

Microba Launches Investor Hub for Investor Engagement

Microba Life Sciences Limited (ASX: MAP) (“Microba” or the “Company”) has launched a new interactive Investor Hub for dedicated investor engagement, enabling Microba shareholders, stakeholders, and prospective investors to learn more about Microba’s activities and communicate with the Company’s leadership team directly. Microba invites shareholders and interested parties to join.

How to join Microba’s new Investor Hub:

1. Visit <https://ir.microba.com/welcome>
2. Follow the prompts to sign up for an account.
3. Complete your account profile.

Microba’s Chief Executive Officer, Dr Luke Reid, commented “We look forward to continuing to update investors in a more engaging environment through the new investor hub. The investor hub enables us to interact with our shareholders and the wider investor community in a more direct, transparent and frequent way. The platform enables people to ask questions and provide feedback on any of our ASX announcements or other updates, and engage in an open dialogue with management. This all supports the development of deeper relationships with our shareholders which is important to myself and the team as we grow Microba and together deliver a lasting impact on peoples’ lives across the globe.”

Investors with complete Investor Hub accounts will be alerted to Microba’s news directly and may be invited to exclusive company events and corporate opportunities.
