¹ "Corporate governance statement" is defined in Listing Rule 19.12 to mean the statement referred to in Listing Rule 4.10.3 which discloses the extent to which an entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during a particular reporting period.

Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires an entity that is included in the official list as an ASX Listing to include in its annual report either a corporate governance statement that meets the requirements of that rule or the URL of the page on its website where such a statement is located. The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during the reporting period. If the entity has not followed a recommendation for any part of the reporting period, its corporate governance statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.4, if an entity chooses to include its corporate governance statement on its website rather than in its annual report, it must lodge a copy of the corporate governance statement with ASX at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The corporate governance statement must be current as at the effective date specified in that statement for the purposes of Listing Rule 4.10.3.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.3, an entity must also lodge with ASX a completed Appendix 4G at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The Appendix 4G serves a dual purpose. It acts as a key designed to assist readers to locate the governance disclosures made by a listed entity under Listing Rule 4.10.3 and under the ASX Corporate Governance Council's recommendations. It also acts as a verification tool for listed entities to confirm that they have met the disclosure requirements of Listing Rule 4.10.3. The Appendix 4G is not a substitute for, and is not to be confused with, the entity's corporate governance statement. They serve different purposes and an entity must produce each of them separately.

² Tick whichever option is correct and then complete the page number(s) of the annual report, or the URL of the web page, where your corporate governance statement can be found. You can, if you wish, delete the option which is not applicable.

³ Throughout this form, where you are given two or more options to select, you can, if you wish, delete any option which is not applicable and just retain the option that is applicable. If you select an option that includes "OR" at the end of the selection and you delete the other options, you can also, if you wish, delete the "OR" at the end of the selection.

See notes 4 and 5 below for further instructions on how to complete this form.

This Corporate Governance Statement (Statement) of Resources & Energy Group Limited (REZ or the Company) is for the year ended 30 June 2022 (FY2022). The Statement was approved by the Board on 30 September 2022.

This Corporate Governance Statement discloses the extent to which the Company has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council in its publication Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Recommendations). The Recommendations are not mandatory, however the Recommendations that will not be followed have been identified and reasons provided for not following them along with what (if any) alternative governance practices the Company has adopted.

The Company has in place a Corporate Governance Plan (Plan) which provides the written terms of reference for the Company's corporate governance duties. The Board notes that the Company's current size and nature its operations, means that full adoption of the Recommendations is currently not practical. The Board will continue to work towards full adoption of the ASX Recommendations in line with growth and development of the Company.

The Company's Plan, which includes its Board Charter and other policy documents, is on the Company's website at rezgroup.com.au/investors.

Principle 1: Lay solid foundations for management and oversight

The Board of is responsible for its corporate governance and monitors its business affairs on behalf of the shareholders by whom they are elected and to whom they are accountable.

The Board of Directors carries out its responsibilities according to the following policies and processes:

- the Board should comprise at least three directors, with at least two being non-executive directors;
- the Chairman of the Board should be a non executive director;
- the directors should possess a broad range of skills, qualifications and experience;
- the Board considers the mix of skills and the diversity of board members;
- the Board should meet at least on a quarterly basis;
- all available information in connection with items to be discussed at a meeting of the Board shall be provided to each director prior to that meeting;
- the approval of the annual and half yearly financial report;
- the establishment of long-term goals for the Company and strategic plans to achieve those goals;
- the review and adoption of annual budgets for the financial performance of the Company and monitoring the results on a quarterly basis;
- the review the performance of the Board in meeting its objectives;
- ensuring that the Company has implemented adequate internal controls together with the appropriate monitoring of compliance activities; and
- ensuring that the Company is able to pay its debts as and when they fall due.

Directors are required to disclose any potential conflicts of interest which to the Company's activities, including material person interests held of the Company's securities or trading thereon.

The Chair conducted a review of the Board and staff performance during FY2022.

Principle 2: Structure the Board to add value

The Board reviews its membership regularly to ensure that it has available for its activities an appropriate mix of skills. The Board also seeks to ensure that it has several independent, non-executive directors who can challenge executive directors and hold them to account. A publicly disclosed board skills matrix (refer below) sets out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.

To fulfil the function of the Board and to govern the business effectively, Board members need to be able to contribute to the development of strategy and assess the performance of management. In addition, as a Company, the Board must have a mix of skills and experience in:

- corporate governance;
- business strategy;
- executive leadership;
- financial acumen; and
- the resources sector, with a particular focus on mining exploration and evaluation.

The following table provides more detail on the key skills and experience that the Company requires from its Board, and the extent to which these attributes are currently represented on the Board.

