Chairman's Statement

Dear Shareholder

Another year, another profit for your Company. This year's profit of $5.502 million follows on from last year's profit of $12.161 million, establishing a pattern of regular profits in recent years.

The highlights for the 2021 / 2022 year are definitely the successful completion of the State Emergency Centre and Safecom development for the South Australian Government and its handover to the Government Agencies and the new owner Charter Hall and the successful completion of the Large Format Retail Centre at Butler in Western Australia.

The fact that both these developments were completed on time and on budget is a testament to our management team and our builders on both projects. These results were achieved during a period of rising costs and global economic uncertainty and I would like to record the thanks of the Company to our builders, Pike Constructions in Adelaide and ADCO in Perth for an outstanding result in both cases.

Your Board is proud of the fact that in the last two financial years the Company has been in a position to make substantial returns to shareholders totalling $17.3 million in 2021 / 2022 and $6.5 million in the previous year.

It is the Board's policy to continue making returns to shareholders as projects are completed and profits allow.

Along with this year's profit it is pleasing to report that the Company is in a strong cash position which will provide sufficient funds to enable a start on new projects in the Company's pipeline.

The continuing strong commitment of our management team led by Managing Director Ben Laurance, Development Manager Paul Rouvray and Chief Financial Officer and Company Secretary Paul Santinon is greatly appreciated.

Finally I wish to thank my fellow Directors for their input during what has been another successful year for the Company.

Managing Director's Review

Dear Shareholder

Your Company is especially delighted to present another outstanding full year profit result for this financial year – a net profit of $5.502 million delivered amongst a backdrop of challenging circumstances both domestically and globally.

This year's result was driven largely by the completion and delivery of two of the Group's major projects – the South Australian Emergency Services Command Centre in Adelaide and the Butler Central Homemaker Centre in WA.

SA Command Centre SA

This ground-breaking project was completed and handed over to the occupier, South Australian Emergency Services in December 2021. The project was delivered on time and on budget, and was designed and constructed to an "Importance Level 4" classification by Axiom's project team, led by Pike Constructions. The critical nature of the operating of this infrastructure for the State was of utmost importance, and it's a testament to the entire team to have completed this project so successfully. The new building provides a much-needed facility for emergency services staff and volunteers, offering unprecedented command and control capabilities for the CFS, SES and MFS within a purpose-built earthquake resilient centre featuring backup power, water and wastewater storage and technology redundancies. The project had been pre-sold to new owner, Charter Hall Social Infrastructure REIT, for $80m.

Butler Central Homemaker Centre WA

The Butler Central Homemaker Centre is a 13,500 sq.m large format retail centre sitting adjacent a thriving Woolworths-anchored shopping centre in the fast growing region of Butler in WA. The Company commenced construction of this Centre in August 2021 with Adco Constructions as head contractor, and Practical Completion was achieved on schedule on 30th June 2022. It's testament to the Company's management team and the loyalty and capability of its wider delivery and consulting team that this Project was delivered on time and on budget, in spite of extensive lockdowns and lockouts in WA and other issues currently challenging the construction and development industries.

Given the level of investor appetite in this asset class, and the (generally) strong trading performance of the large format retail sector during the pandemic, the Company agreed to forward-sell this centre during the year to a WA-based property syndicator and a price to be determined at completion at a capitalisation rate of 6% of the agreed net income schedule. The structuring of this transaction allowed the Company to recycle the equity capital it had invested in the project, and apply it to sourcing new opportunities.

Glenlea Estate Mt Barker, SA

In addition to delivering and completing the above projects, the Company's ongoing residential subdivision "Glenlea Estate" at Mt Barker, SA continues to experience significant demand, fuelled largely by continued purchasers' appetite for the lifestyle and product Glenlea Estate is offering.

During the year, the Company and its partner completed construction of several stages which consisted of approximately 40 allotments. From commencement of this project to current date, the Company has constructed and contracted in excess of 160 lots which represents approximately half of the entire forecast allotments to be built and sold. Demand for land in Glenlea Estate continues to be strong and the Company is confident that its next stage sales campaign will experience the same solid demand from buyers looking for the value, quality and lifestyle that our estate delivers.

As announced subsequent to year end, the Company along with its Joint Venture Partner received notification from Living Choice that their pending development application had been approved by Mt Barker Council. This approval was the last remaining condition to be met, clearing the way for the Project to receive the proceeds of $5.5m from the sale of a 10 hectare parcel of land within the Estate. The application of these proceeds to retire Project debt puts the Estate on a strong financial footing, enabling the Joint Venture to accelerate the rollout of future stages to take advantage of ongoing demand. The project is expected to start contributing to the Company's earnings from next financial year. Glenlea Estate remains one of Mount Barker's most beautiful estates, with over 7 hectares of preserved open space, natural woodlands, reserves, walking trails and play areas.

New Opportunities and Outlook

As we start to emerge from the global pandemic, and in the face of the current geo-political and economic circumstances significantly affecting businesses' operations, the Company remains confident that it has the expertise, experience and capability to mitigate and minimise its exposure to the various risks associated with property development. The Company, having successfully delivered the above two major projects this year, is in a strong position to review and source new opportunities, particularly through its substantial network of retail partners, investors and contacts. The demand from the investment community for the Group's completed projects, and its ability to produce investment grade product, continues to place the Company in a solid position to source and deliver on its core competencies and allows the Company to recycle and deploy its equity into new opportunities.

The Group is engaged in Due Diligence on several new opportunities, aligned with the Company's core competencies and enabling the deployment of its capital into prudent developments to deliver superior returns for Shareholders. Additionally, the executive team is evaluating a number of strategic new opportunities with a wider scope and application for the property industry which would enhance and broaden the business's current competency and expand the Group's operations.

Lastly, may I add my ongoing thanks and appreciation to our Shareholders for their continued support, as well as adding my sincere thanks to my fellow Directors on the Axiom Board and executive team led by Paul Rouvray and CFO Paul Santinon, as well as our network of consultants and advisors for their assistance and dedication throughout the year.

Operating and Financial Review

Financial Results

Corona virus impacts during the year including continued border closures drove construction industry escalation and made it difficult to deliver projects on time and on budget across the Country. Contractors continued to work at capacity, and whilst some of the disruption to domestic and global supply chains has now eased, it remains a dynamic unknown when trying to forecast construction pricing in the medium term. As such, there was and continues to be pressure on preparing feasibilities to validate construction costs and program timing as contractors continue to manage operational capacity. The Company's executive team worked hard to negotiate appropriate fixed pricing and adopt realistic programs in construction contracts with reputable builders who were able to withstand market fluctuations.

