

ASX: LML

22nd February 2023

Appointment of Exploration Manager

Lincoln Minerals Limited (ASX:LML) is delighted to announce that Chris Taylor has joined Lincoln Minerals as Exploration Manager. Chris will be leading the company's exploration and drilling program going forward having taken over from Dwayne Povey who has been with the company for 16 years, and who is pursuing another role within the industry. Chris joins Lincoln Minerals at an exciting time following the successful re-listing on the ASX and with a fully funded drilling program for 2023.

Chris holds a Bachelor of Science (Hons) with a major in Geology from Melbourne University and MBA from Deakin University. Chris brings over 25 years of international experience as a professional incorporating mining, exploration, and senior level project management with ASX listed companies and junior explorers. During this time he has developed a variety of technical and operational project management skills.

Sam Barden CEO & MD of Lincoln Minerals commented, "Chris and I toured the company's Eyre Peninsula tenements last week including a meeting with the Department of Energy and Mines South Australia where we discussed LML's drilling program and ambitions to extract graphite from our tenements. I am delighted that Chris is joining our team as we strive to deliver the maximum value to all shareholders through the exploration and development of our assets."

Approved for release by Managing Director of Lincoln Minerals Limited.
