Corporate Governance Statement

About this statement

Our corporate governance framework, policies and practices, as described in this Statement, are designed to deliver our strategy and enable us to effectively manage risks and assure compliance. We are committed to doing business in accordance with high standards of corporate governance expected by our shareholders, communities, and wider society, and promote stakeholder confidence and trust.

In an environment of rising expectations about the role of companies in society, we understand the need to consider our strategy through an informed view of evolving societal trends and values. The Board has adopted a system of internal controls, a risk management framework and corporate governance policies, standards and practices, which are designed to support and promote the responsible management and conduct of Core's business.

This Corporate Governance Statement describes Core's key corporate governance policies and practices during the FY23 reporting period through to the date of this report. The work of our Board and its Committees in FY23, as discussed in the following pages, reflects our continued oversight of the integration of environmental, social and governance considerations into our strategic discussions, business decisions, risk management and governance framework.

Our governance practices are aligned with the recommendations of the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Principles and Recommendations (ASX Principles and Recommendations) available at <https://www2.asx.com.au/>.

Further information about Core's key governance practices and governance materials including our charters, policies and standards are available on the Corporate Governance section of our website at <https://corelithium.com.au/corporate-governance>.

Core Lithium is an Australian hard-rock lithium mining company that owns and operates the Finnis Lithium Operation on the Cox Peninsula, south-west and 88km by sealed road from the Darwin Port, Northern Territory. Core's vision is to generate sustained value for shareholders from critical minerals exploration and mining projects underpinned by strong environmental, safety and social standards.

Finniss Lithium Project Northern Territory

The Core Lithium Board

A highly credentialed Board with a diversity of background, skills and perspectives is essential to create an environment that enables effective support and delivery of good governance.

Core aspires to have a Board comprised of individuals, appointed on merit, with diverse experience and expertise and continues to consider the expansion of skills and diversity of its membership, as and where appropriate.

Greg English

Non-Executive Chair

Mr English has served as Core Lithium's Chair since 10 September 2010. He is an independent director who is not and has not previously held the role of Managing Director or CEO of the Company.

Heath Hellewell

Non-Executive Director

Mr Hellewell has been a Non-executive Director at Core Lithium since 15 September 2014. He is an independent director and chair of the Nomination and Remuneration Committee.

Malcolm McComas

Non-Executive Director

Mr McComas has been a Non-executive Director at Core Lithium since 17 October 2019. He is an independent director and chair of the Audit and Risk committee.

Andrea Hall

Non-Executive Director

Ms Hall has been a Non-executive Director at Core Lithium since 18 May 2023. She is an independent director.

All members of Core's Board qualify as "independent" for the purpose of ASX Recommendation 2.3, and are independent of management and free of any business or other relationship which could materially interfere or could reasonably be perceived to interfere materially with the Director's independent exercise of their judgement.

As the business develops, changes to and/or further appointments to the Board may be warranted and the Board will consider the need to appoint additional independent directors.

The experience of the Directors is included in their biographies in the Directors' Report section of Core's FY23 Annual Report (pages 55–56) as well as on the Board and Management Team page on the Company website.

Our management and oversight foundations

Corporate Governance Statement

The role of the Core Lithium Board is to maintain and build Core's capacity to deliver sustainable total shareholder return in a manner consistent with its values.

Key responsibilities

The full roles and responsibilities are set out in the Board Charter and include:

- Oversight of control and accountability systems designed to ensure appropriate health, safety, environment and community obligations standards are met
- Appointing and removing executive management and, determining their terms and conditions of engagements including the remuneration framework
- Monitoring and assessing management's development, implementing strategies, business plans, budgets and objectives, and ensuring sufficient resources are available for those purposes
- Ensuring systems are in place to facilitate the effective management of the principal risks to the Company
- Ensuring adequate reporting systems and internal controls (both financial and operational), codes of conduct and legal compliance systems are in place, and monitoring them
- Approving and monitoring the progress of major capital expenditure, capital management, and acquisitions and divestitures
- Protecting the Company's financial position and its ability to meet its debts and other obligations
- Ensuring that the Company's accounts comply with relevant accounting standards and present a true and fair view
- Approving business plans and budgets and monitoring performance against them
- Approving and monitoring the progress of capital expenditure, capital management and material acquisitions and divestments
- Overseeing the continuous disclosure process to ensure timely and balanced disclosures and ensuring that the Company has an effective process for communicating with shareholders, other stakeholders and the public
- Approving and monitoring financial and other reporting

- Annually assessing the independence of Directors (having regard to the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations with respect to independence)
- Approving the issue of shares or other securities in Core
- Monitoring the effectiveness of governance practices generally

The roles and responsibilities of the Core Lithium Board, management, and matters expressly reserved to the Board, and matters delegated to management – among other things – are set out in our Board Charter which can be viewed on the Core Lithium website.