The Company's financial performance for the year is reflective of managements approach to collaborative relationships across various stakeholders including governments, statutory authorities, and builders. The Board is focussed on individual project risks as well as taking into consideration the wider market forces currently felt across the Globe. The Company's 2022 recorded profit after tax of $5.502 million along with strong cash reserves again highlights the Company's ability to withstand cyclical property market conditions (30 June 2021: $12.161 million after tax).

The Company maintains a strong financial position including adequate cash reserves to continue to invest in existing and future project pipeline. This has been achieved in addition to returning over $17.3m of cash to Shareholders through a Return of Capital during the period.

Business Overview

World Park 01, Keswick SA

Project status: Completed

Ownership: Sold to Charter Hall Social Infrastructure REIT for $80m

This financial year marks the end of a very successful development journey on the World Park land, starting in 2008 when the Company settled on the site in Keswick, SA on the back of entering into an agreement for lease with ASX listed Coffey International to anchor stage 1 of the precinct. Stage 1 construction was completed in 2010 with settlement with Growthpoint subsequently finalised thereafter for $46.5m.

The Company continued to market and promote the site nationally in the interim period and then announced in 2019 that it had successfully secured a commitment from the South Australian State Government following an extensive Request for Proposal campaign. As the successful proponent, Axiom was required to design and construct a precinct to accommodate more than 300 staff from the South Australian Fire and Emergency Commission, the South Australian Country Fire Service (SACFS), the South Australian Metropolitan Fire Service (SAMFS) and the South Australian State Emergency Service (SASES).

Axiom brought together a team of predominantly South Australian specialist consultants and worked collaboratively with the Government's delivery team to design and construct a world class facility to enhance and support the Emergency Services and the critical work they do to protect the community. The building and associated warehouse is constructed to an Importance Level 4 and is earthquake-resilient, featuring backup power, water and wastewater storage and technology redundancies able to withstand major disasters such as earthquakes, floods and storms. The precinct also includes a public multi deck carpark.

Axiom retains a development right for 5 years with Charter Hall on the surplus developable land. A draft scheme on the land shows there is opportunity to construct a further office building with circa 5,000sqm of NLA.

Business Overview

Glenlea Estate, Mt Barker, SA

Project status: Under Construction

Expected project cost (excluding Land): $45m

Ownership: 50/50 Joint Venture

Glenlea Estate, Mt Barker

Mt Barker continues to be a long-term key focus for the Company, supported by market conditions of strong purchaser demand and revenue escalation. With no signs of slowing of purchaser demand, the Joint Venture decided there was merit in engaging two civil contractors onsite to expedite a pipeline of product to meet the demand. As such, during the year the Joint Venture engaged BMD Urban and South Coast Sand & Civil to complete construction of stages 2a, 3 and 4, as well as making significant inroads into the civil works for stages 1d and 5.

Stage 2a consists of 12 allotments, 11 having been contracted prior to completion of construction. This stage is adjacent to both the central amenity natural watercourse reserve and a larger open space reserve. Subsequent to year end, clearances by relevant authorities were received and titles issued with settlements now occurring. Proceeds from sales are being used to progressively pay back the BankSA development finance facility.

Stage 3 and 4 consists of 11 allotments, 10 having been contracted prior to completion of construction. These allotments front the newly created main ring road and the future intersection out to Paech Road, which is being scheduled for construction later this year.

Importantly, this stage also underpinned the construction of the infrastructure works to meet the conditions precedent to facilitate settlement of the Living Choice agreement. As such, the Joint Venture received payment of the deposit from Living Choice which is being held in trust awaiting final settlement. The final condition to be satisfied prior to settlement is Living Choice receiving development approval from Mt Barker Council to their satisfaction. Subsequent to year end, Living Choice received the required approvals and settlement is scheduled to occur in September. It is intended that the funds received from this settlement, as well as allotment settlements will be used to pay out the balance of any BankSA debt, with the Joint Venture to consider the best use of any residual funds in accordance with the terms of the Joint Venture deed.

The Company and its Partner are working on plans to develop the next stage of allotments which is likely to commence September 2022, subject to appropriate Council and finance approvals being in place.

Ownership: Sold to the Lester Group

Butler, WA

As announced on 13 December 2021, the Company settled the sale of its Butler Central Homemaker Centre and received $16.120 million being for the land plus reimbursement of costs spent to date of settlement. Under the terms of the agreement, the Purchaser (The Lester Group) continued to fund all development costs up to Practical Completion which occurred on 30 June 2022. Construction was completed within the forecast program timeline and under budget by ADCO.

In accordance with the Development Management Agreement, final settlement with The Lester Group is expected to occur by calendar year end. Whilst the parties work towards achieving the conditions precedent to settlement, the Company is continuing with a marketing campaign and is working with The Lester Group and its agent Vend to secure tenants for the balance of the precinct.

Outlook

Office

Overall, the office market nationally has shown relatively strong resistance during the year as jurisdictions moved towards a post pandemic lock down environment and employees were encouraged to return to the office. Majority of market commentary and analysis indicates that vacancy rates may have peaked and there is expectation of normalisation and stable market conditions in the next 12 months. This is in spite of a trend from many large major organisations disposing of space at a rapid rate in major CBD locations as companies move towards a more flexible work environment. This may provide short to medium term development opportunities as organisations restructure and seek more modern new prime grade space in new developments.

Retail

According to Deloitte Access Economics, Australian retail spending is roughly 6.2 per cent ahead of its pre-Covid trends and the report found this was boosted by the 1.2 per cent gain in real turnover and retail spending surging at the end of 2021. However, forecasts to 2023 indicate Australian retailers expect global supply chain disruptions to result in higher prices for goods and thereby affect consumer demand. Consumers are already starting to feel the effects of a rise in inflation which is likely to continue on the back of unavoidable CPI price growth and resultant RBA increases to cash rate.

Residential

All major banks have revised their house price forecasts and now expect larger house price falls across all capitals in the next 12 months as rising mortgage rates start to bite. Whilst there is no consensus, general commentary supports falls in excess of 8% based on current forecast cash rate rises. Auction clearance rates are trending lower and whilst a return to immigration in 2022 will be a plus, economists do not believe this will be sufficient to offset the negatives.

It is important to remember that predicted pricing falls in the housing market has come after very sharp increases over the past year and as Australia approaches full employment for the first time in decades with households having more cash secured away than ever before. Opportunities may present themselves for people who have been struggling to get into the rising housing market.

General Economy

The RBA maintains a high priority on monetary policy of returning inflation to the 2-3 per cent range over time on the back of Australia's highest inflation numbers since the early 1990s. As the Australian economy continues to grow, the labour market is forecast to remain tight as unemployment declines. Consumer spending and impacts on business is therefore proving difficult to predict given it has remained resilient despite pricing effects of global supply-side impacts.

