Appointment of Chief Operating Officer

KEY HIGHLIGHTS

- Envirosuite strengthens leadership team with appointment of new Chief Operating Officer (COO), Aaron Lapsley
- Mr Lapsley is responsible for ensuring ongoing operational excellence in client servicing and product delivery to EVS' growing global client base
- Mr Lapsley has a unique mix of strategic and engineering skills, was previously employed by Cushman & Wakefield and Deloitte Consulting and has earned an MBA from Harvard Business School

Leading environmental intelligence technology company Envirosuite Limited ('Envirosuite' or 'the Company') is pleased to announce the appointment of Aaron Lapsley to the role of Chief Operating Officer (COO) as part of the build-out and strengthening of the executive leadership team.

Mr Lapsley brings a unique combination of strategy, transformation, operations, and engineering expertise to the business from Silicon Valley, having worked at Cushman & Wakefield, a global commercial real estate services firm, as Head of Digital Buildings Practice and Director on Google's Bay Area office portfolio. He also previously served as Vice President of Services and Product at Switch Automation, a venture-backed enterprise software and IoT company for the digital transformation of real estate, and Senior Consultant, Strategy & Operations at Deloitte.

Most recently he founded and led System2, a consulting firm specialising in technology for built environments and other fixed asset industries. Mr Lapsley earned his MBA at Harvard Business School and holds a Bachelor in Mechanical Engineering.

As COO, he will be responsible for operational excellence, execution optimisation and the way that Envirosuite delivers solutions and support to its global client base. Building on the strong foundations in place, Mr Lapsley will provide leadership and rigour to drive efficiency and growth in the operational strategy and delivery of the Company's product suite.

Mr Lapsley will report to the CEO and be based in the Americas region, thus complementing, and aligning with the Company's growth strategy of the business.

Envirosuite CEO, Jason Cooper said:

“We are delighted to have Aaron join our executive team with his impressive track record of strategic, operational and commercial accomplishments. Aaron will bring strategic leadership as we continue to increase our commitment and focus on the customer, optimising the way we work to deliver best-in-class solutions and service, as well as helping to drive our growth agenda in the Americas as well as globally.”

COO Aaron Lapsley said,

“It’s a compelling time to join Envirosuite as the Company has shown strong growth year on year and a drive to be the leading environmental intelligence company in the world. I am incredibly energised to take on this role and look forward to helping lead the company to its next phase of growth through increasing our capacity to best serve customers, users and our global teams.”

Authorised for release by the Board of Envirosuite Limited.