The Board Chair

During the reporting period, the Board was Chaired by Greg English – an independent director who is not and has not previously held the role of Managing Director or CEO of the Company.

The role of the Chair is set out in the Board Charter and includes:

- Approving the agenda of matters to be considered by the Board and convening Board meetings as necessary or appropriate
- Managing the conduct, frequency and length of Board meetings so as to ensure that the Board maintains an in-depth understanding of Core's performance and the opportunities and strategic issues it faces
- Facilitating constructive and respectful communications between Directors and between the Board and management
- Annually implementing a review of the performance of the Board as a whole

Election and appointment/reappointment of Board members

Core Lithium has an established protocol to verify a potential Board member's character, including relevant experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history.

Before the appointment of a person as a senior executive, and before putting forward a candidate for election as a director to shareholders, the Company undertakes a series of checks it believes are appropriate and necessary to inform its decision, and endeavours to provide shareholders with all of the relevant material information in its possession that informed its decision on the election/re-election of a Director.

In line with Core's policies and practices, the Company has and will continue to undertake relevant and appropriate checks to ensure the character, experience, education, and financial and criminal record of all future Board members are suited to its aims and purposes.

Directors' induction and professional development

All new directors are provided with an induction including meetings with the Chief Executive Officer and senior executives/management as appropriate and provided with appropriate information including Company and Board policies and other material documents.

All directors are expected to maintain the skills required to effectively discharge their obligations to the Company. Directors are encouraged to undertake continuing professional education and, if this involves industry seminars and approved education courses, where appropriate, this is paid for by the Company.

Individual, written agreements with directors and senior executives

Each director and senior executive at Core Lithium has entered an individual written agreement with the Company that sets out the key terms and conditions of their appointment including their duties, rights and responsibilities.

Board committees

Appointments

During the reporting period, Core appointed the following Non-Executive Director:

- Andrea Hall (18 May 2023)

Company Secretary

During the reporting period, Jarek Kopias served as Company Secretary. Mr Kopias has served as Company Secretary since 2011.

The Company Secretary advises, is accountable, and has a direct line of reporting to the Company Chair. The Company Secretary supports the Chair, the Board and its committees to manage the Company's day-to-day governance, assist the Board through monitoring and ensuring applicable policies, procedures and charters are followed, and to coordinate timely completion and dissemination of Board agendas and papers.

The Company Secretary also assists with all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board – including advising on governance matters and assisting with induction and professional development of directors.

Audit and Risk Committee

Core Lithium's Audit and Risk Committee is comprised of its four Non-Executive Directors. The committee is chaired by independent director, Malcolm McComas, who is not the Board's Chair.

Audit and Risk Committee

Number of meetings: 3

Individual director attendance
Malcolm McComas	3 of 3
Greg English	3 of 3
Heath Hellewell	3 of 3
Stephen Biggins	2 of 2

Roles and responsibilities of the Audit and Risk Committee include:

- Assisting the Board in its oversight of the integrity of the Company's financial statements, the Company's compliance with legal and regulatory requirements and corporate policies and controls, the process for the external auditor's selection, retention, qualifications, objectivity and independence
- Assisting the Board by reviewing the financial information that will be provided to the shareholders and others, the systems of internal controls that management and the Board have established, and the audit process
- Reviewing the Company's risk management framework at least annually to satisfy itself that it continues to be sound and to determine whether there have been any changes in the material business risks the Company faces and to ensure that they remain within the risk appetite set by the Board.

Nomination and Remuneration committee

The Board's Nomination and Remuneration Committee is chaired by independent Non-Executive Director Heath Hellewell and is comprised of the board's other independent non-executive directors.

Nomination and Remuneration Committee

Number of meetings: 3

Individual director attendance
Heath Hellewell	3 of 3
Greg English	3 of 3
Malcolm McComas	3 of 3

The Committee carries out reviews to determine appropriate remuneration levels across the Company. The Committee seeks to retain professional services as it requires, at reasonable market rates, and seeks external advice and market comparisons where necessary.

The Company's policies and practices regarding the remuneration of non-executive directors and the remuneration of executive directors and other senior executives is set out in the Remuneration Report contained in the 2023 Annual Report.