Current geopolitical volatility is something that all businesses must contend with as it creates uncertainty and affects every aspect of the Australian economy. Relationships and partnerships with all levels of stakeholders from suppliers to financiers to governments are as important as ever in shaping innovative and supportive operating environments to drive economic growth opportunities. Whilst there is no way to precisely predict the economic outcomes following the current uncertainty, a historical view of key geopolitical incidences gives some indication of what to expect, which is a quick recovery. Businesses primed to take advantage of quick recovery can expect success.

Significant Changes In The State Of Affairs

During the financial year there was no significant change in the state of affairs of the Group other than that referred to in the financial statements or notes thereto.

Future Developments, Prospects And Business Strategies

The prospects and business strategies of the Group are discussed on pages 13–18 of this Report.

Environmental Legislation

The Group's operations are subject to various environmental regulations under both Commonwealth and State legislation, particularly in relation to its property development activities. The Group's practice is to ensure that where operations are subject to environmental regulations, those obligations are identified and appropriately addressed. This includes the obtaining of approvals, consents and requisite licences from the relevant authorities and complying with their conditions. There have been no significant known breaches of environmental regulations to which the Group is subject.

Remuneration Report (Audited)

Indemnification and Insurance of Directors and Officers

The Company has agreed to indemnify all of the Directors of the Company for any liabilities to another person (other than the Company or related body corporate) that may arise from their position as Directors of the Company and its controlled entities, except where the liability arises out of conduct involving a lack of good faith. In accordance with common practice, the insurance policy prohibits disclosure of the nature of the liability insured against and the amount of the premium.

This report, which forms part of the directors' report, outlines the remuneration arrangements in place for the key management personnel ("KMP") of Axiom Properties Limited (the "Company") for the financial year ended 30 June 2022. The information provided in this remuneration report has been audited as required by Section 308(3C) of the Corporations Act 2001.

The remuneration report details the remuneration arrangements for KMP who are defined as those persons having authority and responsibility for planning, directing and controlling the major activities of the Company and the Group, directly or indirectly, including any Director (whether executive or otherwise) of the parent company, and includes the top executives of the Parent and the Group receiving the highest remuneration.

Remuneration Philosophy

The performance of the Company depends upon the quality of the Directors and other key management personnel. The philosophy of the Company in determining remuneration levels is to:

- Set competitive remuneration packages to attract and retain high calibre employees; and
- Link executive rewards to shareholder value creation.

Remuneration Committee

The Remuneration Committee of the Board of Directors of the Company is responsible for determining and reviewing compensation arrangements for the Directors, the Managing Director and the Company Secretary. The Remuneration Committee assesses the appropriateness of the nature and amount of remuneration of Directors and other key management personnel on a periodic basis by reference to relevant employment market conditions with an overall objective of ensuring maximum shareholder benefit from the retention of a high-quality Board.

Remuneration Structure

In accordance with best practice corporate governance, the structure of non-executive director and other key management personnel remuneration is separate and distinct.

Company's Remuneration Policies

The Board, subject to the approval of shareholders in the Annual General Meeting, sets the remuneration level of the non-executive members of the Board. Remuneration is set according to the skills, experience and length of service of each Director. Remuneration of the Non-Executive Chairman is determined by the Board of Directors and is also determined by the skills, experience and length of service of the Non-Executive Chairman. Non-Executive Directors receive a fixed fee and statutory superannuation for services as Directors.

The Company's Constitution provides that Directors may collectively be paid a fixed sum, not exceeding the aggregate maximum per annum from time to time, as determined by the Company and approved by shareholders. A Director may be paid fees or other amounts as the Directors determine where a Director performs special duties or otherwise performs services outside the scope of the ordinary duties of a Director. Where deemed appropriate there is a link between remuneration paid to Non-Executive Directors and corporate performance such as bonus payments for achievement of certain key performance indicators.

Remuneration for Executive Directors and Senior Managers is based upon a number of factors, including length of service, particular experience of the individual concerned, and overall performance of the Company.

The contracts for service between Executive Directors and the Company are on a continuing basis the terms of which are not expected to change, other than for remuneration packages, which are reviewed annually by the Board in its capacity as Remuneration Committee. Remuneration packages may include base salary, superannuation, fringe benefits, bonuses and performance rights.

Proceedings on Behalf of the Company

No person has applied for leave of Court to bring proceedings on behalf of the Company or intervene in any proceedings to which the Company is a party for the purpose of taking responsibility on behalf of the Company for all or any part or those proceedings. The Company was not a party to any such proceedings.

Rounding Off of Amounts

The Group is of a kind referred to in ASIC Corporations (Rounding in Financial/Directors' Reports) Instrument 2016/191 and in accordance with that Instrument, amounts in the consolidated financial statements and directors' report have been rounded off to the nearest thousand dollars, unless otherwise stated.

Auditor Independence and Non-Audit Services

Section 307(C) of the Corporations Act 2001 requires the Company's auditors, BDO Audit Pty Ltd, to provide the Directors of the Company with an Independence Declaration in relation to the audit of the financial report. This Independence Declaration is set out on page 27 and forms part of the Directors' Report for the year ended 30 June 2022.

Non-Audit Services

Details of amounts paid or payable to the auditor for non-audit services provided during the year by the auditor are outlined in Note 25 to the financial statements. The Directors are satisfied that the provision of non-audit services is compatible with the general standard of independence for auditors imposed by the Corporations Act 2001.

Events After the Reporting Date

Subsequent to year end, and as announced to the ASX on the 2nd August 2022, Living Choice has received Development Approval for their Over 55's Lifestyle Community within the Company's Glenlea Estate residential subdivision in Mount Barker. This satisfies the last remaining condition of the sale which is now scheduled to settle in early September 2022.

No other matter or circumstance has arisen since 30 June 2022 that has significantly affected, or may significantly affect:

- the Group's operations in future financial years; or
- the results of those operations in future financial years; or
- the Group's state of affairs in future financial years.

Signed in accordance with a resolution of the Directors:

Ben Laurance
Managing Director

Adelaide, South Australia
Dated: 19 August 2022

Corporate Governance Statement

Axiom Properties Limited (Company) has established a corporate governance framework, the key features of which are set out in this statement. In establishing its corporate governance framework, the Company has referred to ASX Corporate Governance Council Principles and Recommendations 3rd edition (Principles and Recommendations). The Company has followed each recommendation where the Board has considered the recommendation to be an appropriate benchmark for its corporate governance practices. Where the Company's corporate governance practices follow a recommendation, the Board has made appropriate statements reporting on the adoption of the recommendation. In compliance with the "if not, why not" reporting regime, where, after due consideration, the Company's corporate governance practices do not follow a recommendation, the Board has explained its reasons for not following the recommendation and disclosed what, if any, alternative practices the Company has adopted instead of those in the recommendation.

