

Quarterly Activities Report

Q3 FY23/24

24 April 2024

Letter from the CEO

Dear Shareholders,

I am delighted to share our Q3 update, where Vinyl Group continued its trajectory of record growth while setting new benchmarks for our business. This quarter, we are pleased to report a 218% increase in revenue quarter-over-quarter (QoQ), increasing to $1.86 million. This result includes only a partial quarter of results from The Brag Media following closing the acquisition on January 31, and follows a traditionally robust holiday quarter.

Following completion of the acquisition of The Brag Media, we immediately implemented a short term integration plan unlocking synergies across our tech platforms, including the launch of a merch store on Vinyl.com with official Rolling Stone merchandise, the introduction of cross-promotional display ads across our media properties, and the bundling of unused US ad inventory into a new Vampr Extended Ad Network offering for North America customers. Additionally, our IT teams are making steady progress towards integrating and consolidating internal systems, enhancing overall efficiency.

Our product and development teams have been rolling out new product features for Vampr, starting with our first-ever web networking experience. We're also underway with a full backend refactoring of Jaxsta to align our technology with the most modern and efficient coding practices, to unlock substantial cost savings and adopt an AI framework to improve the customer experience.

The capabilities of the Vampr platform were also showcased by our direct signing of differently-abled artist Emmanuel Kelly, whose single 'My Sky' reached No. 3 on the Ireland Spotify charts while also dominating mainstream Australian radio this summer. Looking ahead, Emmanuel will be opening for Coldplay in Australia and New Zealand this October. You can learn more about his story and how he used Vampr on Rolling Stone Australia here.

I'm pleased to highlight that Vinyl.com's average order value has increased by 37% QoQ, and Jaxsta's B2B signups have surged by 90% in the same period. These figures have been further validated by our first industry award nominations since rebranding, marking Vinyl Group as a finalist in the Music Week Awards' Music Consumer Innovation category and our CMO, Alli Galloway, as a finalist in BandT's Women Leading Tech Awards.

Lastly, we were thrilled to host the first Rolling Stone Awards in Sydney since acquiring The Brag Media. Sponsored by Shure, the event was a tremendous success, attended by over 800 industry professionals, repeat customers and guests, including award-winners Neil Finn and Tones & I.

As always, your trust in us is deeply valued, and I look forward to staying connected through our new Investor Hub where will be sharing exciting updates in the coming weeks and months.

Mission

Vinyl Group provides world class tools to power and empower all participants of the music ecosystem: creators, rights holders and fans.

Collecting music - Vinyl.com is the best e-commerce experience for fans and super fans who love owning music.

Connecting musicians - Subscription, API and freemium access to Jaxsta, the largest database of music credits and Vampr, the leading online social-professional network for creators.

Creating engagement - Through advertising, events, consumer and trade media, The Brag Media is Australia's largest youth publisher, helping brands and talent connect with fans.

Our 2024 focus is on revenue growth, margin growth and complementary acquisition growth.

Summary of cash position and expenditure

Summary of cash position and expenditure:

- As at 31 March 2024, Vinyl Group had $2.901 million in cash and cash equivalents. The company had an operating net cash burn of $1.256 million, which was a 125% increase on the previous quarter's $0.559 million operating net cash burn. Our net cash burn quarter over quarter increased by only $52K or 4%, when you exclude R&D incentives received in the previous quarter.
- Cash from customers increased to $1.690 million, which was an increase of $1.166 million from the previous quarter.
- When looking at the Company's cash expenditure for the quarter and comparing it to the quarter ending 31 December 2023:
 - There was an increase in staff costs of $768K from the additional Brag employees added during quarter;
 - There was an increase in product and platform operating costs of $447K from continued sales of Vinyl.com and the cost of Brag Media campaigns during the quarter;
 - There was a $27K decrease in research and development costs from the work on our Vinyl.com and Vampr platforms;
 - There was a decrease of $82K in Sales and Marketing costs reducing from the increased holiday campaign for Vinyl.com;
 - There was an increase of $114K in general and administrative costs from a mix of compliance costs and Brag transaction costs incurred in the current quarter.
- During the quarter, the business funded its operating activities from its working capital reserves.

Payments to related parties and their associates:

The Company had no payment to its related parties comprising salaries, directors fees, reimbursable expense payment to directors including executives who were directors during the past six months. No payments were made to associates of any related parties.
