Reasons Why You Should Accept HOCHTIEF Australia's Offer

This Section sets out the key reasons why you should accept the Offer.

1. The Offer represents an attractive premium for your CIMIC shares

The Offer provides attractive value to CIMIC Shareholders based on CIMIC's historical trading prices prior to the Announcement Date, as summarised in Figure 1 below. If you accept the Offer, you will receive $22.00 in cash for each CIMIC Share you hold, subject to the terms of this Offer<sup>7</sup>.

The Offer provides an attractive premium to CIMIC Shareholders despite HOCHTIEF Australia already having control of CIMIC.

The Offer represents a premium of:

- 33.4% to the trading price of CIMIC Shares on ASX at the close of trading on 23 February 2022, being the Announcement Date;
- 35.4% to the one month VWAP of CIMIC Shares up to and including 23 February 2022; and
- 30.9% to the three month VWAP of CIMIC Shares up to and including 23 February 2022.

Offer premium to trading prices of CIMIC Shares<sup>8</sup>

2. Certain and immediate value for your CIMIC shares

The Offer provides you with certain and immediate value for Your CIMIC Shares through 100% cash consideration regardless of future market conditions. In contrast, if you do not accept the Offer, the amount you will be able to realise for Your CIMIC Shares will necessarily be uncertain. The Offer removes this uncertainty for CIMIC Shareholders.

As outlined in detail in Section 6.1, HOCHTIEF Australia may become entitled under Part 6A.1 or Part 6A.2 of the Corporations Act to exercise rights to compulsorily acquire all outstanding CIMIC Shares, so that CIMIC becomes a wholly-owned subsidiary of HOCHTIEF AG. If entitled to do so, HOCHTIEF Australia currently intends to exercise those rights in the manner described in Section 6.1.

HOCHTIEF Australia intends that the consideration to be paid to any remaining CIMIC Shareholders through any compulsory acquisition process is to be the Consideration.

It can be expected that the consideration for CIMIC Shares on compulsory acquisition would be paid later than the time of payment if the CIMIC Shareholder had accepted the Offer. As such, acceptance of the Offer should mean CIMIC Shareholders receive the Consideration sooner than they would receive the consideration through any compulsory acquisition process.

Further information on the compulsory acquisition processes under Part 6A.1 and Part 6A.2 of the Corporations Act is set out in Section 6.1.

3. Avoid a potential reduction in liquidity

HOCHTIEF Australia currently owns approximately 83.15% of the CIMIC Shares on issue. Each acceptance of the Offer will reduce the liquidity of CIMIC Shares and may make it difficult to sell Your CIMIC Shares outside the Offer at current prevailing prices. The Offer enables all CIMIC Shareholders to exit their shareholding in an orderly manner at the Offer Price.

<sup>7</sup> The Offer Price of $22.00 is subject to the Offer terms specified in this document, including in Sections 7.1, 7.9(j) and 7.9(k) in relation to Rights such as dividends and other entitlements. Under the Offer terms, if a CIMIC Shareholder accepts the Offer in respect of its CIMIC Shares, then HOCHTIEF Australia will be entitled to all Rights attaching to those CIMIC Shares, which includes the amount of any dividends declared or paid by CIMIC after the Announcement Date. For further details with respect to the treatment of Rights (including the FY21 Dividend) under the Offer, please refer to the Key Question entitled 'What if CIMIC pays a dividend?' on page 9 of this Bidder's Statement.

CIMIC is currently a member of the ASX 200 Index, and a number of CIMIC's institutional investors are expected to be index funds which seek to track this index. As HOCHTIEF Australia continues to increase its ownership of CIMIC, including under the Offer, CIMIC's index weighting is likely to reduce and CIMIC may be removed from the ASX 200 Index if it ceases to satisfy the requirements of the index. This may negatively impact the trading of CIMIC Shares over time as index funds reduce the size of their CIMIC holding or, if CIMIC is removed from the ASX 200 Index, sell their CIMIC Shares.

Subject to the requirements of the Corporations Act, ASX Listing Rules and the constitution of CIMIC, at the end of the Offer Period, HOCHTIEF Australia intends to seek to have CIMIC removed from the official list of ASX. Further information on the intentions of HOCHTIEF Australia is provided for in Section 3.

4. The Offer price will not be increased<sup>9</sup> and a competing bid is highly unlikely

The Offer Price is final and cannot be increased during the Offer Period, in the absence of a competing proposal.

As noted above, HOCHTIEF Australia currently owns approximately 83.15% of CIMIC. Accordingly, HOCHTIEF Australia can, on its own, prevent any other potential bidder from acquiring the required number of CIMIC Shares necessary to compulsorily acquire CIMIC and complete any acquisition. This will reduce the likelihood of there being any competing bid for CIMIC. Additionally, as no other party would be able to secure control of CIMIC (i.e. greater than 50% of outstanding shares), and HOCHTIEF Australia is in a position to block another bidder achieving control, it is unlikely that any party will offer a premium for 'control'.

5. Share price may fall if CIMIC shareholders do not accept

The last closing price of CIMIC Shares on ASX at the close of trading on 23 February 2022, being the Announcement Date, was $16.49. Given CIMIC Shareholders are being offered a premium for their CIMIC Shares under the Offer and also that a competing bid is highly unlikely, the CIMIC Share price may fall once the Offer has lapsed and trade at a material discount to the Offer Price (although this is difficult to predict with any degree of certainty).

6. Accepting the Offer removes your exposure to the risks associated with remaining a minority shareholder in CIMIC

HOCHTIEF Australia believes that the Offer represents compelling value for Your CIMIC Shares.

As a CIMIC Shareholder, you are subject to a number of risks that may affect the market price of CIMIC Shares, including, but not limited to:

- the uncertain future market price of CIMIC Shares, in the absence of the Offer and/or any superior proposal;
- the market for CIMIC Shares may become less liquid;
- if CIMIC is removed from the ASX 200 Index, this may negatively impact the trading of CIMIC Shares over time;
- CIMIC's dividend policy may change; and
- HOCHTIEF Australia may seek to have CIMIC removed from the official list of ASX.

Accepting the Offer gives CIMIC Shareholders the ability to realise a certain cash amount at a premium for CIMIC Shares and removes your exposure to these risks.

If you accept the Offer, you will be paid on or before the date that is 5 Business Days after your valid acceptance is received.

7. No conditionality

The Offer is unconditional which means that it is not subject to any defeating conditions.

8. Other benefits

In addition to a premium, you will not incur any brokerage charges on the transfer of Your CIMIC Shares to HOCHTIEF Australia pursuant to the Offer<sup>10</sup>.

<sup>10</sup> If Your CIMIC Shares are in a CHESS Holding or you hold Your CIMIC Shares through a bank, custodian or other nominee, you should ask your Controlling Participant (usually, your Broker or a bank, custodian or other nominee) whether it will charge any transaction fees or service charges connected with you accepting the Offer.

HOCHTIEF Australia's Intentions

3.1

Overview

This Section 3 sets out HOCHTIEF Australia's intentions in relation to:

- (a) the continuation of the business of CIMIC;
- (b) any major changes to the business of CIMIC and any redeployment of the fixed assets of CIMIC; and
- (c) the future employment of the present employees of CIMIC.