The governance-related documents can be found on the Company's website at <https://www.axiompl.com.au/about> under the section marked "Corporate Governance".

Notes to the Financial Statements

For the Year Ended 30 June 2022

NOTE 1: GENERAL ACCOUNTING POLICIES

The principal accounting policies adopted in the preparation of the financial statements are set out below. These policies have been consistently applied to all the years presented, unless otherwise stated.

(a) New or amended Accounting Standards and Interpretations adopted

The company has adopted all of the new or amended Accounting Standards and Interpretations issued by the Australian Accounting Standards Board ('AASB') that are mandatory for the current reporting period. Any new or amended Accounting Standards or Interpretations that are not yet mandatory have not been early adopted. The consolidated entity is yet to assess the impact of these new or amended Accounting Standards and Interpretations.

(b) Basis of Preparation

The financial report is a general-purpose financial report, which has been prepared in accordance with the requirements of the Corporations Act 2001, Accounting Standards and Interpretations and complies with other requirements of the law. The financial statements comprise the consolidated financial statements for the Group. For the purposes of preparing the consolidated financial statements, the Company is a for-profit entity. The directors have the power to amend and reissue the financial statements. The accounting policies detailed below have been consistently applied to all of the years presented unless otherwise stated. The financial statements are for the Group consisting of Axiom Properties Limited and its subsidiaries.

The financial report has also been prepared on a historical cost basis. Historical cost is based on the fair values of the consideration given in exchange for assets.

The financial report is presented in Australian dollars and all values are rounded to the nearest thousand dollars ($'000) unless otherwise stated under the option available to the Company under ASIC Corporations (Rounding in Financial/Directors' Reports) instrument 2016/191.

The Company is a listed public company, incorporated in Australia and operating in Australia. The entity's principal activities are property investment and development.

(c) Statement of compliance

The financial report was authorised for issue on 19 August 2022.

The financial report complies with Australian Accounting Standards, which include Australian equivalents to International Financial Reporting Standards (AIFRS). The financial statements also comply with International Financial Reporting Standards (IFRS) as issued by the International Accounting Standards Board.

(d) Basis of consolidation

The consolidated financial statements incorporate the financial statements of the Company and entities controlled by the Company and its subsidiaries. Control is achieved when the Company:

- has power over the investee;
- is exposed, or has rights, to variable returns from its involvement in with the investee; and
- has the ability to its power to affect its returns.

The Company reassess whether or not it controls an investee if facts and circumstances indicate that there are changes to one or more of the three elements listed above.

When the Company has less than a majority of the voting rights in an investee, it has the power over the investee when the voting rights are sufficient to give it the practical ability to direct the relevant activities of the investee unilaterally. The Company considers all relevant facts and circumstances in assessing whether or not the Company's voting rights are sufficient to give it power, including:

- the size of the Company's holding of voting rights relative to the size and dispersion of holdings of the other vote holders;
- potential voting rights held by the Company, other vote holders or other parties; rights arising from other contractual arrangements; and
- any additional facts and circumstances that indicate that the Company has, or does not have, the current ability to direct the relevant activities at the time that decisions need to be made, including voting patterns at previous shareholder meetings.

Consolidation of a subsidiary begins when the Company obtains control over the subsidiary and ceases when the Company loses control of the subsidiary. Specifically, income and expenses of a subsidiary acquired or disposed of during the year are included in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income from the date the Company gains control until the date when the Company ceases to control the subsidiary.

When necessary, adjustments are made to the financial statements of subsidiaries to bring their accounting policies in line with the Group's accounting policies.

All intragroup assets and liabilities, equity, income, expenses and cash flows relating to transactions between members are eliminated in full on consolidation.

(e) Significant accounting estimates and judgements

The application of accounting policies requires the use of judgements, estimates and assumptions about carrying values of assets and liabilities that are not readily apparent from other sources. The estimates and associated assumptions are based on historical experience and other factors that are considered to be relevant. Actual results may differ from these estimates.

The estimates and underlying assumptions are reviewed on an on-going basis. Revisions are recognised in the period in which the estimate is revised if it affects only that period or in the period of the revision and future periods if the revision affects both current and future periods. The judgements, estimates and assumptions that have a significant risk of causing a material adjustment to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities (refer to the respective notes) within the next financial year are discussed below.

A right-of-use asset is recognised at the commencement date of a lease. The right-of-use asset is measured at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability, adjusted for, as applicable, any lease payments made at or before the commencement date net of any lease incentives received, any initial direct costs incurred, and, except where included in the cost of inventories, an estimate of costs expected to be incurred for dismantling and removing the underlying asset, and restoring the site or asset.

Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the unexpired period of the lease or the estimated useful life of the asset, whichever is the shorter. Where the consolidated entity expects to obtain ownership of the leased asset at the end of the lease term, the depreciation is over its estimated useful life. Right-of-use assets are subject to impairment or adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities.

(g) Lease liabilities

A lease liability is recognised at the commencement date of a lease. The lease liability is initially recognised at the present value of the lease payments to be made over the term of the lease, discounted using the interest rate implicit in the lease or, if that rate cannot be readily determined, the consolidated entity's incremental borrowing rate. Lease payments comprise of fixed payments less any lease incentives receivable, variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, amounts expected to be paid under residual value guarantees, exercise price of a purchase option when the exercise of the option is reasonably certain to occur, and any anticipated termination penalties. The variable lease payments that do not depend on an index or a rate are expensed in the period in which they are incurred.

Lease liabilities are measured at amortised cost using the effective interest method. The carrying amounts are remeasured if there is a change in the following: future lease payments arising from a change in an index or a rate used; residual guarantee; lease term; certainty of a purchase option and termination penalties. When a lease liability is remeasured, an adjustment is made to the corresponding right-of-use asset, or to profit or loss if the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset is fully written down.

(h) Borrowing costs

Borrowing costs are recognised as an expense when incurred except those that relate to the acquisition, construction or production of qualifying assets where the borrowing cost is added to the cost of those assets until such time as the assets are substantially ready for their intended use of sale.

(i) Other taxes

Revenues, expenses and assets are recognised net of the amount of GST except:

- when the GST incurred on a purchase of goods and services is not recoverable from the taxation authority, in which case the GST is recognised as part of the cost of acquisition of the asset or as part of the expense item as applicable; and
- receivables and payables, which are stated with the amount of GST included.

The net amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority is included as part of receivables or payables in the statement of financial position.

Cash flows are included in the Statement of Cash Flows on a gross basis and the GST component of cash flows arising from investing and financing activities, which is recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority, are classified as operating cash flows.

