Consolidation of Class Action Proceedings

On 10 December 2020 and 22 February 2021, Noumi Ltd (ASX: NOU) advised that it had been served with two Victorian Supreme Court class action proceedings alleging that the Company and its auditors, Deloitte Touche Tomatsu, had breached the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth), the Australian Securities and Investments Commission Act and the Australian Consumer Law.

Noumi advises that it has been served with a consolidated statement of claim following orders made by the Court that the two proceedings be consolidated and conducted as a single proceeding with Slater & Gordon and Phi Finney McDonald acting jointly as solicitors.

The consolidated statement of claim does not contain any new allegations in relation to Noumi.
