DETAILS OF DISTRIBUTION REINVESTMENT PLAN

Equity Trustees Limited (ABN 46 004 031 298, AFSL 240975) (the Responsible Entity) established the distribution reinvestment plan rules (DRP Rules) on 26 September 2018 under which unit holders may elect to receive additional units instead of cash distributions.

Unit holders may elect by electronic DRP election to join the DRP or vary the level of participation in the DRP. The last date for electing into the DRP in respect of a distribution is 5.00pm (Sydney time) on the first business day after the record date.

The Responsible Entity makes distributions on a monthly basis. In accordance with the DRP Rules, units are issued at the net asset value of a unit or other unit application price determined under the Fund's Constitution, on the record date. The record date is the 2nd business day of each month. For each of the distributions during the reporting period, units have been bought on-market equivalent to the number of DRP units issued to unitholders (who have made the DRP election) in accordance with the DRP Rules so that there is a net nil impact on units outstanding from the DRP.

UNITS BUY-BACK PLAN

On 4 March 2022, the Responsible Entity and the Investment Manager exercised their discretion to commence a buy-back to purchase Fund's units on-market with a view to addressing any unsatisfied liquidity in the units or any material discount in the price at which the units may have been trading to the NAV per unit.

The buy-backs have been in accordance with the Fund's Constitution, ASX Listing Rules and all applicable laws. The number of units bought back will not exceed 10% of the smallest number of units on issue in the Fund during the 12 months prior to the buy-back, unless otherwise approved by ordinary resolution of unit holders. Units purchased by the Responsible Entity on behalf of the Fund under the buy-back are immediately cancelled.

The buy-back program ended on 17 March 2023. The final buy-back notification was issued on 20 March 2023.

- Over the period, we increased exposure to Consumer Goods, Media and Leisure and reduced positioning in the Technology & Electronics, Automotive and Telecommunications sectors.
- The Strategy has maintained the majority of its exposure to BB and B rated investments.

Ratings Weight

Market Context

- The global high yield bond market finished the six months ended 31 December 2023 with strong returns driven by risk-on sentiment as spreads tightened and markets priced in rate cuts for 2024 despite resilient economic data. Yields declined across non-investment credit over the reporting period, primarily driven by tightening spreads. In fact, ICE BofA Global High Yield Constrained Index spreads compressed during the period by 65 basis points. U.S. long-term government bond yields were roughly unchanged from December 31 versus June 30, despite reaching a peak of around 5% in October. The yield on U.S. 10-Year Treasuries ended December at 3.87%, an increase of just 3 basis points since the end of June 2023. Meanwhile, yields on 10-year U.K. Gilts and German Bunds declined materially over the period, most likely on differing views of economic growth and timing of rate cuts by central banks. While high yield issuers' aggregate fundamentals of EBITDA growth, free cash flow, interest coverage and leverage remain in somewhat favorable ranges and earnings seasons in 2H2023, overall, came in better-than-feared, issuers that missed saw their bonds weaker while others with solid results were rewarded. Also, some lower-quality issuers have been experiencing earnings pressure more recently. Despite the overall rally in the high yield market, credit and sector dispersion remained relatively wide as of year-end which has typically provided a more favorable backdrop for credit selection. While default rates have been trending up lately, our latest bottom-up base case default estimate for U.S. high yield in 2024 of 3% - 4% is around the historical average of 3.4%. EM and European high yield default rates also remain relatively contained outside of the more distressed China property and Eastern European region.
- Default rates in U.S., Europe and other Developed Markets are expected to remain around average after having moved up from the all-time lows of 2022. While Emerging Markets ("EM") defaults have risen, we are focused on select opportunities away from the higher risk regions and sectors. As of December, the par weighted trailing 12-month U.S. high yield default rate was 2.08% unchanged from the prior month and up 124 basis points year to date. While the default rate has risen off the lows in 2022, we expect default rates in 2024 to remain in a range that is around the long-term average. This outlook is based on our bottom-up assessment of issuers and driven by the higher-quality ratings mix in high yield (56% of issuers with credit ratings of BB), less aggressive new issuance, fewer near-term maturities, as well as an energy sector that is far healthier than in the past few cycles. For context, the long-term average default rate for USHY is 3.4% (based on monthly default rates over 25 years according to JP Morgan). As for EM high yield corporates, the overall default rate started 2023 in the mid-teens due to non-payment by Russian and Ukrainian issuers, and due to the elevated defaults in the China property sector. Excluding those specific areas, we expect the core EM high yield corporate default rate in 2023/2024 to be relatively benign as EM corporates entered the period with reasonable liquidity on average.
- We continue to find attractive investment opportunities within the global high yield universe and across regions. While default risk is currently below average, our team remains vigilant in seeking to avoid credit deterioration along with identifying investments that can add alpha through security selection.