The Company has an equity-based remuneration scheme. The Company's Securities Trading Policy provides that participants in the scheme must not enter into any transaction which would have the effect of hedging or otherwise transferring to any other person the risk of any fluctuation in the value of any unvested equity interest.

Sustainability and Risk committee

The Sustainability and Risk committee is chaired by independent Non-Executive Director Andrea Hall and is comprised of the board's other independent Non-Executive Directors. The committee was established following the end of the reporting period.

Board, committee and individual director performance

Corporate Governance Statement

Core Lithium is committed to the responsible evaluation of the Board's, its committees and individual director's performance.

Annual self-assessment evaluations are conducted and managed by the Company Secretary at the direction of the Chair.

From time to time, and as deemed necessary, the Company, at the direction of the Chair, may undertake to have its performance evaluation process facilitated externally by an appropriately qualified service provider.

The review of the Board's performance also addresses the ability for directors to access continuing education to update and enhance their skills and knowledge as they relate to the Company's strategy and objectives.

During the reporting period the Board undertook an evaluation of its membership, developed a new skills matrix and recruited an additional independent non-executive director, Andrea Hall.

Assessing senior executive performance

The Board recognises the need for flexibility in defining performance objectives to reflect the current status of the company as an emerging lithium producer, and the development of its projects. Where appropriate, the Board sets performance benchmarks and assesses the achievement of individual performance objectives.

The Chief Executive Officer reviews the performance of the senior executives on a regular basis, and at least once annually, to assess criteria such as achievement and performance towards the Company's objectives.

The right skillset and experience

The Board regularly evaluates the mix of skills, experience and diversity at the Board level. Core established a new skills matrix in FY23 to assess the demonstrable skills and experience of the directors across several criteria deemed relevant to their position on the board.

1 Knowledgeable

A Director has knowledge and an understanding of the area, and as part of their Non-Executive and/or current or past Executive roles has experience delivering objectives.

2 Skilled

A Director has expertise and knowledge in the area with some level of responsibility and oversight in the area as part of their current or past Executive roles.

3 Highly Skilled

A Director has deep expertise and knowledge in the area and has a track record of successfully delivering objectives in the area as part of their current or past Executive roles with full responsibility and oversight.

Our people are our greatest asset

Safety

The safety and health of our people, the environment and community come first

Community

We are proud members of the communities in which we operate

Integrity

We are committed to acting with integrity, transparency and the responsible treatment of employees

Partnership

We are committed to fair dealing with partners and contractors, and positive interaction with the community

Core Lithium's Code of Conduct sets out the standards of behaviour expected of all its employees, directors, officers, contractors and consultants.

Core Lithium has a Whistleblower Policy. Any material incidents reported under that policy are reported to the board.

Core Lithium has an Anti-bribery and Corruption Policy. Any material incidents reported under that policy are reported to the board.

Inclusion and Diversity

Core Lithium believes that decision-making is enhanced through diversity and supports and encourages diversity at all levels of the organisation. The Company values diversity and difference, and prioritises acting without prejudice and treatment of all people with fairness and respect.

Achieving a workplace where people can bring different ideas and perspectives to solve business challenges is fundamental to Core's ability to perform at its best and deliver on commitments to shareholder value.

Gender diversity

Core Lithium strives to provide the best possible opportunities for current and prospective employees of all backgrounds, across all levels of the business, and in a way that reflects the values, principles and spirit of our Diversity Policy while contributing to overall shareholder value.

Gender diversity

Core Lithium strives to provide the best possible opportunities for current and prospective employees of all backgrounds, across all levels of the business, and in a way that reflects the values, principles and spirit of our Diversity Policy while contributing to overall shareholder value.

The Board reviews, at least annually, the relative proportion of women and men appointed or employed within the Company group against key metrics, and has set, measurable gender diversity objectives aligned with Core's size and status as emerging lithium producer.

Shareholder communications

Timely and balanced disclosure

The Company uses the facility in ASX Online to automatically disseminate all lodged announcements.

The Company ensures that investor presentations are released on the ASX Market Announcements Platform ahead of each presentation.

Core Lithium's Continuous Disclosure and Communications Policy outlines the processes it follows to ensure compliance with its continuous disclosure obligations and the corporate governance standards applied by the Company in its communications to the market.

Integrity of financial reports

Before approving financial statements for a financial period, the CEO and CFO must declare to the board that, in their opinion, financial records have been properly maintained, and that statements comply with accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the Company's financial position and performance.

Any periodic corporate report released to the market by the Company that is not reviewed or audited by an external auditor undergoes a review by the Company's CFO.