The intentions, views, understanding and beliefs of HOCHTIEF Australia as set out in this Section 3 are the same as those of HOCHTIEF AG, and are collectively referred to as the intentions of HOCHTIEF Australia in this Section 3.

These intentions are based on publicly available information concerning CIMIC and the general business environment that is known to HOCHTIEF Australia at the time of preparation of this Bidder's Statement.

HOCHTIEF Australia does not currently have full knowledge of all material information, facts and circumstances that are necessary to assess the operational, commercial, tax, regulatory and financial implications of its current intentions. Final decisions regarding these matters will only be made by HOCHTIEF Australia in light of material information and circumstances at the relevant time.

Accordingly, the statements set out in this Section 3 are statements of current intention only, which may change as new information becomes available to HOCHTIEF Australia or as circumstances change. These intentions are also subject to the outcome of analysis to be undertaken by HOCHTIEF Australia, as contemplated by Section 3.2(c) and Section 3.3(b).

The extent to which HOCHTIEF Australia will be able to implement its intentions in relation to CIMIC will be subject to the Corporations Act and the ASX Listing Rules and the legal obligations of the directors of CIMIC.

This Section sets out HOCHTIEF Australia's intentions in relation to the matters referred to above in the following circumstances:

- (a) where HOCHTIEF Australia has, during or at the end of the Offer Period:
  - (i) a Relevant Interest in at least 90% (by number) of CIMIC Shares, and HOCHTIEF Australia has acquired at least 75% (by number) of the CIMIC Shares that HOCHTIEF Australia has offered to acquire under the bid (whether the acquisitions happened under the bid or otherwise)<sup>19</sup>, in which case CIMIC is entitled to exercise compulsory acquisition rights in respect of the remaining CIMIC Shares pursuant to Part 6A.1 of the Corporations Act. For further details of the circumstances in which HOCHTIEF Australia would exercise its rights under Part 6A.1 of the Corporations Act, please refer to Section 6.1(a); or
  - (ii) a Relevant Interest in at least 90% (by number) of CIMIC Shares, in which case CIMIC is entitled to exercise compulsory acquisition rights in respect of the remaining CIMIC Shares pursuant to Part 6A.2 of the Corporations Act. For further details of the circumstances in which HOCHTIEF Australia would exercise its rights under Part 6A.2 of the Corporations Act, please refer to Section 6.1(b); and
- (b) where HOCHTIEF Australia has a Relevant Interest in CIMIC Shares that is between 83.15% (being, HOCHTIEF Australia's current Relevant Interest in CIMIC) and 90% (and, as a result, HOCHTIEF Australia is not entitled to compulsorily acquire the remaining CIMIC Shares pursuant to Part 6A.1 or Part 6A.2 of the Corporations Act).

If HOCHTIEF Australia is entitled to exercise compulsory acquisition rights in respect of the remaining CIMIC Shares under Part 6A.1 or Part 6A.2 of the Corporations Act, HOCHTIEF Australia currently intends to exercise those rights in the manner described in Section 6.1, so that, if the compulsory acquisition of the remaining CIMIC Shares is successful, CIMIC becomes a wholly-owned subsidiary of HOCHTIEF AG.

<sup>19</sup> As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, HOCHTIEF Australia owns approximately 83.15% of the CIMIC Shares on issue. For illustrative purposes only, if HOCHTIEF Australia's shareholding in CIMIC remained at approximately 83.15% on the date of the Offer, then in order to satisfy the requirements in Part 6A.1 of the Corporations Act, HOCHTIEF Australia would need to, during the Offer Period, acquire a further approximately 12.64% of CIMIC Shares (increasing the percentage of CIMIC Shares in which it has a Relevant Interest to approximately 95.79%).

Intentions for CIMIC as a wholly-owned controlled entity

This Section 3.2 sets out HOCHTIEF Australia's present intentions if HOCHTIEF Australia is entitled to proceed to compulsory acquisition of the remaining CIMIC Shares under Part 6A.1 or Part 6A.2 of the Corporations Act. See Section 6.1 for further information in relation to the compulsory acquisition process. Following compulsory acquisition, CIMIC will be a wholly-owned subsidiary of HOCHTIEF Australia.

(a) Corporate matters

It is intended that HOCHTIEF Australia would:

- (i) proceed with the compulsory acquisition of the outstanding CIMIC Shares in accordance with the provisions of Part 6A.1 or Part 6A.2 of the Corporations Act, in the manner described in Section 6.1; and
- (ii) arrange for CIMIC to be removed from the official list of the ASX.

(b) Directors

Following completion of the Offer, HOCHTIEF Australia will reconstitute the CIMIC Board, in a manner consistent with CIMIC becoming a wholly owned subsidiary of HOCHTIEF Australia.

(c) CIMIC business and assets

It is HOCHTIEF Australia's intention to ensure CIMIC maintains and strengthens its leading position in the markets in which it operates, particularly in Australia. If HOCHTIEF Australia acquires all the CIMIC Shares, it will immediately undertake an analysis of CIMIC's position as a wholly owned entity within the broader HOCHTIEF Group. In doing so, it will work closely with the CIMIC Board to ensure CIMIC's business, assets and operations are able to access opportunities both domestically and internationally. - (vi) expanding the collaboration with the HOCHTIEF Group to develop CIMIC's existing strategies in the areas of ESG (environmental, social, governance), digitisation and digital capability, and innovation; and
- (vii) continuing its commitment to serve the needs and act in the best interests of clients and all stakeholders.

While acknowledging the imperative of maintaining the existing leading position of CIMIC in its markets, the outcome of the analysis may result in changes to the structure of CIMIC's business, including changes to the way CIMIC's business is managed or operated.

(d) Future employment of employees

HOCHTIEF Australia acknowledges that CIMIC's people are vital to maintaining its leading position in the markets in which it operates. HOCHTIEF Australia, together with the CIMIC Board, will assess the ongoing resourcing requirements of CIMIC, with a view to ensuring that the priorities identified through HOCHTIEF Australia's analysis, as noted in Section 3.2(c), can be implemented with the support of a strong level of employment. It is however possible that there may be some positions that require redeployment or which are no longer required (and if so, benefits would be paid in accordance with contractual and other legal entitlements).

Intentions for CIMIC as a part owned controlled entity

This Section 3.3 sets out HOCHTIEF Australia's present intentions if HOCHTIEF Australia is not entitled to compulsorily acquire outstanding CIMIC Shares under either Part 6A.1 or Part 6A.2 of the Corporations Act.

The intentions in this Section 3.3 will be subject to:

- the outcome of the Offer and the size of HOCHTIEF Australia's shareholding at that time;
- compliance with applicable Corporations Act requirements and the ASX Listing Rules, in particular in relation to related party transactions and conflicts of interest;
- compliance with the constitution of CIMIC;
- the legal obligation of the directors of CIMIC (including the HOCHTIEF Group's nominees on the CIMIC Board) to act for proper purposes and in the best interests of CIMIC Shareholders (including HOCHTIEF Australia) as a whole; and
- the outcome of the review described in Section 3.2(c).

