Investment Commentary

Pre-tax NTA decreased by 7.28 cents during April to $1.5938, a return of -4.37% in what continues to be an uncertain and difficult investment climate. Negative contributions outpaced positive contributions during the month with falls in core Portfolio holdings: Janison Education Group Limited, BCI Minerals Limited, Macmahon Holdings Limited and Service Stream Limited. Our ETF position which performs well in a falling market, provided a positive contribution to the Portfolio together with several modest contributions from non-core holdings. Portfolio activity saw us take advantage of market weakness by cautiously initiating two new value positions which whilst initially small in exposure terms could in time become larger/core positions. Continued price weakness in one of our newer core positions allowed us to increase our investment at prices we consider to be at least a 50% discount to the company's intrinsic worth. We exited our holding in Ardent Leisure Limited at relatively good prices immediately after they announced the sale of their US Main Event business. While the outcome was not as lucrative as we had expected, the Portfolio did achieve a small profit on exit. We continue to view markets through a risk averse lens and remain of the view that the immediate outlook remains highly uncertain. We are selectively taking advantage of opportunities as and when they arise utilising our cash and permanent capital position. Cash fell month on month from $22.5m or 15.8% to $16.1m or 11.84% subsequent to the Portfolio investments reported above. We note that our ETF position was valued at ~$3m or ~2.16% weighting at month end.