Skills and experience	Attributes	Number of directors
Corporate governance expertise	Commitment to the highest standards of governance and an ability to assess the effectiveness of senior management.	3
Strategy skills	Skills in developing and implementing successful business strategy, including appropriately overseeing management on the delivery of agreed strategic planning objectives.	3
Executive leadership experience	Successful career with experience at a very senior executive level.	3
Financial acumen	Senior executive or equivalent experience in financial accounting and reporting, corporate finance and internal financial controls, including an ability to probe the adequacies of financial and risk controls.	3
Relevant industry experience	Senior executive experience in the mining or mining services sector, including in-depth knowledge of the Company's strategy, markets, competitors, operational issues, technology and regulatory concerns.	3
Health, safety and environmental management skills	Experience related to workplace health and safety, environmental and social responsibility, and community	2
Remuneration management skills	Relevant experience in relation to remuneration setting including incentive programs and pensions/superannuation and the legislation and contractual framework governing remuneration.	2

The Company discloses the experience and background of each of its directors in its Annual Report. The function of the Chairman and the other directors are separate. Prior to appointment any director or senior manager's backgrounds are verified where the candidate is not known personally by the Chair or other directors.

The Chair undertakes all induction of new directors and regularly reviews the skills of each director and arranges professional development where necessary.

The Company Secretary reports to the Chair on all matters concerning the Board's activities and responsibilities, including the:

- advising the Board and its committees on governance matters;
- monitoring that Board and committee policy and procedures are followed;
- timely completion and despatch of Board and committee papers;
- ensuring business at Board and committee meetings is accurately captured in the minutes; and
- assist with the induction and professional development of directors.

During FY2022 the majority of the Board were non-executive directors. The Board consists of two non-Executive Directors (Mr Rezos and Mr Moore) and one Executive Director (Mr Poole). Upon the appointment of Mr Moore as non-executive director in July 2021, the majority of the board were then independent at that time.

While the Company has awarded performance-based remuneration, as detailed in its Annual Reports, to members of the Board, this is not considered to have raised issues of independence in the Board's decision making due to the size of the award in relation to directors' other personal interests.

The Board is committed to having an appropriate blend of diversity on the Board. It recognises the benefits arising from Board diversity and the importance of benefiting from all available talent. Accordingly, the Company has established a diversity policy as part of the Plan.

The Plan outlines requirements for the Board to develop measurable objectives for achieving diversity and annually assess both objectives and the progress in achieving those goals. According, the Board has developed an objective regarding gender diversity of at least one third female directors or employees as director and senior executive positions as they become available.

On the appointment of Mr Daniel Moore, the Board did not meet its gender diversity goals. The Board may consider adding additional directors in the future. Aside from the Board and Company Secretary the Company has only three permanent staff members, one of which is female.

With the prior approval of the Chairman, each Director has the right to seek independent legal and professional advice at the Company's expense concerning any aspect of the Company's operations or undertakings in order to fulfil their duties and responsibilities as Directors.

Principle 3: Instil a culture of acting lawfully, ethically and responsibly

The Board believes in and supports lawful, ethical and responsible decision making. The Company's values are contained in the Corporate Code of Conduct.

The Board endeavours to ensure that the Directors, officers and employees of the Company act with integrity and observe the highest standards of behaviour and business ethics in relation to their corporate activities.

Specifically, that Directors, officers and employees must:

- comply with the law;
- act in the best interests of the Company;
- be responsible and accountable for their actions; and
- observe the ethical principles of fairness, honesty and truthfulness, including disclosure of potential conflicts.

The Company's Plan includes policies regarding Directors and employees trading in its securities is set by the Board. The policies adopted restricts Directors and employees from acting on material information until it has been released to the market and adequate time has been given for this to be reflected in the security's prices.

Material breaches of the Corporate Code of Conduct need to be reported to the Board.

The Company has in place policies in respect of whistle-blowers and anti-bribery and anti-corruption which are available on the Company's web site. All material incidents are to be reported to the Board, none were noted during FY2022.

Principle 4: Safeguard integrity in corporate reporting

During the financial year the Board decided that the functions of an Audit and Risk committee should be assumed by the full board until the company had further progressed its development. The function of an Audit and Risk Committee to provide a forum for the effective communication between the Board and the external auditors are therefore available to all directors.

In fulfilling this function the Board reviews:

- the annual and half yearly financial report;
- the effectiveness of management information systems and systems of internal control; and
- the efficiency and effectiveness of the external audit function.

The Board requests the Company's external auditor attend the annual general meeting and be available to answer shareholder questions about conduct of the audit, and the preparation and content of the auditor's report.