Commitments and contingencies are disclosed net of the amount of GST recoverable from, or payable to, the taxation authority.

(j) Impairment

The Group assesses at the end of each reporting period whether there is an indication that an asset may be impaired. If any such indication exists, or when annual impairment testing for an asset is required, the Group makes an estimate of the asset's recoverable amount.

An asset's recoverable amount is the higher of its fair value less costs to sell and its value in use and is determined for an individual asset, unless the asset does not generate cash inflows that are largely independent of those from other assets or groups of assets and the asset's value in use cannot be estimated to be close to its fair value. In such cases the asset is tested for impairment as part of the cash-generating unit to which it belongs. When the carrying amount of an asset or cash-generating unit exceeds its recoverable amount, the asset or cash-generating unit is considered impaired and is written down to its recoverable amount.

In assessing value in use, the estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value using a pre-tax discount rate that reflects current market assessments of the time value of money and the risks specific to the asset. Impairment losses relating to continuing operations are recognised in those expense categories consistent with the function of the impaired asset unless the asset is carried at revalued amount (in which case the impairment loss is treated as a revaluation decrease).

An assessment is also made at the end of each reporting period as to whether there is any indication that previously recognised impairment losses may no longer exist or may have decreased. If such indication exists, the recoverable amount is estimated. A previously recognised impairment loss is reversed only if there has been a change in the estimates used to determine the asset's recoverable amount since the last impairment loss was recognised. If that is the case the carrying amount of the asset is increased to its recoverable amount.

That increased amount cannot exceed the carrying amount that would have been determined, net of depreciation, had no impairment loss been recognised for the asset in prior years. Such reversal is recognised in profit or loss unless the asset is carried at revalued amount, in which case the reversal is treated as a revaluation increase. After such a reversal the depreciation charge is adjusted in future periods to allocate the asset's revised carrying amount, less any residual value, on a systematic basis over its remaining useful life.

Revenue from contract with customers

Revenue is recognised at an amount that reflects the consideration to which the consolidated entity is expected to be entitled in exchange for transferring goods or services to a customer. For each contract with a customer, the consolidated entity: identifies the contract with a customer; identifies the performance obligations in the contract; determines the transaction price which takes into account estimates of variable consideration and the time value of money; allocates the transaction price to the separate performance obligations on the basis of the relative stand-alone selling price of each distinct good or service to be delivered; and recognises revenue when or as each performance obligation is satisfied in a manner that depicts the transfer to the customer of the goods or services promised. The following specific recognition criteria must also be met before revenue is recognised:

Rental income

Rental income is accounted for on a straight-line basis over the lease term. Contingent rental income is recognised as income in the periods in which it is earned. Lease incentives granted are recognised as a reduction as rental income received on a straight-line basis from the lease commencement date to the end of the lease term. Payments are typically received within 30 days.

Sales Income

There are two types of sales income received from the sale of Worldpark to Charter Hall and Butler to The Lester Group. Initial settlement tranches were recognised at a point in time upon financial settlement of the land and capital improvements value. Subsequent sales income received monthly on a fund through basis for construction from initial settlement is recognised as good and services transferred over time. Sales income for homes constructed by the company in the Glenlea Estate, Mount Barker development is recognised at a point in time upon financial settlement by arm's length third party purchasers.

Revenue - estimates

Judgement is exercised in determining the costs associated with potential defects during the defect's liability periods for Worldpark and Butler as well as contractual income guarantees. A degree of variability therefore exists at the end of the reporting period which has a direct bearing on the amount of revenue recognised in the period.

The net deferred tax asset not recognised has been measured at the base rate entity tax rate for the year ended 30 June 2023 of 25% on the basis the asset is measured at the tax rate expected to apply when the asset is realised or the liability is settled.

Legislation has been enacted to allow groups, comprising of a parent entity and its Australian resident wholly owned entities, to elect to be consolidated and be treated as a single entity for income tax purposes. The legislation, which includes both mandatory and elective elements, is applicable to Axiom Properties Limited.

As at the reporting date, the Directors have not made an election to be taxed as a single entity. The financial effect of the legislation has therefore not been brought to account in the financial statements for the year ended 30 June 2022.

The income tax expense or benefit for the period is the tax payable on the current period's taxable income based on the applicable income tax rate adjusted by changes in deferred tax assets and liabilities attributable to temporary difference and to unused tax losses.

The current income tax charge is calculated on the basis of the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the end of the reporting period. Management periodically evaluates positions taken in tax returns with respect to situations in which applicable tax regulation is subject to interpretation. It establishes provisions where appropriate on the basis of amounts expected to be paid to the tax authorities.

Current tax assets and liabilities for the current and prior periods are measured at the amount expected to be recovered from or paid to the taxation authorities. The tax rates and tax laws used to compute the amount are those that are enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date.

Deferred income tax is provided on all temporary differences at the end of the reporting period between the tax bases of assets and liabilities and their carrying amounts for financial reporting purposes.

Deferred income tax liabilities are recognised for all taxable temporary differences except:

- when the deferred income tax liability arises from the initial recognition of goodwill or of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and that, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; or
- when the taxable temporary difference is associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates or interests in joint ventures, and the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference can be controlled and it is probable that the temporary difference will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred income tax assets are recognised for all deductible temporary differences, carry-forward of unused tax assets and unused tax losses, to the extent that it is probable that taxable profit will be available against which the deductible temporary differences and the carry-forward of unused tax credits and unused tax losses can be utilised, except:

- when the deferred income tax asset relating to the deductible temporary difference arises from the initial recognition of an asset or liability in a transaction that is not a business combination and, at the time of the transaction, affects neither the accounting profit nor taxable profit or loss; or
- when the deductible temporary difference is associated with investments in subsidiaries, associates or interests in joint ventures, in which case a deferred tax asset is only recognised to the extent that it is probable that the temporary difference will reverse in the foreseeable future and taxable profit will be available against which the temporary difference can be utilised.

The carrying amount of deferred income tax assets is reviewed at the end of each reporting period and reduced to the extent that it is no longer probable that sufficient taxable profit will be available to allow all or part of the deferred income tax asset to be utilised.

Unrecognised deferred income tax assets are reassessed at the end of each reporting period and are recognised to the extent that it has become probable that future taxable profit will allow the deferred tax asset to be recovered.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities are measured at the tax rates that are expected to apply to the year when the asset is realised or the liability is settled, based on tax rates (and tax laws) that have been enacted or substantively enacted at the reporting date.

Income taxes relating to items recognised directly in equity are recognised in equity and not in profit or loss.

Deferred tax assets and deferred tax liabilities are offset only if a legally enforceable right exists to set off current tax assets against current tax liabilities and the deferred tax assets and liabilities relate to the same taxable entity and the same taxation authority.

