FORTRESSING AND HIGH VOLUME MENTALITY

Linking together food, people and brand

Fortressing is essential to deliver a hot, freshly prepared meal, safely and quickly, at an affordable price.

It's essential to maximise the benefits of our brand and investments in marketing and technology.

And it's essential to build a profitable, sustainable franchise partner network.

DELIVERY TERRITORY

The new store gets the most profitable delivery sales (because they're closer) and builds new carry-out customers.

- Enhanced customer retention; improved Product Quality and faster customer resolution (no customer left behind)

Lowering Costs

- Reducing food costs – largely through product development
- Reducing delivery costs through increased efficiency
- Reinvest savings initiatives into franchise partners

These are ambitious goals in a multinational, franchised business

Our emissions (FY23 – 1.5 million tonnes of CO₂):

A small component of our emissions are from our stores

The vast majority of emissions are through our supply chain

- 80% in food (largely through dairy)

Data is key (and still a work in progress)

Learn more about the Domino's Dairy Initiative here:
<https://investors.dominos.com.au/videos/2023/7/14/dominos-dairy-initiative>

FY23 footprint has grown +4.8% vs. FY22, correlated to business growth and mainly driven by store development and M&A in Asia

DPE FY21-23 Corporate Carbon Footprint by scope, by fiscal year (July - June), M tons co₂e

Note:
Scope 1 = Domino's owned operations (e.g. stores);
Scope 2 = emissions linked to energy use (e.g. electricity production);
Scope 3 = indirect emissions linked to Domino's activities (e.g. food procurements)

AGENDA

- UPDATE ON 2017 STRATEGY (100% OWNERSHIP)
- OUR FUTURE

How will we get there?

Domino's has new markets that have not yet been entered, or are under penetrated. DPJ will grow through:

- Opening new markets
- Opening kitchens closer to our customers
- Building on the customer insights, new menu offerings and new marketing approach outlined here
- Targeting more occasions
- Capitalising on the real estate opportunity available for new store builds
- Becoming an employer of choice for team members, including store managers
- Expanding our franchisee base – developing new franchisees, and multi-unit franchisees

In FY24 we have seen encouraging signs from some of our new product launches but also mixed results from other promotions.

- Our work to win customers inside Uber and Demae-can has shown promising results
- Initial trials are underway to explore third-party delivery (3P) to supplement non-peak periods
- More work is required to deliver consistent sales.

NEAR-TERM FOCUS

CHALLENGES

- Rapid expansion during COVID has resulted in a larger weighting of immature stores
- The breadth of our expansion resulted in some of these immature stores are operating in underpenetrated markets
- Improved unit economics (corporate & franchised) relies on higher average weekly order counts (AWOC) (growing from ~500 to ~600/week)
- Higher AWOC requires
 - a small increase in frequency (through new occasions) and
 - primarily reaching infrequent customers with successful promotional offerings
- Sales building initiatives are in an environment of lower available media spend per store

ACTIONS

- Working with franchise partners to accelerate store maturity and profitability
- Review and test prefectures with sub-optimal AWOC to determine whether stores require:
 - Improved store execution of local marketing
 - Additional DPJ marketing spend to support growth for the entire prefecture
 - In a small number of cases, consideration of ongoing viability of the store
- As a promotion-driven market, a detailed and ongoing inspired product pipeline is essential, under the leadership of a new Chief Marketing Officer (to be appointed)
- Additional, incremental frequency will be gained through building occasions through products such as My Domino's Box
