Overall Commentary

The Company performance for the month of October was -7.5% (after fees), underperforming the S&P/ASX Small Ordinaries Accumulation Index by 2.0%.

A brief rally at the start of the month quickly turned as geopolitical risks intensified with the ongoing war in the middle east creating uncertainty on the possibility of more widespread conflict. Added to this is the ongoing uncertainty around where the interest rate cycle will peak.

Bega Cheese (BGA.ASX), not owning Telix (TLX.ASX) and Ainsworth Game Technology (AGI.ASX) were positive contributors to relative performance. Iress (IRE.ASX), City Chic Collective (CCX.ASX) and Link Administration Holdings (LNK.ASX) were notable detractors.

Disclaimer

Spheria Emerging Companies Limited (the Company, ASX: SEC) is a listed investment company (LIC) that provides investors with access to an actively managed, Australian and New Zealand small and micro companies portfolio, designed for investors seeking capital growth and portfolio diversification. It is a confined capacity investment strategy that identifies smaller companies where the present value of cash flows can be reasonably determined and they are assessed to be trading at a discount to their intrinsic value. The smaller companies universe is more volatile and higher risk. An experienced investment manager in the small company end of the market is paramount to success, for this reason there are only a small number of listed investment companies offering access to a diversified small companies investment portfolio. Spheria Asset Management Pty Ltd (the Manager, Spheria), is the appointed investment manager and is a specialist team with a track record of navigating the higher risk opportunities at the small end of the market.
