Chief Financial Officer Announcement

Clean Seas Seafood Limited (ASX: CSS, OSE: CSS) announces that David Di Blasio has been appointed as Chief Financial Officer of the Company.

David Di Blasio has previously held senior finance positions at Yumbah Aquaculture, Cooper Energy and Santos and prior to that worked in audit and assurance at PwC. David is a Chartered Accountant and holds an MBA and Bachelor of Commerce degree from the University of South Australia.

Clean Seas further advises that its current Chief Financial Officer, David Brown has resigned to pursue an opportunity outside of the Company. The Clean Seas Board and broader team thanks David Brown for his service and contribution. Chief Executive Officer Robert Gratton said: "David Brown has made an outstanding contribution to Clean Seas over the last 7 years, having served as our CFO for the last 4 years. He leaves a strong legacy and we wish him well in his future role."

The change will be effective on 11th June 2024, however David Brown will remain an employee of Clean Seas for a period of time to assist in the transition of his responsibilities to David Di Blasio.

In closing, Chief Executive Officer Robert Gratton said: "It is a pleasure to announce the appointment of David Di Blasio as Clean Seas' Chief Financial Officer. David's extensive strategic, financial and aquaculture specific experience will be valuable in leading Clean Seas through its next phase as we seek to drive long term value for shareholders."