Subject to such limitations, HOCHTIEF Australia's present intentions in circumstances where it is not entitled to compulsorily acquire outstanding CIMIC Shares are:

(a) Corporate matters

- (i) subject to the Corporations Act, CIMIC's constitution and ASX's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations, that it may seek to appoint further nominees to the CIMIC Board such that the proportion which HOCHTIEF Australia's nominees represent of the total number of directors on the CIMIC Board equals or exceeds HOCHTIEF Australia's proportionate ownership interest in CIMIC; and
- (ii) seeking to have CIMIC removed from the official list of ASX in the circumstances set out below if applicable.

ASX guidance indicates that ASX would likely approve an application for CIMIC to be removed from the official list of ASX without the need for CIMIC Shareholder approval if an application is made within a month after the end of the Offer Period and if:

- (A) at the end of the Offer, HOCHTIEF Australia owns or controls at least 75% of the CIMIC Shares and the Offer remained open for at least two weeks after HOCHTIEF Australia attained ownership or control of at least 75% of the CIMIC Shares; and
- (B) the number of CIMIC Shareholders having holdings with a value of at least $500 is fewer than 150.

In addition, if an application is made more than a month after the end of the Offer Period, ASX guidance indicates that ASX would likely approve an application for CIMIC to be removed from the official list of ASX with shareholder approval and, where such removal is sought later than 12 months after the end of the Offer Period, HOCHTIEF Australia would be entitled to vote on the resolution approving the removal.

(b) CIMIC business and assets

HOCHTIEF Australia intends to request CIMIC undertake the analysis referred to in Section 3.2(c) and seek to implement such of the outcomes of that review as are consistent with HOCHTIEF Australia having a 83.15% or greater shareholding in CIMIC, but CIMIC not being a wholly owned subsidiary.

(c) Future employment of employees

HOCHTIEF Australia's intention in relation to the future employment of employees is the same as set out in Section 3.2(d).

(d) Further acquisition of CIMIC securities

HOCHTIEF Australia may, at some later time, acquire further CIMIC securities in a manner consistent with the Corporations Act, including by utilising the '3% creep' entitlement under item 9 of section 611 of the Corporations Act.

In addition, if HOCHTIEF Australia becomes entitled at some later time to exercise general compulsory acquisition rights under the Corporations Act, it may exercise those rights. Please refer to Section 6.1 for further detail on compulsory acquisition.

Sources of Consideration

4.1

Consideration under the Offer

The consideration for the acquisition of the CIMIC Shares to which the Offer relates will be satisfied by the payment of cash.

As at the close of trading on the date of this Bidder's Statement, according to documents provided by CIMIC to the ASX, CIMIC had 311,296,286 CIMIC Shares on issue.

In the event that acceptances are received in respect of all CIMIC Shares on issue as at the date of this Bidder's Statement (other than those CIMIC Shares in which HOCHTIEF and HOCHTIEF Australia have a Relevant Interest), the maximum aggregate amount of cash consideration that HOCHTIEF Australia would be required to pay (calculated as at the Announcement Date, when HOCHTIEF and HOCHTIEF Australia had a Relevant Interest in 244,630,819 CIMIC Shares) would be $1,466,640,274 (the Maximum Cash Consideration).

The Offer is not subject to any financing condition.

4.2

Overview of HOCHTIEF Australia's funding arrangements

HOCHTIEF Australia and HOCHTIEF AG have entered into an offer funding agreement (Offer Funding Agreement) under which HOCHTIEF AG has undertaken to provide, or procure the provision, to HOCHTIEF Australia of all amounts which HOCHTIEF Australia is required to pay under, or in connection with, the Offer, including any associated transaction costs.

HOCHTIEF Australia's right to receive payments under the Offer Funding Agreement is not subject to any conditions precedent and no demand for repayment of funds provided to HOCHTIEF Australia may be made during the period in which HOCHTIEF Australia has an outstanding obligation to make any payment under the Offer or to satisfy any payment obligation with respect to the compulsory acquisition of CIMIC Shares.

4.3

Overview of HOCHTIEF AG's funding arrangements

HOCHTIEF AG has entered into a new term loan facility dated 23 February 2022 between, among others, HOCHTIEF AG as borrower and BNP Paribas, Deutsche Bank Luxembourg S.A. and JPMorgan Chase Bank N.A. London branch as initial lenders (Transaction Facility Lenders) (Transaction Facility).

The total amount available to HOCHTIEF AG under the Transaction Facility is sufficient to meet HOCHTIEF AG's obligations under the Offer Funding Agreement insofar as they relate to HOCHTIEF Australia's payment obligations under the Offer.

Drawing under and the continued availability of the Transaction Facility is subject to the satisfaction of certain conditions (which HOCHTIEF AG considers to be standard for facilities of this nature), including:

- (a) documentary conditions precedent; and
- (b) the satisfaction of customary 'certain funds' conditions (for example, the making of 'major representations' and the absence of 'major defaults' in respect of certain HOCHTIEF Group members, no change of control in relation to HOCHTIEF AG and it not being illegal for a Transaction Facility Lender to fund (Certain Funds Conditions)). For the purposes of the Certain Funds Conditions: (i) 'major representations' relate to technical legal matters such as corporate power and authority, due execution and enforceability, and HOCHTIEF Australia's authority to make the Offer; and (ii) 'major defaults' relate to matters such as payment default, a failure to comply with certain requirements relating to the conduct of the Offer, restrictions on mergers, disposal or encumbrance of assets or a change of nature of or cessation of the business, and corporate insolvency. The Certain Funds Conditions do not include any condition that would be engaged by an adverse movement in financial markets or any similar matter of that kind, together the Transaction Facility Conditions.

As of the date of this Bidder's Statement, HOCHTIEF AG is not aware of any circumstance which would prevent the satisfaction of the Transaction Facility Conditions and nor is it aware of any circumstance that could reasonably be expected to result in the Transaction Facility not being available to HOCHTIEF AG at any time when HOCHTIEF AG requires funding under that facility to meet its obligations under the Offer Funding Agreement with respect to the Offer.

While the amount available to HOCHTIEF AG under the Transaction Facility is sufficient to meet its obligations to HOCHTIEF Australia in respect of the Offer, HOCHTIEF AG may instead choose to meet those obligations via the use of its own cash reserves or cash reserves of other Group members (excluding CIMIC). These cash reserves may themselves include funds sourced from other loan facilities or alternative sources of financing available to the HOCHTIEF Group.

The funds that will be used by HOCHTIEF AG to satisfy its obligations under the Offer Funding Agreement with respect to the Offer will, in aggregate, be sufficient to meet those obligations even if there were significant adverse exchange rate movements during the period when HOCHTIEF Australia may be required to make a payment under the Offer.

4.4

Provision of consideration

On the basis of the arrangements described in this Section 4, HOCHTIEF Australia believes that it has reasonable grounds for holding the view, and holds the view, that HOCHTIEF Australia will be able to provide the consideration offered under the Offer.

Tax Considerations

The following is a general summary of the potential Australian income tax, GST and stamp duty consequences associated with a disposal of Your CIMIC Shares under the proposed Offer.

