LUNA LITHIUM, BRAZIL AND PARAGUAY

In January 2022 Dominion subscribed for shares in a capital raising undertaken by Luna Lithium Ltd (“Luna Lithium”), a private Canadian company which is actively engaged in the process of securing exploration rights over land in South America that is prospective for Lithium including Brazil and Paraguay.

During the quarter Luna Lithium advised it had secured a low-cost option to earn up to a 70 percent interest in a project covering 41,343 hectares in the state of Bahia, Brazil. Luna is planning to commence an initial mapping and sampling program informed by available government geophysical data for the Bahia region.

Luna also holds a joint venture with a local partner in the Safra region of Eastern Minas Gerais, Brazil in relation to a tenement package covering 51,277 hectares across 36 mineral rights permits. Luna’s technical team has identified initial drill targets and plans to undertake a trenching program followed by a reconnaissance drilling program in 2024.

Luna recently acquired a 62,000 hectare land position in the Concepcion Department of north-eastern Paraguay over which it has been granted full exploration rights. Luna has finalised a joint venture agreement with a local partner to explore and develop the land position and is evaluating proposals for aerial surveys including LIDAR, aero-magnetic and radiometric surveys.

CORPORATE

During the quarter the Company undertook due diligence and substantially advanced negotiations for a potential acquisition in the critical minerals sector. Dominion anticipates being able to make an announcement regarding the potential acquisition in the near future.

Forward looking statements

Information included in this release constitutes forward-looking statements. Often, but not always, forward looking statements can generally be identified by the use of forward looking words such as “may”, “will”, “expect”, “intend”, “plan”, “estimate”, “anticipate”, “continue”, and “guidance”, or other similar words and may include, without limitation, statements regarding plans, strategies and objectives of management, anticipated production or construction commencement dates and expected costs or production outputs.

Forward looking statements inherently involve known and unknown risks, uncertainties and other factors that may cause the Company’s actual results, performance, and achievements to differ materially from any future results, performance, or achievements. Relevant factors may include, but are not limited to, changes in commodity prices, foreign exchange fluctuations and general economic conditions, increased costs and demand for production inputs, the speculative nature of exploration and project development, including the risks of obtaining necessary licenses and permits and diminishing quantities or grades of reserves, political and social risks, changes to the regulatory framework within which the company operates or may in the future operate, environmental conditions including extreme weather conditions, recruitment and retention of personnel, industrial relations issues and litigation.

Forward looking statements are based on the Company and its management’s good faith assumptions relating to the financial, market, regulatory and other relevant environments that will exist and affect the Company’s business and operations in the future. The Company does not give any assurance that the assumptions on which forward looking statements are based will prove to be correct, or that the Company’s business or operations will not be affected in any material manner by these or other factors not foreseen or foreseeable by the Company or management or beyond the Company’s control.

Although the Company attempts and has attempted to identify factors that would cause actual actions, events, or results to differ materially from those disclosed in forward looking statements, there may be other factors that could cause actual results, performance, achievements, or events not to be as anticipated, estimated or intended, and many events are beyond the reasonable control of the Company. Accordingly, readers are cautioned not to place undue reliance on forward looking statements. Forward looking statements in these materials speak only at the date of issue. Subject to any continuing obligations under applicable law or any relevant stock exchange listing rules, in providing this information the company does not undertake any obligation to publicly update or revise any of the forward looking statements or to advise of any change in events, conditions or circumstances on which any such statement is based.
