CARETEQ RECEIVES $1.09M R&D REFUND

Careteq Limited (ASX: CTQ) is pleased to announce that its cash position has been bolstered by the receipt of $1,093,095.55 from the Australian Taxation Office under the federal government's Research and Development (R&D) Tax Incentive program for FY23.

The tax refund relates to the R&D activities undertaken by Careteq in FY23. This includes expanding and scaling up its Assistive Living Technology and Medication Management solutions, which are gaining good traction with channel partners and customers in Australia, and New Zealand and the United States.

The funds received will be used to repay an outstanding R&D loan of ~$770k with net proceeds of ~$320k added to working capital.

This ASX announcement has been authorised by the Board of Careteq Limited (ASX: CTQ)

About Careteq Limited (ASX: CTQ)

Careteq Limited (ASX: CTQ) is an Australian-headquartered Healthtech company that has developed and commercialised a proprietary Assistive Living Technology platform. The company is now using its early-mover advantage in the Assistive Living Technology sector to revolutionise aged and disability care across the globe.

Careteq's revenues are derived from assistive passive technology products powered by Sofihub. The product suite on the Careteq Assistive Living Technology platform delivers better quality of life and productivity outcomes to a broad-based target addressable market, comprised of both patients (the elderly, disabled and vulnerable individuals), and their carers.

Careteq provides a range of solutions including continuous non-invasive monitoring, fall detection and mobile alarms. Careteq products are today widely available through their online store, industry leading distributors and specialist retailers, both in Australia and overseas.