This summary is only relevant to CIMIC Shareholders who are individuals, companies, trusts and complying superannuation funds that hold their CIMIC Shares on capital account for Australian income tax purposes. In particular, it does not apply to CIMIC Shareholders who:

- hold their CIMIC Shares as trading stock, as part of a profit-making undertaking or scheme, or otherwise on revenue account;
- hold their CIMIC Shares under an employee share or rights plan;
- may be subject to special rules, such as banks, insurance companies, tax exempt organisations, superannuation or pension funds (unless otherwise stated) or dealers in securities;
- are 'temporary residents' as that term is defined in section 995-1(1) of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth);
- change their tax residence whilst holding CIMIC Shares;
- are subject to the taxation of financial arrangements rules in Division 230 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth) in relation to gains and losses on their CIMIC Shares; or
- are subject to the Investment Manager Regime under Subdivision 842-I of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth) in relation to their CIMIC Shares.

This summary is based upon Australian taxation law and administrative practice in effect as at the date of this Bidder's Statement. It is not intended to be an authoritative or comprehensive analysis of the taxation laws of Australia. This summary does not constitute tax advice and is intended only as a general guide to the potential Australian tax consequences of a disposal of Your CIMIC Shares.

This summary does not address the potential Australian tax consequences arising for CIMIC Shareholders from being paid the FY21 Final Dividend or any other dividend paid by CIMIC. CIMIC Shareholders that are paid any such dividend(s) should seek independent professional advice regarding the Australian tax consequences of being paid any such dividend(s).

This summary is not an authoritative or complete analysis of the potential tax consequences of accepting the proposed Offer applicable to the specific circumstances of any CIMIC Shareholder.

The tax consequences for CIMIC Shareholders will depend on the specific facts or circumstances that apply to the particular CIMIC Shareholder. All CIMIC Shareholders are advised to seek independent professional advice regarding the Australian and (if applicable) foreign tax consequences of disposing of their CIMIC Shares.

CIMIC Shareholders should be aware that any changes (with either prospective or retrospective effect) to the Australian tax laws or administrative practice may affect the Australian taxation consequences.

5.1 Disposal of CIMIC Shares

A CIMIC Shareholder that accepts the Offer and transfers their CIMIC Shares to HOCHTIEF Australia should be treated as having disposed of the relevant CIMIC Shares for Australian capital gains tax (CGT) purposes. The disposal of the CIMIC Shares should result in a CGT event happening under Australia's CGT regime.

The CGT event should generally be taken to occur when the contract for disposal of the CIMIC Shares is formed. This is generally expected to be when the CIMIC Shareholder accepts the Offer.

For a CIMIC Shareholder who does not accept the Offer and has their CIMIC Shares compulsorily acquired by HOCHTIEF Australia in accordance with the Corporations Act, the CIMIC Shareholder should be taken to have disposed of their CIMIC Shares for Australian CGT purposes when the compulsory acquisition is completed and the CIMIC Shareholder ceases to be the owner of the relevant CIMIC Shares.

Each CIMIC Share constitutes a separate asset for CGT purposes. CIMIC Shareholders will need to consider the consequences relating to the disposal of CIMIC Shares which were acquired in different parcels at different times.

5.2

CIMIC Shareholders who are Australian residents for tax purposes

(a) Pre-CGT shares

There should be no CGT consequences arising from the disposal of CIMIC Shares which were acquired or taken to be acquired before 20 September 1985 and are not taken to have been acquired on or after that date.

(b) CGT consequences on disposal of post-CGT CIMIC Shares

The disposal of Your CIMIC Shares (which were acquired or taken to be acquired on or after 20 September 1985) will give rise to a capital gain or loss equal to the difference between:

- (i) the capital proceeds (i.e. the cash) received or entitled to be received under the Offer in respect of the disposal of the CIMIC Shares; and
- (ii) the cost base (or, in the case of a capital loss, the reduced cost base) of the CIMIC Shares (which would generally include the amount paid to acquire the shares plus certain incidental costs of acquisition such as brokerage fees and stamp duty). In certain circumstances, a CIMIC Shareholder may choose to index the cost base of those shares for inflation. This is discussed in further detail below.

Any capital gain or loss arising from the disposal of Your CIMIC Shares under the Offer is included in the calculation of your net capital gain for the income year in which the CGT event occurs. Broadly, your net capital gain for an income year is the total of all the capital gains or capital losses made during the income year less any available net capital losses made in previous income years. That amount may be reduced further by other concessions, particularly the discount CGT tax rules, discussed at (d) below.

A capital loss arising from the disposal of Your CIMIC Shares may be used to offset a capital gain made in the same income year or be carried forward to offset a capital gain made in a future income year, subject to satisfying any applicable carry forward loss recoupment rules.

(c) For shares acquired, or taken to have been acquired, before 11:45am (ACT time) on 21 September 1999

If Your CIMIC Shares were acquired (or taken to have been acquired) on or after 20 September 1985 but before 11:45am (ACT time) on 21 September 1999, you may be able to choose that the cost base of those shares be indexed for inflation to 30 September 1999. The reduced cost base of the shares (which is used to calculate any capital loss) cannot be indexed.

If you are able to, and choose to, utilise the indexation option, capital losses from other CGT events are applied after calculating the capital gain using the indexed cost base. Further, there is no entitlement to apply the CGT discount (discussed at (d) below) to any net capital gain remaining after the application of any capital losses available.

If you do not choose to apply indexation, the discount capital gain provisions may apply, subject to certain considerations discussed further below.

(d) Discount capital gains

If you acquired Your CIMIC Shares after 11:45am (ACT time) on 21 September 1999, you will not be entitled to choose indexation of the cost base when calculating any capital gain on disposal.

If you are an Australian resident for tax purposes and an individual, trust or complying superannuation entity, you may be able to reduce your capital gain from the disposal of Your CIMIC Shares (after first reducing it by available capital losses) by an applicable CGT discount. Amongst other requirements, it will be necessary for you to have held Your CIMIC Shares for at least twelve months before the time of the CGT event resulting from the disposal of Your CIMIC Shares. If you are eligible for discount capital gain treatment:

- (i) if you are an individual or the trustee of a trust, only one-half of the capital gain (without any allowance for indexation) after the offsetting of any applicable capital losses will be included in your assessable income; or
- (ii) if you are a complying superannuation fund, only two-thirds of the capital gain (without any allowance for indexation) after offsetting any applicable capital losses will be included in the fund's assessable income.

For a CIMIC Shareholder that is trustee of a trust, the discount capital gains provisions may also apply to a distribution of the capital gain to beneficiaries in the trust (other than corporate beneficiaries). You should seek advice from your professional tax advisor on this matter.

Note that the discount capital gain provisions do not apply to shareholders that are companies.

5.3

Disposal of CIMIC Shares by CIMIC Shareholders who are not Australian residents for tax purposes

A CIMIC Shareholder who is foreign resident for Australian tax purposes and who has not held their CIMIC Shares at any time in carrying on a business at or through a permanent establishment in Australia, should generally be exempt from Australian CGT on the disposal of CIMIC Shares under the Offer unless the CIMIC Shares are regarded as 'indirect Australian real property interests'. The CIMIC Shares may be regarded as indirect Australian real property interests where both of the following conditions are satisfied:

- (a) the foreign resident (together with certain of their associates as defined under the Australian income tax legislation) holds 10% or more of the issued shares in CIMIC at the time of the CGT event resulting from the disposal of the CIMIC Shares or any continuous 12 month period within the two years preceding the time of the CGT event; and
- (b) the CIMIC Shares pass the 'principal asset test' (i.e. broadly more than 50% of the market value of CIMIC's assets is represented by direct or indirect interests in Australian real property as determined under the Australian tax law).