The Board reviews all releases made to ASX, with particular emphasis on those that are not subject to external audit review or audit, such as the quarterly cash flow statements. Information provided in those releases is compared to regular board reporting and inquires to ensure accuracy.

Principle 5: Make timely and balance disclosure

The Board and Company Secretary are appointed as the parties responsible for communications with the ASX. They are also responsible for ensuring compliance with the continuous disclosure requirements in the ASX listing rules and overseeing and coordinating information disclosure to the ASX.

The Board is responsible for the communications strategy to promote effective communications with shareholders and encourage effective participation at general meetings. The Company adheres to best practice in its preparation of notices of meetings to ensure all shareholders are fully informed.

The Board is emailed copies of all releases made to ASX by the Company Secretary immediately upon confirmation of their release. Investor updates are released to ASX prior to being presented.

Principle 6: Respect rights of security holders

As part of the Board's commitment to the highest standards of conduct, the Company adopts a code of conduct to guide executives, management and employees in carrying out their duties and responsibilities.

The code of conduct covers such matters as:

- responsibilities to shareholders;
- compliance with laws and regulations;
- relations with customers and suppliers;
- ethical responsibilities;
- employment practices; and
- Responsibilities to the environment and the community.

The Company has adopted a Shareholder Communications Strategy which aims to promote and facilitate effective two-way communication with investors. The Strategy outlines a range of ways in which information is communicated to shareholders and is available on the Company's website as part of the Company's Plan.

Shareholders are encouraged to participate at all general meetings and AGMs of the Company and such participation is facilitated by the share registry. Upon the despatch of any notice of meeting to Shareholders, the Company Secretary shall send out material stating that all Shareholders are encouraged to participate at the meeting.

The Shareholder Communication Strategy provides that security holders can register with the Company to receive email notifications when an announcement is made by the Company to the ASX, including the release of the Annual Report, half yearly reports and quarterly reports. Links are made available to the Company's website on which all information provided to the ASX is immediately posted.

All shareholder resolutions during FY2022 were conducted by poll.

Principle 7: Recognise and manage risk

The Board is responsible for the Company's system of internal controls. The Board constantly monitors the operation and financial aspects of the Company's activities and considers the recommendations and advice of external auditors and other external advisers on the operations and financial risks that face the Company.

The Board ensures that recommendations made by the external auditors and other external advisers are investigated and, where considered necessary, appropriate action is taken to ensure that the Company has an appropriate internal control environment in place to manage the key risks identified.

In addition, the Board investigates ways of enhancing risk management strategies, including appropriate segregation of duties and the employment and training of suitably qualified and experienced personnel.

Principle 8: Remunerate fairly and responsibly

During the financial year the Board decided that the functions of a Remuneration Committee/Nomination Committee would be undertaken by the full Board until the company had further progressed its development. The function of a Remuneration Committee/Nomination Committee to provide a forum for the decision making on employment and remuneration issues is therefore available to all directors.

The Board reviews the remuneration policies applicable to all Directors and Executive Officers on an as needed basis. Remuneration packages, which consist of base salary, fringe benefits, incentive schemes (including performance related bonuses), superannuation, and entitlements upon retirement or termination, are reviewed with due regard to performance and other relevant factors.

In order to retain and attract executives of sufficient calibre to facilitate the efficient and effective management of the Company's operations, the Remuneration Nomination Committee occasionally seeks the advice of external advisors in connection with the structure of remuneration packages.

- salary and associated superannuation;
- fixed directors fees; and
- performance based bonuses.

Non-Executive Directors previously received fixed directors' fees only, and did not participate in any performance-based remuneration. The Chairman, Mr Rezos was awarded share options during a prior financial year as detailed in the Annual Report. As these options are nearing the end of their life, a new proposal as detailed in a notice of meeting was put to shareholders to align directors and shareholders interests.

Fixed directors' fees may be paid in the form of cash, share options or a combination of both. Share options are issued on similar terms to previous issues by the entity and are in lieu of cash, not based on performance of the entity.

Full remuneration disclosure, including superannuation entitlements, are contained in the Directors Report. The Board ensures that all equity based executive remuneration is made within the guidelines set by plans approved by Shareholders. Directors are under an obligation to disclose all personal interests in the Company's securities in accordance with the Board Charter. A Trading Policy sets out requirements for buying and selling of the Company's securities.

The Board considers the appointment and retirement of non-executive directors on a case-by-case basis. In doing so, the Board must take into account the requirements of Listing Rules and the Corporations Act 2001. Currently all Directors are required to be re-elected at least every three years, and at least one-third of Directors must retire at each Annual General Meeting.

This process also includes ongoing evaluation of the performance of the Board and its individuals according to the goals, objectives and primary responsibilities of each director.
