FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

New Zealand Media and Entertainment Investor Day 2023 virtual event

AUCKLAND, 2 November 2023: NZME Limited (NZX: NZM, ASX: NZM) (“NZME”) will be holding a virtual Investor Day on Wednesday 15 November 2023 from 10am- 1pm (NZT) for investors and analysts.

CEO Michael Boggs will address investors and analysts, providing details of NZME’s performance against the strategic targets that were set in its three year strategy in 2020. He will also provide details on NZME’s revised strategy, setting the direction for the next three year period. Detailed presentations from several of NZME’s executive team will cover the company’s three strategic priorities in each division: Audio, Publishing and OneRoof.

Following the presentation, investors and analysts will have the opportunity to ask questions.

Please click here to register for the Investor Day webcast. Once registered, you will be able to access the webcast either online or by telephone. Please note, only participants who join the webcast online will be able to ask questions.

If your computer does not have a microphone, you can use the Zoom app on your smartphone or join the audio via conference call. Enter the webcast details online, then choose "Join by Phone" when you hear the audio prompt, then enter the supplied webcast ID when dialling.

A replay recording of the webcast will be available on our website after the call at:
