

Quarterly Activities Report for the period ending 30th September 2022

Austpac Resources NL (Austpac or the company) (ASX:APG) is pleased to provide an update on its quarterly activities for the period ending 30 September 2022.

The Company is currently in voluntary suspension. Refer to company's ASX announcement on the 17th June 2021. The suspension will remain in force pending the satisfactory resolution of ASX's queries in relation to certain prior issues of securities with occurred in the period between 2016 and 2019 and other Listing Rule matters.

The Company's primary activities for the reporting period were:

- Finalising an application to the Federal Court to seek declaratory relief in relation to certain prior share issues that occurred between 2016 and 2019.
- Completed follow up testing for the EPA.
- Continuing discussions with steel mills to finance and construct a pilot plant to assess the ZIRP technology's commercial suitability for their steel mill waste stream.
- Continuing discussions with overseas companies interested in assisting the advancement of the Company's ZIRP technology.
- Pursuing an agreement to raise funds to pursue new opportunities which complement its current line of activities.

Voluntary Suspension from the Australian Stock Exchange

As noted above Austpac entered into voluntary suspension of trading its securities on the 17th June 2021 pending satisfactory resolution of queries from the ASX in relation to various prior issues of securities by the Company that occurred in the period between 2016 – 2019.

A hearing date for the issues of securities by the company has been set down for the 31st January 2023.

EPA requests Austpac Resources to complete further testing of Newcastle site.

Austpac completed a preliminary assessment report for the EPA. This was sent to the EPA in Mid-January 2022. The EPA requested Austpac to complete further test work on the Newcastle site and return a report to the EPA by the 2nd September 2022. The Follow up report requested by the EPA was completed on time and was submitted to the EPA for review. As of the date of this quarterly the EPA has not commented on the reports findings.

Zinc Iron Recovery Process (ZIRP)

The Company demonstrated in 2019 that its ZIRP technology is capable of producing a quality Zinc oxide and iron product from steel mill waste stream.

The Company simplified the process as the customer base sought a process that did not require Spent Pickle liquor. Subsequently the company is in discussions with several parties on building a pilot plant to prove up the process commercially and produce a commercially acceptable product.

The market in Australia for Zinc Oxide is approx. 40,000 tonnes per year. Australia currently imports 7- 8,000 tonnes of Zinc Oxide annually.

Austpac remains in discussion with a couple of local companies and overseas companies who are investigating the potential use of ZIRP technology within their market.

Nhill Exploration – EL 5291

On the 30th September 2022 the company notified the market that the license EL5291 had expired and Austpac Resources was to finalise its reporting requirements to the Department of Jobs Precincts and regions. The final report was completed and submitted on the 11th October 2022

Mining exploration entity or oil and gas exploration entity quarterly cash flow report

8.8 If item 8.7 is less than 2 quarters, please provide answers to the following questions:

8.8.1 Does the entity expect that it will continue to have the current level of net operating cash flows for the time being and, if not, why not?

Answer: The recent September quarter included numerous exceptional payments (1.8 - $28,000 and $10,000) and annual payment of ASX listing fees (1.2(d) - $27,500). The above cash payments are unlikely to reoccur in the following two quarters. Management has estimated cash expenditures of around $30,000 per month from hereon.

8.8.2 Has the entity taken any steps, or does it propose to take any steps, to raise further cash to fund its operations and, if so, what are those steps and how likely does it believe that they will be successful?

Answer: The company has received proposals from financial institutions to fund projects for the business, subject to finalising Federal Court hearing. These proposals are currently under review and consideration.

8.8.3 Does the entity expect to be able to continue its operations and to meet its business objectives and, if so, on what basis?

Answer: The business expects to continue its operations base on the future estimated cash expenditure of $30,000 per month and plans to raise additional funds for the business - as noted in 2 above.

Note: where item 8.7 is less than 2 quarters, all of questions 8.8.1, 8.8.2 and 8.8.3 above must be answered.