Foreign resident shareholders should seek their own professional taxation advice about the Australian taxation consequences of disposing of their shares.

5.4

Withholding obligations

HOCHTIEF Australia may have an obligation, subject to certain exceptions, to remit an amount equal to 12.5% of the Consideration to the ATO if the CIMIC Shares acquired from a CIMIC Shareholder qualify as 'indirect Australian real property interests' and HOCHTIEF Australia either:

- (a) knows or reasonably believes that the CIMIC Shareholder is a foreign resident; or
- (b) does not reasonably believe that the CIMIC Shareholder is an Australian resident and either:
  - (i) the CIMIC Shareholder has an address outside Australia; or
  - (ii) (the bidder is authorised to make payment of the Offer Consideration to a place outside Australia (whether to the CIMIC Shareholder or to anyone else).

A CIMIC Shareholder who does not meet the above conditions may be able to provide HOCHTIEF Australia with a completed Foreign resident capital gains withholding – vendor declaration form (Non-Withholding Declaration) to declare that it is an Australian tax resident or that its CIMIC Shares are not 'indirect Australian real property interests'. If an appropriately completed Non-Withholding Declaration is not provided by a relevant CIMIC Shareholder within the requisite time or HOCHTIEF Australia reasonably believes that the information in the Non-Withholding Declaration is false, HOCHTIEF Australia may withhold the applicable amount from the Consideration paid to the relevant CIMIC Shareholder. Where HOCHTIEF Australia pays the withheld amount to the ATO, HOCHTIEF Australia will be discharged of any liability to pay that amount of the Consideration to the CIMIC Shareholder.

Any amount withheld may be able to be offset against the tax payable by a CIMIC Shareholder on any capital gain made from the disposal of the CIMIC Shares and should be refundable by the ATO to the extent that the amount withheld exceeds the tax payable.

5.5

Stamp duty

You will not be liable for stamp duty on the disposal of Your CIMIC Shares pursuant to the Offer.

5.6

GST

The disposal of Your CIMIC Shares pursuant to the Offer will not attract GST. You may incur GST on costs which relate to acceptance of the Offer (e.g. legal, financial and tax advisor fees). Depending on your particular circumstances, you may not be entitled to claim any input tax credits or only reduced input tax credits in relation to the GST amount incurred on these costs.

6.

Other Material Information

6.1

Compulsory acquisition

If HOCHTIEF Australia becomes entitled to exercise compulsory acquisition rights in respect of outstanding CIMIC Shares under the provisions of either Part 6A.1 or Part 6A.2 of the Corporations Act, HOCHTIEF Australia presently intends to exercise those rights in the manner set out in this Section 6.1.

HOCHTIEF Australia may proceed with compulsory acquisition in one of two ways:

(a) Compulsory acquisition under Part 6A.1 of the Corporations Act

Part 6A.1 of the Corporations Act provides that if during or at the end of the Offer Period HOCHTIEF Australia has a Relevant Interest in at least 90% (by number) of CIMIC Shares, and HOCHTIEF Australia has acquired at least 75% (by number) of the CIMIC Shares that HOCHTIEF Australia has offered to acquire under the bid (whether the acquisitions happened under the bid or otherwise), HOCHTIEF Australia may compulsorily acquire any remaining CIMIC Shares not accepted into the Offer.

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, HOCHTIEF Australia owns approximately 83.15% of the CIMIC Shares on issue. For illustrative purposes only, if HOCHTIEF Australia's shareholding in CIMIC remained at approximately 83.15% on the date of the Offer, then in order to satisfy the requirements in Part 6A.1 of the Corporations Act, HOCHTIEF Australia would need to, during the Offer Period, acquire a further approximately 12.64% of CIMIC Shares (increasing the percentage of CIMIC Shares in which it has a Relevant Interest to approximately 95.79%).

If these two conditions to compulsory acquisition under Part 6A.1 of the Corporations Act are satisfied, HOCHTIEF Australia intends to proceed with compulsory acquisition of CIMIC Shares as soon as practicable, whether or not that is during the Offer Period. That process requires, amongst other things, that HOCHTIEF Australia give a compulsory acquisition notice to remaining CIMIC Shareholders in accordance with the requirements of the Corporations Act informing those CIMIC Shareholders that HOCHTIEF Australia is entitled to acquire their CIMIC Shares and of their rights under Part 6A.1 of the Corporations Act.

When that notice is given to CIMIC Shareholders and lodged with ASIC, HOCHTIEF Australia may proceed with compulsory acquisition of CIMIC Shares before the end of 14 days after the end of one month after the notice is lodged with ASIC (or a request has been made by CIMIC Shareholders for details of other minority shareholders or a determination has been made of a Court application to stop the compulsory acquisition).

Compulsory acquisition under this regime would result in remaining CIMIC Shareholders receiving the same consideration for their CIMIC Shares as the Consideration to be paid under the Offer. However payment of that consideration would likely occur later than if the Offer had been accepted by a CIMIC Shareholder.

(b) Compulsory acquisition under Part 6A.2 of the Corporations Act

Part 6A.2 of the Corporations Act provides that if a person is a '90% holder' in relation to a class of securities of a company they may compulsorily acquire all the securities in that class if either the holders of securities in that class who object to the acquisition hold less than 10% by value of the remaining securities at the end of a specified notice period or the acquisition is approved by the Court.

If HOCHTIEF Australia becomes entitled to exercise general compulsory acquisition rights pursuant to Part 6A.2 of the Corporations Act at or before the close of the Offer Period, it currently intends to exercise those rights if it could not proceed with compulsory acquisition under Part 6A.1 of the Corporations Act as described above and may choose to exercise those rights during the Offer Period prior to it becoming entitled to proceed with compulsory acquisition under Part 6A.1 of the Corporations Act. HOCHTIEF Australia will be entitled to give notices to compulsorily acquire CIMIC Shares within 6 months of having become a 90% holder.

The procedure for compulsory acquisition under these alternative provisions differ from the procedures referred to above in relation to Part 6A.1 of the Corporations Act.

Under these provisions, HOCHTIEF Australia may only acquire securities for a cash sum. HOCHTIEF Australia presently intends to offer the Consideration as the applicable cash sum if it exercises the compulsory acquisition right under Part 6A.2 of the Corporations Act.

6.2

Regulatory and other approvals

HOCHTIEF AG and HOCHTIEF Australia are each a foreign person under the Foreign Acquisitions and Takeover Act 1975 (Cth) (FATA).

HOCHTIEF Australia lodged a foreign investment application with FIRB on 23 December 2021 in respect of the Offer, and received a no objection notification in relation to that application from the Australian Government on 16 February 2022.

6.3 Modifications to and exemptions from the Corporations Act

ASIC has published various instruments providing for modifications and exemptions that apply generally to all persons, including HOCHTIEF Australia, in relation to the operation of Chapter 6 of the Corporations Act.

