Beth Appleton, Jaxsta's Chief Executive Officer commented: "We are thrilled with Paul's investment and the confidence shown in Jaxsta, as well as our ongoing relationship with Songtradr. The Jaxsta platform continues to evolve with the business gaining great momentum this year. We have only scratched the surface with regard to the full potential of our platform and data. We look forward to delivering a product offering that we believe will transform the company."

Paul Wiltshire adds 'Jaxsta has a long journey ahead and I'm excited to be a part of that journey. I've been impressed by the progress made so far this year, the leadership of Beth Appleton and the potential of the company. Jaxsta is uniquely positioned with its unparalleled supplier relationships, data and platform."

Jacqui Louez Schoorl, Jaxsta Founder commented: "This transaction enables a new significant investor, Paul Wiltshire, to show his further commitment and belief in Jaxsta, our team and the overall vision of the company. Both Louis and I are in support of this show of confidence from Paul. The Jaxsta team, our CEO Beth, the Board, our investors, including Songtradr and Paul, are critical contributors to the future success of the company. I'm very proud to have been one of the founders of Jaxsta, and led Jaxsta through its development years, and I remain as excited about the Company today as I was at its inception. My continued support and belief in Jaxsta remains as strong as ever."
