Markets Announcements Office ASX Limited

Response to Media

On 27 December 2023, Eagers Automotive Limited (ASX: APE) entered into trading halt to enable it to manage its continuous disclosure obligations in relation to a cyber incident of which it had just become aware.

The company notes certain media commentary in relation to the cyber incident.

The outage is currently impacting our IT systems in some operating locations across Australia and New Zealand, but the full extent of the cyber incident cannot yet be ascertained. The company apologises to our customers for any inconvenience.

External experts have been appointed to support our response and an urgent investigation is underway. The security and privacy of our customer and employee data is our highest priority. The company has notified the Australian Cyber Security Centre and the New Zealand National Cyber Security Centre.

The company will remain in trading halt and intends to issue tomorrow a further ASX announcement in compliance with Listing Rule 3.1.
