Nufarm receives notification of sale of shares from Sumitomo

Nufarm Limited (ASX: NUF) (Nufarm) has received notification overnight from Sumitomo Chemical Company, Limited (Sumitomo) regarding its decision to sell its 15.9% shareholding in Nufarm.

Nufarm and Sumitomo plan to continue their mutually beneficial business alliance that started more than 12 years ago. The crop protection business is important to both companies and therefore the desire to continue to grow the commercial relationship and synergies in global agriculture markets remains a key objective.