Amongst others, HOCHTIEF Australia has relied on the modification to section 636(3) of the Corporations Act set out in paragraph 5(d) of ASIC Class Order [CO 13/521] 'Takeover Bids' to include references to certain statements in documents lodged with ASIC and ASX without obtaining the consent of the persons to whom those statements are attributed. As required by ASIC Class Order [CO 13/521], HOCHTIEF Australia will make available a copy of these documents (or relevant extracts of these documents), free of charge, to CIMIC Shareholders who request them during the Offer Period. To obtain a copy of these documents (or the relevant extracts), CIMIC Shareholders may contact the Offer Information Line on 1300 648 874 (for calls made within Australia) or +61 2 8355 1000 (for calls made from outside Australia), or the chat line at <http://chat1.shareholdersfirst.com.au/>.

HOCHTIEF Australia has also relied on the modification to section 661A(2) of the Corporations Act set out in paragraph 4(a) of ASIC Class Order [CO 13/522] to exclude the CIMIC Shares which HOCHTIEF Australia has a Relevant Interest in as at the beginning of the Offer Period from the calculation of the 75% of the CIMIC Shares that HOCHTIEF Australia and its Associates must acquire under the Offer for compulsory acquisition under section 661A to occur.

6.4 On market purchases

In accordance with rules 5.13.1 and 5.14.1 of the ASIC Market Integrity Rules (Securities Markets) 2017 (Cth) (ASIC Market Integrity Rules) and the Corporations Act, HOCHTIEF Australia reserves, and may at any time exercise, the right to acquire CIMIC Shares on-market at or below the Offer Price during the Bid Period (as defined in the Market Integrity Rules). HOCHTIEF Australia has appointed J.P. Morgan Securities Australia Limited to make such purchases on its behalf.

6.5 Consents

This Bidder's Statement includes or is accompanied by statements which are made in or based on statements made in documents lodged with ASIC or on the company announcement platform of ASX.

Each of HOCHTIEF AG, J.P. Morgan SE, Clifford Chance and Computershare Investor Services Pty Limited has given and has not, before lodgement of this Bidder's Statement with ASIC, withdrawn their consent to the inclusion of:

- (a) references to its name;
- (b) each statement it has made; and
- (c) each statement which is based on a statement it has made, in the Bidder's Statement in the form and context in which those statements appear and to the maximum extent permitted by law expressly disclaims and takes no responsibility for any part of this Bidder's Statement other than any statement which has been included in this Bidder's Statement with the consent of that party.

Each person who is named in this Bidder's Statement as acting in a professional capacity for HOCHTIEF Australia in relation to the Offer (including, without limitation, J.P. Morgan SE, Clifford Chance, and Computershare Investor Services Pty Limited):

- (a) does not make, or purport to make, any statement in this Bidder's Statement or any statement on which a statement in this Bidder's Statement is based; and
- (b) to the maximum extent permitted by law, expressly disclaims and takes no responsibility for any part of this Bidder's Statement.

6.6 Independent Expert's Report

Under section 640 of the Corporations Act, if a bidder's voting power in the target is 30% or more or a director of the bidder is a director of the target, the Target's Statement must include or be accompanied by a report by an expert that states where, in the expert's opinion, the takeover offers are fair and reasonable and gives reasons for forming that opinion.

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement:

- HOCHTIEF Australia has more than 30% of the voting power in CIMIC; and
- David Robinson and Peter Sassenfeld are directors of HOCHTIEF Australia and CIMIC and Robert Seidler is a director of HOCHTIEF Australia and an alternate director of CIMIC.

Accordingly, the directors of CIMIC are required to commission an independent expert's report in relation to the Offer under section 640 of the Corporations Act. The Independent Expert's Report will be enclosed with the Target's Statement from CIMIC.

6.7

Social security and superannuation implications of the Offer

Acceptance of the Offer may have implications under your superannuation or pension arrangements or on your social security entitlements. If in any doubt, Shareholders should seek specialist advice before accepting the Offer.

6.8

Withholding of consideration

HOCHTIEF Australia is not currently aware of any amounts that are or would be treated as withholding amounts under Section 712(d). However, it is possible that HOCHTIEF Australia may become aware of an obligation in this regard after the date of this Bidder's Statement.

For example, under section 255 of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (Cth), the ATO may notify HOCHTIEF Australia that all or part of the consideration otherwise payable under the Offer to CIMIC Shareholders who are non-residents of Australia is to be retained by HOCHTIEF Australia, or paid to the ATO, instead of being paid to the relevant CIMIC Shareholders. Similarly, under section 260-5 of Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 (Cth), the ATO may require HOCHTIEF Australia to pay to the ATO all or part of the consideration otherwise payable under the Offer to CIMIC Shareholders who owe tax-related debts to the Australian Government. Furthermore, under Subdivision 14-D of Schedule 1 to the Taxation Administration Act 1953 (Cth), HOCHTIEF Australia may be required to pay to the ATO an amount in respect of the disposal of Your CIMIC Shares on account of foreign resident capital gains withholding tax.

Broker commission

HOCHTIEF Australia may offer to pay a commission to Brokers who solicit acceptances of the Offer from their clients. HOCHTIEF Australia has made no final decision in relation to the matter at this stage.

Any commission payments will be paid only in respect of parcels of CIMIC Shares held by CIMIC Shareholders who accept the Offer.

If such arrangements are put in place, commission payments will not exceed 0.75% of the value of the consideration payable for parcels of CIMIC Shares held by CIMIC Shareholders who accept the Offer, and will be subject to minimum payments (not exceeding $50) and maximum payments (not exceeding $750) for each acceptance.

If a commission is offered, it will be payable to Brokers only and subject to the condition that no part of the fee will be able to be passed on, or paid, to CIMIC Shareholders.

If and when HOCHTIEF Australia decides to offer such a commission to any Broker, it will make an announcement to ASX.

It is HOCHTIEF Australia's intention that, if and when an offer of commission has been made to any Broker by HOCHTIEF Australia, the commission arrangement will remain in place for the balance of the Offer Period and the amount of the commission offered will not be increased during the Offer Period.

6.10

ASIC declaration

ASIC has made a declaration under section 655A(1) (b) of the Corporations Act that section 633(1B) of the Corporations Act, as notionally inserted by ASIC Class Order [CO 13/521], be modified so that HOCHTIEF Australia can disclose the number of CIMIC Shares it has a Relevant Interest in, its voting power in CIMIC and the consideration paid for any CIMIC Shares it has purchased in the preceding 4 months, as at a date that is no more than 5 trading days prior to the date of the Offer, rather than as at the date of the Offer (refer to Sections 2.7 and 2.9). This declaration was obtained by HOCHTIEF Australia in order to facilitate the continuation of its stated intention, during the period required for the printing and dispatch of the Bidder's Statement, that it may at any time exercise the right to acquire CIMIC Shares on-market at or below the Offer Price during the Bid Period (as defined in the Market Integrity Rules) (refer to Section 6.4).

No other material information

Except as set out in this Bidder's Statement, there is no information material to the making of a decision by an offeree whether or not to accept the Offer, being information that is known to HOCHTIEF Australia and has not previously been disclosed to the holders of CIMIC Shares.

The Offer Terms

7.1

Offer for Your CIMIC Shares

- (a) HOCHTIEF Australia offers to acquire all of Your CIMIC Shares on the terms and conditions set out in this Section 7.
- (b) This Offer extends to all CIMIC Shares that are on issue until the end of the Offer Period.