NOTE 4: SEGMENT INFORMATION

The following table represents revenue and results on an aggregated basis provided to the chief operating decision maker for the years ended 30 June 2022 and 30 June 2021.

The basis for the segment reporting of the Group is that used by the Managing Director for monthly reporting to the Board. The two segments of the group are Investment Property and Development. Corporate is not considered a segment but rather a reconciling category.

Segment reporting

Operating segments are reported in a manner consistent with the internal reporting provided to the chief operating decision maker. The chief operating decision maker, who is responsible for allocating resources and assessing performance of the operating segments, has been identified as the Board of Directors of Axiom Properties Limited.

All Group assets are located in Australia, hence all revenue received was in Australia.

The weighted average number of shares on issue used in the calculation of diluted earnings per share	432,713,658	432,713,658

There are no reconciling items between the net result attributable to members of the parent entity as shown in the Statement of Comprehensive Income and the amount used to calculate basic and diluted earnings per share.

Basic earnings per share is calculated as net profit/loss attributable to members of the parent, adjusted to exclude any costs of servicing equity (other than dividends) and preference share dividends, divided by the weighted average number of ordinary shares, adjusted for any bonus element.

Diluted earnings per share are calculated as net profit/loss attributable to members of the parent, adjusted for:

- costs of servicing equity (other than dividends) and preference share dividends;
- the after-tax effect of dividends and interest associated with dilutive potential ordinary shares that have been recognised as expenses;
- other non-discretionary changes in revenues or expenses during the period that would result from the dilution of potential ordinary shares; and
- divided by the weighted average number of ordinary shares and dilutive potential ordinary shares, adjusted for any bonus element.

	2022	2021
	$'000	$'000
Cash at bank and on hand	5,828	9,127
	5,828	9,127

Cash comprises cash at bank and in hand. Cash equivalents are short term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. Bank overdrafts are shown within borrowings in current liabilities in the statement of financial position.

(1) All other cash ($2.371m) is held on term deposit and has been classified as fixed interest securities and disclosed at Note 9 Other financial assets. The balance of the two items held is $8.199m.

For the purposes of the statement of cash flows, cash and cash equivalents consist of cash and cash equivalents as defined above, net of outstanding bank overdrafts.

Cash at bank earns interest at floating rates based on daily and/or monthly bank deposit rates. Short-term deposits are made for varying periods of between one day and three months, depending on the immediate cash requirements of the Group, and earn interest at the respective short-term deposit rates.

(i) Reconciliation to the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows:

For the purposes of the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows, cash and cash equivalents comprise cash on hand and at bank and investments in money market instruments, net of outstanding bank overdrafts.

Cash and cash equivalents as shown in the Consolidated Statement of Cash Flows, is reconciled to the related items in the Consolidated Statement of Financial Position as follows:

Trade receivables are measured on initial recognition at fair value and are subsequently measured at amortised cost using the effective interest rate method, less provision for impairment. Trade receivables are generally due for settlement within periods ranging from 15 days to 30 days.

The Group recognises a loss allowance for expected credit losses on trade debtors. The Group has applied the simplified approach to measuring expected credit losses which uses a lifetime expected loss allowance. To measure the expected credit losses, trade receivables have been grouped based on days overdue.

The amount of the loss allowance is recognised in the statement of comprehensive income within other expenses. When a trade receivable for which an impairment allowance had been recognised becomes uncollectible in a subsequent period it is written off against the allowance account. Subsequent recoveries of amounts previously written off are credited against other expenses in the statement of comprehensive income. There were no past due trade receivables at reporting date.

Contract Assets recognises a proportion of revenue earned but not yet invoiced on the Worldpark and Butler developments, based on the percentage of construction completed to date.

Contract assets are recognised when the company has transferred goods or services to the customer but where the company is yet to establish an unconditional right to consideration. Contract assets are treated as financial assets for impairment purposes.

NOTE 9: OTHER FINANCIAL ASSETS

	Consolidated
	2022	2021
Current	$'000	$'000
Fixed interest securities	2,371	3,038

Other financial assets are non-derivative financial assets that have fixed maturities and fixed or determinable payments, and it is the Group's intention to hold these investments to maturity. They are subsequently measured at amortised cost. Gains or losses are recognised in profit or loss through the amortisation process and when the financial asset is derecognised.

Less: Accumulated depreciation	(34)	(26)
	3	3
Total right-of-use assets	391	607

Additions to the right-of-use assets during the year were $8,018.

The company leases offices located in Adelaide and Sydney under agreements of between five to six years. The leases have annual fixed escalation clauses. On renewal, the terms of the leases are renegotiated. The company also has a motor vehicle lease under a three-year agreement. The company also leases office equipment under agreements. These leases are either short-term or low-value, so have been expensed as incurred and not capitalised as right-of-use assets.

A right-of-use asset is recognised at the commencement date of a lease. The right-of-use asset is measured at cost, which comprises the initial amount of the lease liability, adjusted for, as applicable, any lease payments made at or before the commencement date net of any lease incentives received, any initial direct costs incurred, and, except where included in the cost of inventories, an estimate of costs expected to be incurred for dismantling and removing the underlying asset, and restoring the site or asset.

Right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the unexpired period of the lease or the estimated useful life of the asset, whichever is the shorter. Where the consolidated entity expects to obtain ownership of the leased asset at the end of the lease term, the depreciation is over its estimated useful life. Right-of use assets are subject to impairment or adjusted for any remeasurement of lease liabilities.

The consolidated entity has elected not to recognise a right-of-use asset and corresponding lease liability for short-term leases with terms of 12 months or less and leases of low-value assets. Lease payments on these assets are expensed to profit or loss as incurred.

On 24 September 2021 the Company announced it had reached agreement with The Lester Group to sell its Butler Central large format retail precinct. The land was subsequently settled on 13 December 2021 and was transferred from inventory into cost of goods sold.

Axiom previously funded strategic built form product within the Glenlea Estate Mt Barker development, which were subsequently contracted and settled as house and land packages. Axiom received 100% of its home construction cost on settlement of the land.

Costs in relation to the acquisition and development of land that is being developed for sale, are capitalised and carried forward at cost, as inventories. As developed, lots are settled the associated value of inventories is expensed to the statement of comprehensive income. Profits are brought to account on the contract of sale settlement.

Net realisable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs on completion and the estimated costs necessary to make the sale.

A joint venture is an arrangement where the parties who have joint control of the arrangement have rights to the net assets of the joint arrangement. Joint control is the contractually agreed sharing of control of an arrangement, which exists only when decisions about the relevant activities require unanimous consent of the parties sharing control.

