24 January 2023 – Mercury has announced that Chief Marketing Officer, Julia Jack, will leave the company before the end of April.

Ms Jack joined Mercury in 2016 to assist the transition to a single brand, with additional responsibility for the sales and marketing functions.

“Julia has been instrumental in the ongoing evolution of the Mercury brand and our enhanced programme of customer experience and offerings, which have been key elements of our growth ambitions,” says Mercury Chief Executive Vince Hawksworth.

“I’d like to extend my thanks to Julia for the contributions she has made to Mercury and wish her all the very best for the future.”

Ms Jack leaves to take up an executive role with Kiwibank, subject to RBNZ approval.