Communicating with shareholders

The Investor Centre on Core Lithium's website www.corelithium.com.au is the primary way in which the Company communicates rapidly with shareholders, and the source of meaningful and current information.

The Company gives security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the Company and its security registry electronically, as provided for in the Company's Shareholder Communications Policy.

Core encourage shareholders to communicate with the Company via email.

The Continuous Disclosure and Communication Policy also sets out the Company's policies and processes in order to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.

- The Company encourages shareholders to cast their proxies prior to a General Meeting if they are unable to attend the meeting
- The Company ensures that all substantive resolutions at a meeting of security holders are decided by a poll rather than by a show of hands

- The Company gives security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the Company and its security registry electronically, as provided for in the Company's Shareholder Communications Policy

The Continuous Disclosure and Communication Policy sets out the policies and processes the Company has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders. The Company encourages shareholders to cast their proxies prior to a General Meeting if they are unable to attend the meeting.

The Continuous Disclosure and Communications Policy outlines the processes followed by the Company to ensure communication with shareholders and the investment community is effective, consistent and adheres to the principles of continuous disclosure.

Recognising and managing risk

Corporate Governance Statement

Taking and managing risks are central to any successful business building shareholder value.

Core Lithium undertakes mineral exploration, development and production activities and, as such, faces risks inherent to its business, including economic, environmental and social sustainability risks, which may materially impact the Company's ability to create or preserve value for security holders over the short, medium or long term.

Core is committed to understanding and managing risk and establishing an organisational culture that ensures risk management is included in all activities, decision making and business processes.

The Board is responsible for the identification of significant areas of business risk, and for implementing procedures to assess, monitor and manage such risks.

The Board's policies regarding the establishment and maintenance of appropriate ethical standards were developed to:

- Ensure compliance in legal, statutory and ethical matters
- Monitor the business environment, identify potential opportunities and risk areas therein
- Monitor systems established to ensure prompt and appropriate responses to Stakeholder complaints and/or enquiries

In the reporting period, the Company commenced production at the Finnis Lithium Operation and is establishing risk management processes appropriate for the business's transition from developer to miner and producer. The Board as a whole addresses individual risks as required on an ongoing basis.

Due to its size and status as an emerging lithium producer, the company does not have a formal internal risk audit function. However, the Board meets on a regular basis and reviews and monitors the parameters under which such risks will be managed.

The Company's Risk Management Policy sets the framework for risk management and review of the risk management framework, and the Company has in place an ongoing review of its safety and environmental risks and reports on this aspect to the Board on a monthly basis.

The ongoing mitigation and management of key business risks is addressed by the Board as a whole.

Operational, financial, legal, compliance, strategic and reputational risks continue to be managed primarily by the Chief Executive Officer, the Chief Financial Officer and the Chief Operating Officer as a part of the day-to-day management of the Company's affairs. Where appropriate, these risks are managed with the support of relevant external professional advisers.

¹ "Corporate governance statement" is defined in Listing Rule 19.12 to mean the statement referred to in Listing Rule 4.10.3 which discloses the extent to which an entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during a particular reporting period.

Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires an entity that is included in the official list as an ASX Listing to include in its annual report either a corporate governance statement that meets the requirements of that rule or the URL of the page on its website where such a statement is located. The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during the reporting period. If the entity has not followed a recommendation for any part of the reporting period, its corporate governance statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.4, if an entity chooses to include its corporate governance statement on its website rather than in its annual report, it must lodge a copy of the corporate governance statement with ASX at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The corporate governance statement must be current as at the effective date specified in that statement for the purposes of Listing Rule 4.10.3.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.3, an entity must also lodge with ASX a completed Appendix 4G at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The Appendix 4G serves a dual purpose. It acts as a key designed to assist readers to locate the governance disclosures made by a listed entity under Listing Rule 4.10.3 and under the ASX Corporate Governance Council's recommendations. It also acts as a verification tool for listed entities to confirm that they have met the disclosure requirements of Listing Rule 4.10.3.

The Appendix 4G is not a substitute for, and is not to be confused with, the entity's corporate governance statement. They serve different purposes and an entity must produce each of them separately.

² Tick whichever option is correct and then complete the page number(s) of the annual report, or the URL of the web page, where your corporate governance statement can be found. You can, if you wish, delete the option which is not applicable.

³ Throughout this form, where you are given two or more options to select, you can, if you wish, delete any option which is not applicable and just retain the option that is applicable. If you select an option that includes "OR" at the end of the selection and you delete the other options, you can also, if you wish, delete the "OR" at the end of the selection.
