

BANK OF QUEENSLAND NEW EXECUTIVE APPOINTMENTS

Tuesday, 21 September, 2021 (Brisbane): Bank of Queensland (BOQ) appoints new Chief Risk Officer and Group Executive Business Banking.

New Chief Risk Officer

With more than 25 years senior executive experience in financial services David Watts, will join as BOQ's Group Chief Risk Officer in early 2022. Mr Watts has deep experience in financial and non-financial risk management and has held CRO roles at several leading financial institutions in Australia and New Zealand.

Mr Watts comes to BOQ directly from IAG, Australia's largest general insurer, where he has been Group CRO since 2018. Prior to this, Mr Watts spent seventeen years at NAB and nine years at Westpac in a variety of senior executive roles including CRO roles at both institutions. He has led major transformation programs and is a proven leader known for embedding strong risk culture in organisations.

Current Chief Risk Officer Adam McAnalen will remain an executive within the Group and will be moving into a new role to lead key elements of the integration and transformation program. Mr McAnalen will remain as Group CRO ahead of a transition to Mr Watts.

New Group Executive BOQ Business

Chris Screen, currently BOQ's Chief Product Officer, has been appointed to the role of Group Executive Business Banking. Since joining in 2019, Mr Screen has supported key turnaround programs across the Bank and was the interim Group Executive for Retail Banking. He has extensive business banking experience and has held executive roles at Westpac, St. George and NAB. Mr Screen's appointment is effective from 1 October 2021.

Having provided valuable leadership of the Business Bank amid a challenging period impacted by Covid-19 disruption, Fiamma Morton has decided it is the right time to pursue other opportunities and will depart as Group Executive BOQ Business.