Entitled to be registered as trustee or nominee

If at any time during the Offer Period you are registered or entitled to be registered as the holder of one or more parcels of CIMIC Shares as trustee or nominee for, or otherwise on account of, another person, you may accept as if a separate and distinct offer on the same terms and conditions as if this Offer had been made in relation to each of those distinct parcels and any distinct parcel you hold in your own right. To validly accept the offer for each parcel, you must comply with the procedure in section 656B(3) of the Corporations Act. If, for the purposes of complying with that procedure, you require additional copies of this Bidder's Statement and/or the Acceptance Form, please contact the Offer Information Line on 1300 648 874 (for calls made within Australia) or +61 2 8355 1000 (for calls made from outside Australia), or the chat line at <http://chat1.shareholdersfirst.com.au/>, to request those additional copies.

Shares registered with Broker

If Your CIMIC Shares are registered in the name of a Broker, investment dealer, bank, trust company or other nominee, you should contact that nominee for assistance in accepting the Offer.

7.6

How to accept this Offer

(a) Accept for all Your CIMIC Shares

You may only accept this Offer during the Offer Period for all, and not some only, of Your CIMIC Shares. You will be taken to have accepted the Offer for all Your CIMIC Shares plus any additional CIMIC Shares held by you (on HOCHTIEF Australia's copy of the CIMIC Register) on the date your acceptance is processed (despite any difference between that number and the number of CIMIC Shares specified on your Acceptance Form when you accept this Offer).

(b) Issuer Sponsored Holdings and other holdings

If Your CIMIC Shares are held on the CIMIC's issuer sponsored subregister (in which case your Securityholder Reference Number (SRN) will commence with 'I'), or if at the time of your acceptance you are entitled to be (but are not yet) registered as the holder of, or are otherwise able to give good title to, Your CIMIC Shares, to accept this Offer you must accept the Offer online or by completing and returning the enclosed Acceptance Form:

- (i) Online: to accept the Offer online, you must log in to www.HOCHTIEFOffer.com.au using your SRN, follow the instructions, select the 'Accept'

option and submit your acceptance of the Offer before the Offer closes; or

- (ii) Acceptance Form: to accept the Offer using a physical Acceptance Form, complete the enclosed Acceptance Form in accordance with the instructions on it and return it in the enclosed envelope or to the address on the Acceptance Form so that it is received before 7:00pm (Sydney time) on the last day of the Offer Period.

(c) CHES Holdings

If Your CIMIC Shares are in a CHES Holding (in which case your Holder Identification Number (HIN) will commence with 'X'), to accept this Offer, you must either accept the Offer online, or by contacting your Controlling Participant (usually your Broker), or by completing and returning the enclosed Acceptance Form:

- (i) Online: to accept the Offer online, you must log in to www.HOCHTIEFOffer.com.au using your HIN, follow the instructions, select the 'Accept' option and submit your acceptance of the Offer before the Offer closes. For your online acceptance to be an effective acceptance of the Offer, it must be received in time for the Registry to give instructions to your Controlling Participant and for your Controlling Participant to respond to and accept those instructions before the end of the Offer Period; or
- (ii) Contact your Controlling Participant: contact your Controlling Participant (usually your Broker) and instruct them to accept the Offer on your behalf so that it is processed before 7:00pm (Sydney time) on the last day of the Offer Period. This is the quickest and most effective way for CHES holders to accept the Offer; or
- (iii) Acceptance Form: to accept the Offer using a physical Acceptance Form, complete the enclosed Acceptance Form in accordance with the instructions on it and return it in the enclosed envelope or to the address on the Acceptance Form. For the return of a CHES Acceptance Form to be an effective acceptance of the Offer, it must be received in time for the Registry to give instructions to your Controlling Participant and for your Controlling Participant to carry out those instructions before the end of the Offer Period.

You must comply with any other applicable ASX Settlement Operating Rules and the terms of the sponsorship agreement between you and the Controlling Participant.

If you are a Controlling Participant, you must yourself initiate acceptance under rule 14.14 of the ASX Settlement Operating Rules so as to be effective before the end of the Offer Period.

(d) Separate holdings

If some of Your CIMIC Shares are in an Issuer Sponsored Holding and some of Your CIMIC Shares are in a CHES Holding your acceptance of this Offer will require separate action in relation to the separate portions of Your CIMIC Shares.

(e) Risk in Acceptance Form

The transmission of an Acceptance Form and any documents that accompany that form to HOCHTIEF Australia is at your risk. Neither HOCHTIEF Australia, nor anyone on its behalf, will acknowledge receipt of those documents to you.

7.7

Effect of Acceptance Form

By signing and returning the Acceptance Form or otherwise accepting this Offer, you irrevocably authorise HOCHTIEF Australia and each of its officers and agents to:

- (a) alter the Acceptance Form on your behalf by inserting correct details of Your CIMIC Shares and filling in any blanks remaining on the form;
- (b) correct any errors in, or omissions from, the Acceptance Form necessary to:
  - (i) make it an effective acceptance of this Offer for Your CIMIC Shares; and
  - (ii) enable the transfer of Your CIMIC Shares to HOCHTIEF Australia; and
- (c) if any of Your CIMIC Shares are in a CHES Holding:
  - (i) instruct your Controlling Participant to effect your acceptance of this Offer for Your CIMIC Shares under rule 14.14 of the ASX Settlement Operating Rules; and
  - (ii) give to your Controlling Participant on your behalf any other instructions in relation to those CIMIC Shares which are contemplated by the sponsorship agreement between you and your Controlling Participant or otherwise, as determined by HOCHTIEF Australia acting in its own interest as beneficial owner of those CIMIC Shares.

7.8

Validation of Acceptance Form

Subject to this Section 7.8, HOCHTIEF Australia may (except in relation to CIMIC Shares in a CHESS Holding) treat the receipt by it of a signed Acceptance Form either:

- (a) before the end of the Offer Period; or
- (b) after the end of the Offer Period but where the Acceptance Form is sent by post and the envelope in which it is posted is post-marked before the end of the Offer Period, as valid even though it does not receive the other documents required by the instructions on the Acceptance Form or there is not compliance with any one or more of the other requirements for acceptance.

If HOCHTIEF Australia does treat such an Acceptance Form as valid, subject to Section 7.12, HOCHTIEF Australia will not be obliged to give the Consideration to you until HOCHTIEF Australia receives all those documents and all of the requirements for acceptance referred to in Section 7.6 and in the Acceptance Form have been met (other than the requirement of your Acceptance Form to be received before the end of the Offer Period).

