Thursday, 28 July 2022 - Identitii Limited ('Identitii', 'the Company') (ASX:ID8) is pleased to release its Appendix 4C for the three months ending 30 June 2022 and provides an update on its progress during the period.

Commenting on the Company's key achievements in the June 2022 quarter, Identitii CEO, John Rayment said: "We continue to see a growing amount of interest across the financial services industry, in the key markets Identitii is focused on including Australia, New Zealand and Canada, for automation to ensure transaction reporting obligations to government regulators have been met. Financial institutions, money transfer businesses, crypto exchanges, gaming operators and more, are all facing increasing scrutiny from regulators such as AUSTRAC, the New Zealand FIU and FINTRAC in Canada to ensure they submit complete and accurate transaction reports. Incredibly, compliance with these obligations still largely involves manual processes, spreadsheets, and teams of operations people.

We have been focused on building a strong team of payments industry experts to capitalise on this significant and growing global opportunity, and I strongly believe we are in the right place, at the right time, and importantly – at the front of the queue. Not only are we well-placed with prospective customers, but we are extremely well-placed amongst a very small number of competitors, given our platform has been validated by our existing customers, including HSBC, Mastercard, Standard Chartered Bank, Novatti and now Rabobank.

The Company has started to benefit from that payments industry expertise, using feedback on our technology platform from our new team members and prospective customers, to prioritise development activities that make it easier to win new business. We are very excited to have released a new sandbox environment, that allows prospective customers to experience our technology and test with their own payments data. This will transform the effectiveness of our sales team and we expect to see evidence of this in the coming months.”

Operational update

Rabobank signs five-year licence agreement to automate AUSTRAC reporting with Identitii

During the quarter the Company was pleased to announce a five-year SLA with the Australian arm of the Dutch led multinational banking and financial services group, Rabobank. Rabobank Australia will use the Identitii cloud-hosted platform to further automate their International Funds Transfer Instruction (IFTI) reporting to AUSTRAC. The five-year contract consists of an annual recurring licence fee of $0.1 million and an initial $80k payment for professional service fees for onboarding and customisation.

Board Refresh

In June the Company announced the rejuvenation of its Board of Directors with the appointment of two former banking and international payments CEOs as Non-Executive Directors and the appointment of Tim Phillipps, who joined the Board in May 2021, as Chair. Newly appointed NEDs Rhyll Gardner and Simon Griffin bring decades of complimentary experience and connections that are specifically aligned to various elements of Identitii’s growth plan. They join Tim Phillipps and CEO John Rayment on the Board, which together with new CFO Catherine Lin, now collectively shares over 100 years of financial services industry experience and significant industry connections in Australia and other key global markets that will help accelerate sales and growth.

New CFO

In June the Company welcomed a new Chief Financial Officer (CFO), Catherine Lin, who has commenced taking over from Gram Accounting, the company that has provided Identitii with outsourced CFO services since prior to the IPO in late 2018. Catherine brings significant financial acumen to the Company, acquired via eight years financial services experience with ANZ and Thomson Reuters, plus more than 15 years’ experience in global, listed and family owned FMCG companies including Nestle and Goodman.

Technology update

New sandbox environment enables rapid testing and onboarding

During the quarter, the Company released a brand-new sandbox environment of the Identitii platform, designed to significantly increase the Company’s rate of new customer acquisition and subsequent revenue growth. The new environment, now live and in-use with several prospective customers, allows prospects to experience the platform and process their own payments data in real-time, to facilitate more streamlined testing, which enables quicker buying decisions and faster go-live once a contract has been signed. Prospective customers looking to automate AUSTRAC reporting, a critical part of their ongoing regulatory compliance obligations, put Identitii through rigorous testing before signing on the dotted line. The new sandbox environment simplifies and shortens this process and is also expected to shorten contract and onboarding timeframes.

Progress against product development roadmap

A critical output from the release of the Company's new sandbox environment and subsequent testing by new prospective customers, is industry-specific feedback on features and functionality that is expected to reduce friction in the sales and onboarding process and generate potential new revenue streams in the future. During the quarter the Company has responded to this feedback and made significant improvements to the platform, which are expected to contribute to increasing new customer numbers.

United States Patent

Identitii is still actively pursuing opportunities to monetise its US patent for a Company-created method and system to support the establishment of a secure global ecosystem for information sharing for cross-border payments regardless of currency or payment rail. The Company remains optimistic that the US patent will generate value in the future and will update the market as soon as more information comes to hand.

Marketing update

ACAMS Australasia increases sales opportunities and brand awareness

In June, Identitii again presented at and sponsored the annual ACAMS Australasia conference in Sydney. ACAMS, the Association of Chartered Anti-Money Laundering Specialists, is a global organisation that brings together financial crime compliance and anti-money laundering professionals around the world. The ACAMS Australasia conference is arguably the most important annual conference for professionals in anti-money laundering in the region and is attended by over 400 key members of government and industry, including regulators, technology, finance, and other payment providers. This year's conference keynote address was delivered by AUSTRAC CEO Nicole Rose.

During her keynote address, Rose shared details of where AUSTRAC will be focusing its attention, saying: "Around 2019, we started to invest more resources in the gambling sector, in recognition of the unique risks and challenges posed by casinos, betting agencies, and pubs and clubs. We also dealt more deeply with the remittance sector in targeted campaigns, commenced the registration of the newly emerging digital currency exchanges (DCE), and engaged with new businesses such as the buy now pay later sector."

As attention on money laundering from the government and media continues to build, we expect to see more investigations and fines coming from AUSTRAC and Identitii is actively engaging with organisations in these industries in line with AUSTRAC's focus.

Identitii CEO John Rayment participated in a panel session discussing 'Keeping Pace with Change: Cross-border Payments and Compliance'. The session examined the Australian payments landscape and how change is being driven by global regulations, new methods of moving money and indeed new types of currencies. Jeremy Moller, Senior Advisor and Lawyer at Norton Rose Fulbright, and Luke Raven, Senior AML Compliance Manager at Cabital also participated in the session, moderated by Identitii's Joleen Whittaker.

Financial update

Cash flow performance

Cash receipts from customers for the quarter of $0.2 million were down $0.5 million from the previous quarter (Q3 FY22 - $0.7 million) primarily due to the receipt of $0.4 million in annual licence fees from Mastercard in Q3. Full year cash receipts from customers of $1.5 million were up slightly on previous year (FY21 - $1.4 million).

Total cash outflows from operating activities have remained relatively consistent, this quarter totalling $1.9 million, down slightly on the previous quarter (Q3 FY22 - $2.0 million).

In Section 6 of the Appendix 4C, payments made to related parties during the quarter, included in Item 1, are directors' fees. Payments received from related parties, included in Item 2, is the monthly Assignment Fee from Payble Pty Ltd.

Cash balance

Identitii held $5.1 million in cash as of 30 June 2022. In addition to this, the Company is expecting to receive its annual Research & Development Tax Incentive in the coming quarter, which last year totalled $0.9 million.

New registered address

Identitii moved out of its previous office at 129 Cathedral St, Woolloomooloo and into its own new office at The Commons, 285A Crown St, Surry Hills. The move is part of the Company's post-Covid return to work plan and helps provide the team with best-in-class flexible working arrangements, while reducing costs and operational overheads.
