entity should have an investor relations program that facilitates effective two-way communication with investors.	Complying	The Board is committed to facilitating effective two-way communication with its shareholders, investors and stakeholders, and has adopted a Shareholder Communications Policy to define and support this commitment. A copy of the Shareholder Communications Policy is available in the Corporate Governance section of the Website. This is achieved principally by the distribution of regular information updates to shareholders which consist of the following: • The annual financial results and report; • Relevant announcements released to the ASX; • Notice of meeting and explanatory material for the annual general meeting; • The Chairman's and Managing Director's address to shareholders; • Any letters from the Managing Director and Chairman informing shareholders of key matters of interest; • Any presentation to analysts; and • Invitation to attend the annual general meeting and to ask questions of the Board and the External Auditor.

Mosaic Brands Limited

6.3	A listed entity should disclose how it facilitates and encourages participation at meetings of security holders.	Complying	Shareholders are encouraged to attend the Company's general meetings and notice of such meetings will be given in accordance with the Company's Constitution, the Corporations Act, and the ASX Listing Rules. The Company's annual general meeting in particular is an opportunity for shareholders to receive updates from the CEO and Chairman on Group performance, ask questions of the Board and vote on the various resolutions affecting the Company's business. Shareholders are also given an opportunity at annual general meetings to ask questions of the Company's auditors regarding the conduct of the audit and preparation and content of the auditor's report. The date, time and location of the Company's general meetings will be provided in the notices of meetings, and on the Website. Whilst shareholders are encouraged to attend meetings in person, in the event that they are unable to do so, they are encouraged to participate in the meeting by appointing a proxy, attorney or representative to vote on their behalf.
6.4	A listed entity should ensure that all substantive resolutions at a meeting of security holders are decided by a poll rather than a show of hands	Complying	All substantive resolutions at a meeting of security holders are captured by the companies provider Computershare and are in accordance to ASX requirements.
6.5	A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	Complying	The Company encourages its shareholders to receive company information electronically by registering their email addresses online with the share registry. The Company gives security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the Company and its share registry electronically. Investors can apply to join the Company's mailing list. Updates on the Company's business are emailed to investors from time to time. The Company's website enables investors and others to request investor information. The Company's share registry also engages with security holders electronically and makes available a range of relevant forms on its website. Security holders can register with the share registry to access security holder information via the share registry's website.

The Board oversees policies on risk assessment and management. The Board is responsible for reviewing annually, or more frequently as required, that management has developed and implemented a sound system of risk management and internal control. The Company's risk management policy is included in the Audit and Risk Committee Charter disclosed in the Corporate Governance section of the Company's website.
7.3	A listed entity should disclose: (a) if it has an internal audit function, how the function is structured and what role it performs; or (b) if it does not have an internal audit function, that fact and the processes it employs for evaluating and continually improving the effectiveness of its governance, risk management and internal control processes.	Complying	The Company does not, at this time, have an internal audit function. The Board has responsibility for ensuring that the Company has appropriate internal audit systems and controls in place, and for overseeing the effectiveness of these internal controls. The Board is also responsible for conducting investigations of breaches or potential breaches of these internal controls. The Company's external auditors also provide recommendations to the Board where internal control weaknesses have been identified. During the year, the Board was responsible for overseeing the implementation of recommendations to improve internal control weaknesses made by the Company's auditors.
7.4	A listed entity should disclose whether it has any material exposure to environmental or social risks and, if it does, how it manages or intends to manage those risks.	Complying	The Group's operations are not subject to any significant environmental regulations under the Commonwealth or State legislation. The Company does not consider, given the nature of its business, that it has any specific extraordinary exposure to economic, environmental and social sustainability risks.
Principle 8 – Remunerate fairly and responsibly A listed entity should pay director remuneration sufficient to attract and retain high quality directors and design its executive remuneration to attract, retain and motivate high quality senior executives and to align their interests with the creation of value for security holders and with the entity's values and risk appetite.