Performance Highlights

- For the six months ended 31 December 2023, the sectors that added the most to performance were Energy, Basic Industry and Services. The sectors that added the least to performance were Banking, Technology & Electronics and Transportation.
- Positioning within Energy (New Fortress Energy; BFE), Basic Industry (Solenis International LP; SOLEIN) and Services (Prime Security Services; PRSESE) added the most to performance.
 - Energy: New Fortress Energy (NFE) is a provider of LNG regasification infrastructure and logistics services to emerging markets where traditional large-scale LNG regasification facilities are not viable due to insufficient market scale or lack of anchor counterparties. The company was founded in 2014 with the first round of commercial scale projects. The issuer added to performance over the reporting period as a result of the company reporting inline 3Q23 results along with favorable tailwinds for the industry. Management also reaffirmed 2023 and 2024 EBITDA guidance. We continue to be constructive on the long-term, secular demand trends for LNG and NFE's assets are well-positioned to benefit, particularly if management successfully executes on its initiative to vertically integrate supply with its import and distribution terminals.
 - Basic Industry: Solenis International LP; (SOLEIN), a leading manufacturer and distributor of specialty chemicals and solutions for consumer and industrial water intensive industries, including the pulp, packaging paper and board, tissue and towel, oil and gas, petroleum refining, chemical processing, mining, biorefining, power, municipal, and pool markets, added to performance after the company reported 4Q23 operating results that were ahead of expectations. Our positive credit opinion of the Solenis business is based on the earnings stability historically given the high switching costs relative to the low cost and high levels of service and modest end market demand cyclicality.

NB GLOBAL CORPORATE INCOME TRUST

- Services: Prime Security Services/ADT (PRSESE), a leading provider of monitored security and interactive home and business automation solutions in the U.S., was additive to performance as the company generally reported in line or better than expected operating results. Our positive view of the credit is supported by ADT's industry leading scale, recurring revenue base, consistent FCF and the company's plans to pay down debt and reduce leverage.
- Some positions within Banking (Banco Davivienda; DAVIVI), Technology & Electronics (Commscope Holding Co; COMM) and Transportation (Vistajet Group; VSTJET) detracted slightly from performance (see table below for details).
 - Banking: Banco Davivienda (DAVIVI), a Colombian bank founded in 1972, which renders services to individuals, companies, and the rural sector and the third-largest bank in Colombia by assets and profits, detracted slightly over the period after 3Q23 results were inline but down slightly Q/Q reflecting lower credit demand and the bank's risk appetite adjustments.
 - Technology & Electronics: Commscope Holding Co (COMM), a leading provider of broadband, enterprise, and wireless infrastructure solutions, detracted from performance after the company reported 3Q 2023 results which were below original estimates on revenue and EBITDA, despite better than expected margins.
 - Transportation: Vistajet Group (VSTJET), a leading global business aviation provider that serves corporates and high net worth individuals, detracted slightly over the period. The company reported 3Q23 operating results that were below expectations. The revenue miss was somewhat driven by lower fuel passthrough but also lower revenue from non-program members. EBITDA was also a miss. On the positive side, the number of program members was up by 40 Q/Q and up 33% Y/Y to 1,060 members. We would also note that Program EBITDA was up $33 million Y/Y. Our positive credit view is based on the company's moderate leverage, minimal exposure to volatile fuel prices and ability to generate cash flow.

Top 10 Industry Weightings

Outlook

In our view, global high yield valuations and yields are compensating investors for the around average default outlook. The lagged effects of monetary tightening, higher interest rates and shifts in consumer behavior are likely to keep pushing inflation toward central banks' target ranges. However, higher interest rates could also put more pressure on the consumer and global economic growth. As credit dispersion has been on the rise, our analysts remain keenly focused on the specific fundamentals of individual issuers in their coverage, assessing the base and downside cases in the event of a soft-landing or recession. Relatively healthy consumer and business balance sheets and nominal GDP growth should continue to provide support for most issuers' fundamentals, in our view.

The condensed financial statements were authorised for issue by the directors on the date the Directors' declaration was signed. The directors of the Responsible Entity have the power to amend and reissue the condensed financial statements.

