COLES TO RANGE FOUR MT ELEPHANT PRODUCTS Contributing to a key revenue milestone for the brand

Elixinol Wellness Limited (Elixinol Wellness, EXL, the Company, or the Group) (ASX: EXL), is pleased to announce a significant commercial milestone for its premium healthy baking mix brand, Mt Elephant.

After almost two years of national availability in the Woolworths baking aisle, four Mt Elephant products will also be available in Coles, one of Australia's major supermarket chains, from April 2024. The four wholefood products to be ranged in 800 Coles stores nationally are Mt. Elephant Buttermilk Pancake Mix, Wholefood Blondie Mix, Wholefood Brownie mix and Wholefood Cookie Mix.

Group Chief Executive Officer and Managing Director Ron Dufficy commented “We expect expanded supermarket distribution to boost our market presence and contribute to the growth of the baking category in Australia, which is currently estimated at over $600m¹.”

An initial purchase order valued at $178k has been received and is scheduled for delivery in March 2024.

The Mt Elephant brand generated approximately $1m in revenue during 2023 (pro-forma basis). With increased distribution and sales velocity in Woolworths and new ranging in Coles, we anticipate Mt Elephant to exit CY24 with an annualised revenue run rate of approximately $2m.”

Mt. Elephant Market Positioning

In a category traditionally dominated by convenience products (often) associated with highly processed or 'unhealthy' options, Mt Elephant stands out by offering premium products that cater to the more health-conscious consumer. Unlike the traditional 'free from' approach, which can be linked to heavily processed alternatives, Mt Elephant focuses on purposeful, unprocessed ingredients.
