

QTM:ASX Announcement

Appointment of Stephanie Wen as Non-Executive Director of Quantum Health Group Limited

Quantum Health Group Limited ASX:QTM (Quantum) is pleased to announce the appointment of Stephanie Wen to its Board of Directors effective from 27 September 2021.

Quantum Chairman, Drew Townsend, said “I am very pleased with the appointment of Stephanie to the Board. With Quantum’s current growth phase across Asia, Stephanie will add significant value to our Board having cross-border M&A transaction experience and prior legal advisory experience for ASX listed companies. Stephanie’s appointment to the Board broadens Quantum’s mix of skills including corporate governance, oversight and contributes to Quantum’s diversity values”.

Stephanie Wen, Non-Executive Director

Stephanie is an experienced and dynamic legal professional with broad corporate transaction and legal advisory experience across the APAC region. Stephanie has over 20 years of professional industry experience across Media, Legal to Financial Services. Her corporate transaction experience ranges from public and private cross-border M&A activity, IPO’s to capital raising in both Asia and Australia.

Stephanie is experienced in advising ASX listed companies in respect of governance and ASX listing rules as well as being responsible for the Legal and Compliance functions of well-regarded global financial institutions. Stephanie’s time as a working professional in Asia and her proficiency in Mandarin and Japanese languages contribute to her deep understanding of Asian business culture.

Stephanie graduated from the University of New South Wales with a dual degree in Law and Commerce (LL.B) (B.Com: Accounting), prior to completing a Master of International Affairs (International Business and Finance) at the Columbia University in New York.

Authorised for lodgement by Mr John Walstab, CEO/Managing Director, Quantum Health Group Limited.