7.9

Your agreement

By carrying out the instructions in Section 7.6 on how to accept this Offer:

This appointment will terminate on the registration of HOCHTIEF Australia as the holder of Your CIMIC Shares;

- (e) you agree that in exercising the powers conferred by the power of attorney in Section 7.9(d) HOCHTIEF Australia and each of its directors and its nominees are entitled to act in the interests of HOCHTIEF Australia;

- (g) you authorise HOCHTIEF Australia to transmit a message to ASX Settlement in accordance with rule 14.17.1 of the ASX Settlement Operating Rules so as to enter Your CIMIC Shares which are in a CHESS Holding into HOCHTIEF Australia's Takeover Transferee Holding;
- (h) you agree to do all such acts, matters and things that HOCHTIEF Australia may require to give effect to the matters the subject of this Section 7.9;
- (i) you agree to indemnify HOCHTIEF Australia and each of its agents and nominees in respect of any claim or action against it or any loss, damage or liability incurred by it as a result of you not producing your Holder Identification Number or Securityholder Reference Number or in consequence of the transfer of Your CIMIC Shares being registered by CIMIC without production of your Holder Identification Number or Securityholder Reference Number;
- (j) you irrevocably authorise and direct CIMIC to pay to HOCHTIEF Australia or to account to HOCHTIEF Australia for all Rights in respect of Your CIMIC Shares, subject, however, to any such Rights received by HOCHTIEF Australia being accounted for by HOCHTIEF Australia to you in the event that this Offer is withdrawn or avoided;
- (k) except where HOCHTIEF Australia has received the value of a Right in respect of Your CIMIC Shares, you irrevocably authorise HOCHTIEF Australia to deduct from the Consideration payable in respect of Your CIMIC Shares, the value of the Right received by you (or any previous owner of Your CIMIC Shares) in respect of Your CIMIC Shares which, where the Right takes a non-cash form, will be the value of the Right as reasonably assessed by HOCHTIEF Australia;
- (l) where you have a right to be registered as the holder of CIMIC Shares the subject of your acceptance as a result of an on-market purchase:
  - (i) you agree to complete that purchase in accordance with normal settlement procedures and procure the delivery of the CIMIC Shares the subject of your acceptance to CIMIC Shares (including giving HOCHTIEF Australia all documents necessary to vest those CIMIC Shares in HOCHTIEF Australia or otherwise to give HOCHTIEF Australia the benefit or value of those CIMIC Shares);
  - (ii) you agree not to do or omit to do anything which may otherwise frustrate your acceptance of this Offer or obstruct registration of the transfer of the CIMIC Shares the subject of your acceptance with HOCHTIEF Australia;
  - (iii) you irrevocably assign to HOCHTIEF Australia all contractual rights and recourse against the vendor in respect of your on-market purchase; and
  - (iv) if you fail to complete the on-market purchase, you irrevocably agree that HOCHTIEF Australia may deduct from the Consideration otherwise payable to you any amount paid by HOCHTIEF Australia to settle that purchase or otherwise promptly pay that amount to HOCHTIEF Australia;

  - (iii) you are irrevocably and unconditionally entitled to transfer Your CIMIC Shares, and to assign all of the beneficial interest therein, to HOCHTIEF Australia.

7.10

No revocation of acceptance

If you accept the Offer, you will be unable to revoke your acceptance and the contract resulting from your acceptance will be binding on you. You will therefore be unable to withdraw Your CIMIC Shares from the Offer or otherwise dispose of those CIMIC Shares.

Powers of attorney and deceased estates

When accepting this Offer, you should forward for inspection:

- (a) if the Acceptance Form is executed by an attorney, a certified copy of the power of attorney; and

7.12

Payment of Consideration

(a) When and how will HOCHTIEF Australia pay you?

- (i) Subject to the terms of this Offer and the Corporations Act, if you accept this Offer, HOCHTIEF Australia will pay you the Consideration for Your CIMIC Shares to which HOCHTIEF Australia acquires good title on or before the date that is 5 Business Days after your valid acceptance is received.
- (ii) Payment of any cash amount to which you are entitled under the Offer will be made in the following manner:
  - (A) if you have previously nominated Australian currency bank account details to CIMIC and these details are provided to HOCHTIEF Australia, payment will be made electronically to that account in Australian currency. You can verify and update any existing bank account details online at www.computershare.com.au/easyupdate/CIM prior to accepting the Offer. If you have not previously nominated Australian currency bank account details to CIMIC and want to be paid electronically, you must provide these details via www.computershare.com.au/easyupdate/CIM prior to accepting the Offer; and
  - (B) if you have not previously nominated Australian currency bank account details to CIMIC and do not nominate Australian currency bank account details via www.computershare.com.au/easyupdate/CIM prior to accepting the Offer, or these details are not provided to HOCHTIEF Australia, you will be paid by cheque in Australian currency. Cheques will be posted to you at your risk by ordinary mail (or in the case of overseas shareholders, by airmail) at the address shown either, at the discretion of HOCHTIEF Australia, on your Acceptance Form or the register copy supplied by CIMIC from time to time. If Your CIMIC Shares are held in a joint name, any cheque issued will be in the name of the joint holders.

(b) Acceptance Form requires additional documents

Where documents are required to be given to HOCHTIEF Australia with your acceptance to enable HOCHTIEF Australia to become the holder of Your CIMIC Shares (such as a power of attorney, grant of probate or letters of administration):

- (i) if the documents are given to HOCHTIEF Australia with your acceptance and before the end of the Offer Period, HOCHTIEF Australia will pay you in accordance with Section 7.12(a);
- (ii) if the documents are given to HOCHTIEF Australia after your acceptance and before the end of the Offer Period, HOCHTIEF Australia will pay you the Consideration on or before the date that is 5 Business Days after HOCHTIEF Australia is given the documents; or

(c) Non-Australian residents

If, at the time you accept this Offer or at the time the Consideration is provided under it:

- (i) any authority or clearance of the Reserve Bank of Australia or the Australian Tax Office or other Public Authority is required for you to receive any Consideration under this Offer; or

  - (A) the Autonomous Sanction Regulations 2011 (Cth);
  - (B) the Charter of the United Nations Act 1945 (Cth), the Charter of the United Nations (Dealing with Assets) Regulations 2008 (Cth) or any other law or regulation made under that Act; or
  - (C) any other law of Australia or elsewhere that would make it unlawful for HOCHTIEF Australia to provide Consideration for Your CIMIC Shares, then your acceptance of this Offer does not create or transfer to you any right (contractual or contingent) to receive the Consideration specified in this Offer unless and until you obtain all requisite authorities or clearances.

(d) Withholding required by law

If any amount (withholding amount) is determined by HOCHTIEF Australia as being required under any law or by any Public Authority to be:

- (ii) retained by HOCHTIEF Australia out of any Consideration otherwise payable to you under this Offer,

HOCHTIEF Australia may withhold or retain the withholding amount and the withholding or retention by HOCHTIEF Australia of the withholding amount (as applicable) will constitute full discharge of HOCHTIEF Australia's obligation to pay the Consideration to you to the extent of the withholding amount.

7.13

Costs and stamp duty

- (a) HOCHTIEF Australia will pay all costs and expenses of the preparation and circulation of the Offer and any stamp duty payable on the transfer of any CIMIC Shares to HOCHTIEF Australia.

7.14

CIMIC Shares subject to CIMIC transfer restrictions

Acceptance for the balance of Your CIMIC Shares is ineffective unless you give HOCHTIEF Australia notice stating the number of Your CIMIC Shares that are subject to a transfer restriction and explaining the nature of the restriction, and your acceptance specifies the balance of Your CIMIC Shares.

7.15

Variation and withdrawal of Offer

(a) Variation

HOCHTIEF Australia may vary this Offer in accordance with the Corporations Act.

(b) Withdrawal

In accordance with section 652B of the Corporations Act, this Offer may be withdrawn with the written consent of ASIC, which consent may be subject to conditions. If so, HOCHTIEF Australia will give notice of the withdrawal to ASX and will comply with any other conditions imposed by ASIC.

7.16
