Appointment of Chief Financial Officer

Nanosonics Limited (ASX: NAN) today announced the appointment of Jason Burriss as Chief Financial Officer (CFO), effective 3 October 2023.

Jason is an experienced Chief Financial Officer with a 25-year career spanning healthcare, financial services, and construction over four continents. Jason performed senior finance roles with General Electric (GE) for 15 years, notably CFO for GE Healthcare Australia & New Zealand.

More recently, Jason held several international CFO roles for the Hilti Group over 6 years. During this time, Jason built the return-on-investment strategy for South Asia Pacific before relocating from Singapore to Dubai to focus on growth with distribution partners across more than 50 countries in the Middle East, Turkey, and Africa.

Jason holds a Bachelor of Commerce from the University of Western Sydney, is a member of the Institute of Chartered Accountants Australia and New Zealand and attained executive education in Strategic Financial Analysis from Harvard Business School, USA.

"We look forward to welcoming Jason to our leadership team. Jason is an outstanding finance executive with proven commercial and operational success internationally across multiple industries including healthcare", said Michael Kavanagh, CEO & President.

"It is a privilege to join Nanosonics at such an exciting time as the Company expands its product portfolio and international presence. I look forward to helping the Company execute on its strategic growth agenda and continue to create value for all its stakeholders", said Mr Burriss.
