
8 December 2023

Appointment of Chief Financial Officer

JCURVE SOLUTIONS LIMITED (ASX: JCS) (Jcurve), the business transformation technology company, is pleased to announce the appointment of Mr. Anton Posthumus as Chief Financial Officer (CFO).

Mr. Posthumus will commence service on 2 January 2024 and be based in the Sydney office.

Mr. Posthumus holds a Bachelor of Commerce in Accounting from the University of Johannesburg and is a member of Chartered Accountants Australia & New Zealand. Mr. Posthumus was previously the Group Financial Controller of SMS Healthcare Pty Ltd and prior to that held a number of group finance leadership roles in large international groups including Etex South Africa Building Systems Pty Limited. Mr. Posthumus started his career with PriceWaterhouse Coopers in South Africa.

Speaking on the appointment, Mr. Chris King, CEO of Jcurve, commented "I am delighted that Anton will be joining the team as CFO. He is a driven and results oriented finance leader and I look forward to his assistance in growing Jcurve strongly through the coming years."

This announcement has been authorised for release by the Board of Jcurve Solutions Limited.

About Jcurve

Jcurve works collaboratively with ambitious organisations to drive growth through the effective use of technology. Serving as a trusted guide in an on-demand world, Jcurve helps build growing and resilient organisations to withstand market disruption.

From business management solutions and consulting services to field service management and digital marketing services – Jcurve is uniquely positioned to help organisations on their business transformation journey.

For more information, please visit www.jcurvesolutions.com.