The results and assets and liabilities of joint ventures are incorporated in these consolidated financial statements using the equity method of accounting, except when the investment, or a portion thereof, is classified as held for sale, in which case it is accounted for in accordance with AASB 5. Under the equity method, an investment in a joint venture is initially recognised in the consolidated statement of financial position and adjusted thereafter to recognise the Group's share of the profit or loss in other comprehensive income of the joint venture. When the Group's share of losses of a joint venture exceeds the Group's interest in that joint venture (which includes any long-term interests that, in substance, form part of the Group's net investment in joint venture), the Group discontinues to recognise its share of further losses. Additional losses are recognised only to the extent that the Group has incurred legal or constructive obligations or made payments on behalf of the joint venture.

An investment in a joint venture is accounted for using the equity method from the date on which the investee becomes a joint venture. On acquisition of the investment in a joint venture, any excess of the cost of the investment over the Group's share of the net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities is recognised as goodwill, which is included within the carrying amount of the investment. Any excess of the Group's share of net fair value of the identifiable assets and liabilities over the cost of the investment, after reassessment, is recognised immediately in profit or loss in the period in which the investment is acquired.

The requirements of AASB 139 are applied to determine whether it is necessary to recognise any impairment loss with respect to the Group's investment in joint ventures. When necessary, the entire carrying amount of the investment (including goodwill) is tested for impairment in accordance with AASB 136 'Impairment of Assets' as a single asset by comparing its recoverable amount (higher of value in use less costs to sell) with its carrying amount. Any impairment loss recognised forms part of the carrying amount of the investment. Any reversal of that impairment loss is recognised in accordance with AASB 136 to the extent that the recoverable amount of the investment subsequently increases.

Trade payables (i)	243	5,671
Accrued expenses	3,782	4,115
	4,025	9,786

(i) Trade payables are non-interest bearing and are normally settled on 30-day terms.

Trade payables and other payables are carried at amortised cost and represent liabilities for goods and services provided to the Group prior to the end of the financial year that are unpaid and arise when the Group becomes obliged to make future payments in respect of the purchase of these goods and services. Trade and other payables are presented as current liabilities unless payment is not due within 12 months.

NOTE 16: PROVISIONS

	Consolidated
	2022	2021
Current	$'000	$'000
Employee benefits	421	323

Employee benefits represents amounts accrued for annual leave and long service leave.

The current liability includes the total amount accrued for annual leave entitlements and amounts accrued for long service leave entitlements that have vested due to employees having completed the required period of service. Based on past experience, the Group does not expect the full amount of annual leave or long service leave to be settled within the next 12 months. However, these amounts must be classified as current liabilities since the Group does not have an unconditional right to defer the settlement of these amounts in the event employees wish to use their entitlement.

In calculating the present value of future cash flows in respect of annual leave and long service leave, the probability of leave being taken is based on historical data. The measurement and recognition criteria relating to employee benefits have been discussed below.

Provisions are recognised when the Group has a present obligation (legal or constructive) as a result of a past event, it is probable that an outflow of resources embodying economic benefits will be required to settle the obligation and a reliable estimate can be made of the amount of the obligation. Provisions are not recognised for future operating losses.

When the Group expects some or all of a provision to be reimbursed, for example under an insurance contract, the reimbursement is recognised as a separate asset but only when the reimbursement is virtually certain. The expense relating to any provision is presented in the statements of comprehensive income, net of any reimbursement.

Provisions are measured at the present value or management's best estimate of the expenditure required to settle the present obligation at the end of the reporting period.

If the effect of the time value of money is material, provisions are discounted using a current pre-tax rate that reflects the risks specific to the liability. When discounting is used, the increase in the provision due to the passage of time is recognised as a borrowing cost.

Employee leave benefits

- (i) Wages, salaries, annual leave and sick leave

Liabilities for wages and salaries, including non-monetary benefits, annual leave and accumulating sick leave expected to be settled within 12 months of the end of the reporting period are recognised in other payables or provisions in respect of employees' services up to the end of the reporting period. They are measured at the amounts expected to be paid when the liabilities are settled. Liabilities for non-accumulating sick leave are recognised when the leave is taken and are measured at the rates paid or payable.

- (ii) Long service leave

The liability for long service leave is recognised in the provision for employee benefits and measured as the present value of expected future payments to be made in respect of services provided by employees up to the end of the reporting period. Consideration is given to expected future wage and salary levels, experience of employee departures, and period of service. Expected future payments are discounted using market yields at the end of the reporting period on corporate bonds with terms to maturity and currencies that match, as closely as possible, the estimated future cash outflows.

NOTE 19: FINANCIAL INSTRUMENTS

(a) Financial risk management objectives

The Group is exposed to a variety of financial risks: interest rate risk, credit risk, liquidity risk and capital risk management. The Group's overall risk management programme focuses on the unpredictability of financial markets and seeks to minimise potential adverse effects on the Group's financial performance. From time to time the Group uses derivative financial instruments to hedge certain risk exposures.

The use of financial derivatives is covered by the Group's policies approved by the Board of Directors, which provide written principles on interest rate risk, credit risk, the use of financial derivatives and non-derivative financial instruments, and the investment of excess liquidity. Compliance with policies and exposure limits is reviewed by management on a continuous basis. The Group does not enter into or trade financial instruments, including derivative financial instruments, for speculative purposes.

(c) Capital risk management

The Group manages its capital to ensure that entities in the Group will be able to continue as a going concern while maximising the return to stakeholders through the optimisation of the debt and equity balances.

The capital structure of the Group consists of debt, cash and cash equivalents and equity attributable to equity holders of the parent, comprising issued capital, reserves and retained earnings. None of the Group's entities are subject to externally imposed capital requirements.

Operating cash flows are used to maintain and expand operations, as well as to make routine expenditures such as tax and general administrative outgoings. Gearing levels are reviewed by the Board on a regular basis in line with its target gearing ratio, the cost of capital and the risks associated with each class of capital. The Group's strategy remains unchanged from 2021.

(d) Interest rate risk

The Group has a 3-month term deposit of $2.371 million with Bank SA which matures in September 2022. The Group is exposed to interest rate risk upon maturity of the term deposit. The Group's income and operating cash flows are substantially independent of changes in market interest rates.

However, the Group may be exposed to interest rate risk on any future borrowings that are used to fund its development activities as entities in the Group borrow funds at both fixed and floating interest rates. Borrowings issued at variable rates expose the Group to cash flow interest rate risk. The Group seeks to minimise the effect of this risk by using derivative financial instruments to hedge the risk exposure wherever it is prudent to do so. The use of financial instruments is dependent on management's assessment of the interest rate risk going forward and this is assessed on a case by case basis. Financial institutions may also require the Group to enter into derivatives through loan facility documentation.

