

Quickstep appoints new CFO

5 October 2021: Quickstep Holdings Limited (ASX: QHL) (Company or Quickstep), today announced that Alan Tilley, Chief Financial Officer since July 2018 has resigned from the Company to pursue a new career opportunity. Following a formal search and selection process the Company is pleased to announce the appointment of Stephen Gaffney as our new Chief Financial Officer. Stephen will be based in Sydney and his official start date will be October 25th. After a short handover period Alan's final day with the business will be October 26th.

Mark Burgess said "I would like to thank Alan for his significant contribution to the business over the last 3 years, a period during which Quickstep has delivered strong revenue growth, dramatically improved profit performance, excellent cash generation and our first acquisition. Alan has provided positive financial leadership across the group and expert counsel to the Executive Leadership Team and the Board".

Stephen has extensive experience across multiple industry sectors and in international markets. He has held finance, IT and supply chain leadership roles in audit, pharmaceuticals, aerospace and mining and was previously CFO of ASX-listed mining services company Ludowici Limited.

Commenting on the appointment, Mark Burgess said "Quickstep is delighted to have secured a talented new CFO who has deep knowledge of global markets, business systems, supply chain, audit, M&A and the listed environment. His time spent in aerospace will also ensure he hits the ground running. We welcome Stephen to the team and look forward to him joining in the very near future."
