EU Securitisation Regulation and Japanese Risk Retention Rules
It is confirmed that, as at the date of this report:
- Macquarie Bank Limited continues to retain (through its wholly owned subsidiary Boston Australia Pty Limited), as an originator for the purposes of Regulation (EU) No 2017/2402 (the "EU Securitisation Regulation"), a material net economic interest of not less than 5% in the PUMA Series 2019-1 securitisation transaction in accordance with the text of Article 6(1) of the EU Securitisation Regulation (the "Retention");
- the Retention is comprised of an interest in the first loss tranche (being the Class B Notes) in accordance with Article 6(3)(d) of the EU Securitisation Regulation;
- Macquarie Bank Limited has not disposed of, assigned, transferred or created or caused to exist any lien over its interest in Boston Australia Pty Limited or the Retention, except as permitted under the Regulation; and
- Macquarie Bank Limited has not utilised or entered into credit risk mitigation techniques, any short positions or any other hedge against the credit risk of its interest in the Retention, except as permitted under the EU Securitisation Regulation.
While the retention referred to above is being implemented for the purpose of Article 6 of the EU Securitisation Regulation, it may also satisfy some or all of the requirements of the rules and regulatory capital requirements with respect to the investment by certain Japanese financial institutions in securitisations transactions as published on 15 March 2019 by the Japanese Financial Services Agency (the Japanese Risk Retention Rule). However, none of Macquarie Bank Limited, Macquarie Securitisation Limited, the Manager, the Issuer Trustee, the Security Trustee, the Arranger, any Joint Lead Manager or any other person makes any statement or representation in relation to the application of the Japanese Risk Retention Rule to the PUMA Series 2019-1 transaction and in particular the regulatory capital consequences under the Japanese Risk Retention Rule for any person who invests in or holds any interest in any Notes, and investors (or prospective investors) should make their own independent investigation and seek their own independent advice (i) as to the scope and applicability of the Japanese Risk Retention Rule; (ii) as to the sufficiency of the information described in this report and the Information Memorandum for the PUMA Series 2019-1 transaction and (iii) as to the compliance with the Japanese Risk Retention Rule in respect of any transaction contemplated by this report or the Information Memorandum for the PUMA Series 2019-1 transaction.
