

CD Private Equity Fund Series: Fund 1 (ASX: CD1)

Market update

The second quarter of calendar year 2023 followed the first closely, with rising interest rates, failing banks, geopolitical uncertainty and persistent high inflation slowing the private equity (PE) markets. The US saw additional interest rate rises, meaning that the cost of borrowing and servicing debt started to become near prohibitive for otherwise attractive deals. US bank failures led to a further tightening on credit during the first half of the year, with big banks retreating on take-privates as well as the leveraged buy-out (LBO) market. In their absence, private credit funds provided a much-needed source of capital and were integral to deal flow in the PE markets during the period. Despite the assistance of the private credit funds, there has been a noticeable slow-down in PE exits, with the US numbers dropping 22.2% from Q1 2023 as buyers and sellers appear to be waiting for confidence in the future of the market.

All that said, as we closed out the second quarter we are beginning to see a deceleration in inflation as well as signs that the interest rates may be reaching their peak. Fortunately, we have begun to see big banks slowly emerge from their pause on LBO's which we are hopeful will provide more support for increased deal flow, positively impacting the CD Fund series as well as the greater market. Evidence of this positive change at the end of the quarter can be seen in the small-cap market, with the Russell 2000 Index up 5.2% for Q2 despite posting negative results in April and May.

Looking more broadly, global equities have similarly rebounded, with the MSCI World Index returning +6.7% for the quarter, and the S&P 500 performance ending the quarter strong with substantial gains achieved in June and a half-year return of +16%. Fervour surrounding generative AI has also continued to lift technology stocks as it emerges as the next big thing for tech, boosting the Nasdaq by 32% for the half-year.

Total return on original Unitholder investment ⁵		2.39x

Despite the macroeconomic conditions creating a significantly tougher and more stringent lending environment, pleasingly, there have been nine exits from the CD Fund Series (CD1, CD2, CD3, CD4) this calendar year to 30 June 2023, with three occurring in Q2 2023. Eight of the exits were profitable, with a median gross multiple on invested capital (MOIC) of 2.8x and an average hold period of 5.7 years. Further details are provided by Fund on the following pages.

Gross MOIC on 2023 Realisations
30 June 2023: CD 1 - 4^{1, 6, 7}

The payment from the sale of KnowBe4 (a CD3 & CD4 portfolio company) was distributed from the LP to the Funds during the quarter. As outlined in the Q1 2023 report, this transaction represented a healthy multiple for pre-IPO investors like CD3, with US Select Direct II, a later investor, still recording a MOIC of 3.4x on this investment.

While final Q2 2023 data is not expected to be received from the LPs until September, feedback from underlying LPs has been positive despite these macroeconomic conditions, with inflation and wage pressures are being felt unevenly throughout the portfolio, however the managers believe that these pressures are temporary. We look forward to sharing this data with Unitholders once it is received.

After fees and taxes, Q2 NTA returns for CD1, CD2, CD3 and CD4 were 0.0%, -1.3%, -2.3% and -0.7% respectively^{1,3}, with FX movement (AUD:USD) having an insignificant impact on total returns for the quarter (-0.3%).

CD1 to CD4 have now returned via distributions 1.66x, 1.29x, 1.04x and 0.20x, respectively, on initial Unitholder investment^{1, 5}. As at 30 June 2023, CD1 to CD4 have achieved returns of 2.39x, 2.27x, 2.23x and 1.64x on initial Unitholders investment^{1, 5}, respectively.

Note from K2 Asset Management Ltd (K2)

We are delighted to have been appointed as the Responsible Entity (RE) for the CD Fund Series and to be able to present this quarterly report to Unitholders. Following the CD3 and CD4 distributions both paid in June, we have listened to Unitholder feedback and upon consultation with the Investment Manager post quarter end we have announced a distribution for CD1 and CD2 of $0.11 (details here) and $0.195 (details here) per Unit respectively.

Beyond these distributions, we are excited to meet with Unitholders and look to host a webinar at the end of Q3 2023, as well as in-person presentations in early 2024. In the meantime, Unitholders are encouraged to reach out to our Investor Relations team via email at cdfunds@k2am.com.au, or on +61 3 9691 6110.

Regards,
Jonathan Cordish, Jonathan Sinex and K2

Quarterly fund activity

- During the quarter, the LP received three capital calls totalling US$360,000 to fund additional investments and underlying investment management fees.
- Overall activity in the LP was subdued during the quarter, however the LP did receive distribution totalling US$2.25 million from two underlying LPs. US$2.1 million of this was related to the realisation of two portfolio companies – Precision Machining Group and PeopleShare – by Trivest Fund V, L.P. Precision Machining Group was acquired by Trivest in 2014, and during the investment period they completed multiple add-on acquisitions and drove significant organic growth. Similarly, during its partnership with Trivest, PeopleShare more than tripled its number of branches through new openings and acquisitions, navigated the COVID-19 Pandemic and ultimately achieved record revenue and earnings during 2022.

- As at 30 June 2023 the Fund remained invested in six underlying LPs, as well as US Select Direct I. As was outlined in the 31 March 2023 full-year accounts, the Fund's committed capital has been fully called.
- As at 30 June 2023, there was $3.5 million in the Fund's cash account, and the Fund's proportionate interest in the LP's cash account was US$5.1 million.
- The RE and the Investment Manager have worked to evaluate the most efficient means of returning surplus funds. Following quarter end, the RE has announced a distribution to Unitholders to the value of 11 cents per Unit. This distribution is expected to be paid on 8 September 2023. Further detail can be found here.
- Following receipt of this distribution, on an absolute return basis, the Fund will have returned a total of $2.77 to Unitholders since inception, or 1.73x original Unitholder investment⁵, and the Fund will have distributed a total of $0.33, or 21% of the original Unitholder investment⁵ since 30 June 2022.

CD Private Equity Fund Series

The CD Private Equity Fund Series, including CD Private Equity Fund I (ASX: CD1), CD Private Equity Fund II (ASX: CD2), CD Private Equity Fund III (ASX: CD3), and CD Private Equity Fund IV (CD4) (together, Funds or Fund Series), is a series of private equity funds focused on US small-cap private equity funds and direct company investments. The Fund Series investments are selected by a joint venture between the private investment arm of the Cordish Companies of Baltimore, Maryland, and E&P Funds with underlying investments managed by experienced private equity fund managers.

This venture is anchored in the belief that smaller and nimbler private equity funds materially outperform larger private equity funds. The Fund Series was formed to provide investors with a platform to invest in a portfolio of high quality small to mid-market private equity funds and companies – a strategy that is typically beyond the reach of all but the largest endowment funds and family offices.

The Fund Series also provides investors with the opportunity to benefit from the Cordish Family Office's experience and network in investing in specialist small to mid-market private equity funds and direct equity investments in the US, as well as to invest side-by-side and on equal terms with the Cordish family in these compelling opportunities.

Investment objectives

The General Partner and Investment Manager will seek to meet each Fund's aim of providing Unitholders with exposure to a portfolio of investments in small and mid-market private investment funds and privately held companies predominantly focused in the US; and capital growth over the medium to long term.