The Company's and Group's exposures to interest rate on financial liabilities are detailed in the liquidity risk management section of the note.

Interest Rate Sensitivity Analysis

The sensitivity analysis below has been determined based on the exposure to interest rates for non-derivative instruments at the reporting date and the stipulated change taking place at the beginning of the financial year and held constant throughout the reporting period. A 50 basis point increase or decrease is a reasonable basis on which to base the sensitivity analyses.

At reporting date, if interest rates had been 50 basis points higher or lower and all other variables are held constant the Group's:

- Net profit before tax would increase by $12K (2021: increase $15K) or decrease by $12K (2021: decrease $10K). This is due to the Group's exposure to variable interest rates on its finance facilities.

(e) Credit risk management

Credit risk refers to the risk that a counterparty will default on its contractual obligations resulting in financial loss to the Group. The Group is exposed to credit risk from cash and cash equivalents, deposits with banks and financial institutions, trade and other receivables and contract assets. The Group has adopted a policy of only dealing with creditworthy counterparties and obtaining sufficient collateral where appropriate, as a means of mitigating the risk of financial loss from defaults. The credit risk on cash and cash equivalents is limited due to the high proportion of funds being held with high rated banking institutions.

The table below shows the balance of cash and cash equivalents and other financial assets held with various financial institutions at the end of the reporting period.

Bank of South Australia Limited	AA-	8,199	AA-	12,165

Source: Standard & Poors

Whilst the Group does have exposure to a small spread of counterparties the Directors are of the view that there is no significantly elevated credit risk arising from these concentrated exposures. The carrying amount of financial assets recorded in the financial statements, net of any provisions for losses, represents the Group's maximum exposure to credit risk without taking account of the value of any collateral or other security obtained.

As at 30 June 2022, the group has a credit risk exposure with Charter Hall for $1.96 million (2021: $13,882 million) and The Lester group for $11.23 million (2021: Nil) relating to the contract assets held in accordance with the World Park Development Management agreement and Butler Development Management agreements in place. There are no guarantees against this contract asset but management continues to manage the project and is in regular contact with Charter Hall and the Lester Group to mitigate risk.

f) Liquidity Risk Management

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group will be unable to meet its financial commitments. Ultimate responsibility for liquidity risk management rests with the Board of Directors, who have built an appropriate liquidity risk management framework for the management of the Group's short, medium and long-term funding and liquidity management requirements. The Group manages liquidity risk by maintaining adequate cash reserves and borrowing facilities and by monitoring forecast versus actual cash flows and matching wherever possible the maturity profiles of financial assets and liabilities.

The following tables detail the Group's remaining maturities for its non-derivative financial assets and financial liabilities. These are based upon the undiscounted cash flows of financial instruments based upon the earliest date on which the Group can be required to pay.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT TO THE MEMBERS OF AXIOM PROPERTIES LIMITED

Report on the Audit of the Financial Report

Opinion

We have audited the financial report of Axiom Properties Limited (the Company) and its subsidiaries (the Group), which comprises the consolidated statement of financial position as at 30 June 2022, the consolidated statement of comprehensive income, the consolidated statement of changes in equity and the consolidated statement of cash flows for the year then ended, and notes to the financial report, including a summary of significant accounting policies and the directors' declaration.

In our opinion the accompanying financial report of the Group, is in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001, including:

- (i) Giving a true and fair view of the Group's financial position as at 30 June 2022 and of its financial performance for the year ended on that date; and
- (ii) Complying with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Regulations 2001.

Basis for opinion

We conducted our audit in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the Financial Report section of our report. We are independent of the Group in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 and the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional and Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including Independence Standards) (the Code) that are relevant to our audit of the financial report in Australia. We have also fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with the Code.

We confirm that the independence declaration required by the Corporations Act 2001, which has been given to the directors of the Company, would be in the same terms if given to the directors as at the time of this auditor's report.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters are those matters that, in our professional judgement, were of most significance in our audit of the financial report of the current period. These matters were addressed in the context of our audit of the financial report as a whole, and in forming our opinion thereon, and we do not provide a separate opinion on these matters.

BDO Audit Pty Ltd ABN 33 134 022 870 is a member of a national association of independent entities which are all members of BDO Australia Ltd ABN 77 050 110 275, an Australian company limited by guarantee. BDO Audit Pty Ltd and BDO Australia Ltd are members of BDO International Ltd, a UK company limited by guarantee, and form part of the international BDO network of independent member firms. Liability limited by a scheme approved under Professional Standards Legislation.

Recognition and measurement of revenue from contracts with customers

KEY AUDIT MATTER	HOW THE MATTER WAS ADDRESSED IN OUR AUDIT
A substantial amount of the Group's revenue for the year ended 30 June 2022 relates to the sale of land inventory and subsequent ongoing development of the site. Recognition and measurement of this revenue was determined to be a key audit matter because the recognition and measurement of revenue involves a degree of complexity and management judgement. Furthermore, the resulting revenue recognised in the consolidated statement of comprehensive income and contract assets recognised in the statement of financial position are material and important to the understanding of the financial statements as a whole.	Our audit procedures included, amongst others: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Critically evaluating management's assessment of the identifiable performance obligations under the contract and the fair value of each obligation with reference to relevant terms and conditions of the executed contract; • Assessing the terms and conditions of the contract to determine the existence and significance of amounts subject to variable consideration calculations; • Evaluating management's assessment of the progress towards complete satisfaction of performance obligations recognised over time; • Considering the adequacy of the associated disclosures in the financial statements related to the estimates and judgements applied in determining revenue recognised under the contract.

Other information

The directors are responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the information in the Group's annual report for the year ended 30 June 2022, but does not include the financial report and the auditor's report thereon.

Our opinion on the financial report does not cover the other information and we do not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon.

In connection with our audit of the financial report, our responsibility is to read the other information and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the financial report or our knowledge obtained in the audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

If, based on the work we have performed, we conclude that there is a material misstatement of this other information, we are required to report that fact. We have nothing to report in this regard.

Responsibilities of the directors for the Financial Report

The directors of the Company are responsible for the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards and the Corporations Act 2001 and for such internal control as the directors determine is necessary to enable the preparation of the financial report that gives a true and fair view and is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the financial report, the directors are responsible for assessing the ability of the group to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the directors either intend to liquidate the Group or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Auditor's responsibilities for the audit of the Financial Report

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial report as a whole is free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with the Australian Auditing Standards will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of this financial report.

A further description of our responsibilities for the audit of the financial report is located at the Auditing and Assurance Standards Board website (<http://www.auasb.gov.au/Home.aspx>) at: https://www.auasb.gov.au/admin/file/content102/c3/ar1_2020.pdf

This description forms part of our auditor's report.