2 Basis of preparation

These condensed financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standard AASB 134 Interim Financial Reporting and the Corporations Act 2001. Compliance with AASB 134 ensures compliance with International Financial Reporting Standard IAS 34 Interim Financial Reporting.

These condensed financial statements do not include all the notes of the type normally included in annual financial statements. Accordingly, these condensed financial statements are to be read in conjunction with the annual financial statements for the year ended 30 June 2023 and any public announcements made in respect of the Fund during the interim reporting period in accordance with the continuous disclosure requirements of the Corporations Act 2001.

The directors are satisfied that the Fund has sufficient resources to continue in operation for the foreseeable future, a period of not less than 12 months from the date of this report. Accordingly, they continue to adopt the going concern basis in preparing these condensed financial statements.

Material accounting policies

The accounting policies applied in these condensed financial statements are the same as those applied to the Fund's financial statements for the year ended 30 June 2023.

(i) New and amended standards adopted by the Fund

The Fund has applied the following standards and amendments for the first time for its financial year beginning 1 July 2023:

- AASB 2021-2 Amendments to Australian Accounting Standards - Disclosure of Accounting Policies and Definition of Accounting Estimates [AASB 7, AASB 101, AASB 108, AASB 134 & AASB Practice Statement 2].

The amendment listed above did not have any impact on the amounts recognised in prior periods and are not expected to significantly affect the current or future periods.

None of the other standards, interpretations or amendments to existing standards that are effective for the first time for the financial year beginning 1 July 2023 have a material impact on the amounts recognised in the prior periods or will affect the current or future periods.

(ii) New standards and interpretations not yet adopted

A number of new standards, amendments to standards and interpretations are effective for annual periods beginning after 1 January 2024 and have not been early adopted in preparing these condensed financial statements.

None of these are expected to have a material effect on the condensed financial statements of the Fund.

(iii) Comparative revisions

Comparative information has been revised where appropriate to enhance comparability. Where necessary, comparative figures have been adjusted to conform with changes in presentation in the current year.

3 Interest income from financial assets at fair value through profit or loss

The following table details the interest income earned by the Fund:

	Half-year ended
	$'000	$'000
Interest Income	22,145	23,484
Total	22,145	23,484

4 Fair value measurement

The Fund measures and recognises financial assets and liabilities at fair value through profit or loss on a recurring basis.

- Financial assets/liabilities at fair value through profit or loss (see Note 5 and Note 6)
- Derivative financial instruments (see Note 10)

The Fund has no assets or liabilities measured at fair value on a non-recurring basis in the current reporting period.

AASB 13 Fair Value Measurement requires disclosure of fair value measurements by level of the following fair value measurement hierarchy:

- Quoted prices (unadjusted) in active markets for identical assets or liabilities (level 1);
- Inputs other than quoted prices included within level 1 that are observable for the asset or liability, either directly or indirectly (level 2); and
- Inputs for the asset or liability that are not based on observable market data (unobservable inputs) (level 3).

The Fund values its investments in accordance with the accounting policies set out in Note 2 to the condensed financial statements.

(a) Fair value in an inactive or unquoted market (level 2)

The fair value of financial assets and liabilities that are not traded in an active market is determined using valuation techniques. These include the use of recent arm's length market transactions, reference to the current fair value of a substantially similar other instrument, discounted cash flow techniques, option pricing models or any other valuation technique that provides a reliable estimate of prices obtained in actual market transactions.

Where discounted cash flow techniques are used, estimated future cash flows are based on management's best estimates and the discount rate used is a market rate at the end of the reporting period applicable for an instrument with similar terms and conditions.

For other pricing models, inputs are based on market data at the end of the reporting period.

The fair value of derivatives that are not exchange traded is estimated at the amount that the Fund would receive or pay to terminate the contract at the end of the reporting period taking into account current market conditions (volatility and appropriate yield curve) and the current creditworthiness of the counterparties. Forward currency contracts are valued at the prevailing last price at the end of each reporting period.

7 Net assets attributable to unit holders – equity

Under AASB 132 Financial Instruments: Presentation, puttable financial instruments are classified as equity where certain strict criteria are met. The Fund shall classify a financial instrument as an equity instrument from the date when the instrument has all the features and meets the conditions. The Fund's units are classified as equity as they meet the definition of a financial instrument to be classified as equity.

Movements in the number of units and net assets attributable to unit holders during the half-year were as follows:

	Half-year ended		Half-year ended
	31 December	31 December	31 December	31 December

Closing balance	431,505	709,256	434,138	706,310

As stipulated within the Fund's Constitution, each unit represents a right to an individual share in the Fund and does not extend to a right in the underlying assets of the Fund.

There are no separate classes of units and each unit has the same rights attaching to it as all other units of the Fund.

8 Unit buy-back plan

On 4 March 2022, the Responsible Entity and the Investment Manager exercised its discretion to commence a buy back to purchase units on market with a view to addressing any unsatisfied liquidity in the units or any material discount in the price at the which the units may have been trading to the NAV per unit.

The buy-backs have been in accordance with the Fund's Constitution, ASX Listing Rules and all applicable laws. A buy-back will not exceed 10% of the smallest number of units on issue in the Fund during the 12 months prior to any buy-back, unless otherwise approved by ordinary resolution of unit holders. Units purchased by the Responsible Entity on behalf of the Fund under a buy-back were immediately cancelled.

The buy-back program ended on 17 March 2023. The final buy-back notification was issued on 20 March 2023.

9 Basic and diluted earnings per unit

10 Derivative financial instruments

In the normal course of business, the Fund enters into transactions in various derivative financial instruments which have certain risks. A derivative is a financial instrument or other contract which is settled at a future date and whose value changes in response to the change in a specified interest rate, financial instrument price, commodity price, foreign exchange rate, index of prices or rates, credit rating or credit index or other variables.

Derivative financial instruments require no initial net investment or an initial net investment that is smaller than would be required for other types of contracts that would be expected to have a similar response to changes in market factors.

Derivative transactions include many different instruments such as forwards, futures and options. Derivatives are considered to be part of the investment process and the use of derivatives is an essential part of the Fund's portfolio management. Derivatives are not managed in isolation. Consequently, the use of derivatives is multifaceted and includes:

- hedging to protect an asset or liability of the Fund against a fluctuation in market values, foreign exchange risk or to reduce volatility;
- a substitution for trading of physical securities; and
- adjusting asset exposures within the parameters set in the investment strategy, and adjusting the duration of fixed interest portfolios or the weighted average maturity of cash portfolios.

While derivatives are used for trading purposes, they are not used to gear (leverage) a portfolio. Gearing a portfolio would occur if the level of exposure to the markets exceeds the underlying value of the Fund.

The Fund holds the following derivative instruments:

Forward currency contracts

Forward currency contracts are primarily used by the Fund to economically hedge against foreign currency exchange rate risks on its non-Australian dollar denominated securities. The Fund agrees to receive or deliver a fixed quantity of foreign currency for an agreed upon price on an agreed future date. Forward currency contracts are valued at the prevailing last price at the end of each reporting period. The Fund recognises a gain or loss equal to the change in fair value at the end of each reporting period.

1. giving a true and fair view of the Fund's financial position as at 31 December 2023 and of its performance for the half-year ended on that date
2. complying with Accounting Standard AASB 134 Interim Financial Reporting and the Corporations Regulations 2001.

Basis for conclusion

We conducted our review in accordance with ASRE 2410 Review of a Financial Report Performed by the Independent Auditor of the Entity (ASRE 2410). Our responsibilities are further described in the Auditor's responsibilities for the review of the half-year financial report section of our report.

We are independent of the Fund in accordance with the auditor independence requirements of the Corporations Act 2001 and the ethical requirements of the Accounting Professional & Ethical Standards Board's APES 110 Code of Ethics for Professional Accountants (including Independence Standards) (the Code) that are relevant to the audit of the annual financial report in Australia. Auditor's responsibilities for the review of the half-year financial report

Our responsibility is to express a conclusion on the half-year financial report based on our review. ASRE 2410 requires us to conclude whether we have become aware of any matter that makes us believe that the half-year financial report is not in accordance with the Corporations Act 2001 including giving a true and fair view of the Fund's financial position as at 31 December 2023 and of its performance for the half-year ended on that date, and complying with Accounting Standard AASB 134 Interim Financial Reporting and the Corporations Regulations 2001.

A review of a half-year financial report consists of making enquiries, primarily of persons responsible for financial and accounting matters, and applying analytical and other review procedures. A review is substantially less in scope than an audit conducted in accordance with Australian Auditing Standards and consequently does not enable us to obtain assurance that we would become aware of all significant matters that might be identified in an audit. Accordingly, we do not express an audit opinion.
