This Corporate Governance Statement was approved by Straker's Board of Directors on 28 May 2024.

Principle 1:

Lay solid foundations for management and oversight

A listed entity should disclose:

- the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and
- those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.

The respective roles and responsibilities of Straker's Board and Management

Straker's Board of Directors (Board) is the body responsible for the overall corporate governance and decision making within the Company. While Straker's executive leadership team (being employees of Straker who report directly to Straker's Chief Executive Officer) deal with and supervise the day-to-day operational issues and processes experienced by Straker in carrying out its business, the role of the Board is to direct and supervise the management of Straker's business by its executive leadership team, and to ensure that the longer-term strategic objectives of the Company continue to be met.

In order to promote efficiency, the Board may from time-to-time delegate certain functions to its executive leadership team. Actions delegated to the executive leadership team typically involve management of Straker's resources to deal with day-to-day operations of the business in a way that contributes to Straker's overall strategic direction as set by the Board. The Board has delegated to the Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer all the powers and authorities required to manage the day-to-day operations of Straker's business, except those expressly reserved to the Board or one of its committees. Straker's Board Charter sets out the role and responsibilities of the Board and regulates internal Board procedures. Details about the Company's Board are available on Straker's website.

Selection and recommendation of director candidates

Before appointing or putting forward to shareholders any candidate for election or re-election as a director of Straker, a formal process is undertaken to complete appropriate checks on that candidate, including checks as to that candidate's character, experience, education, criminal record, bankruptcy history and a valid Australian Director Identification Number. If Straker is satisfied with the results of such checks and determines that the candidate be put forward to shareholders for election, Straker will provide shareholders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect that director candidate.

Terms of appointment of Directors and senior executives

All newly appointed Directors are provided with a letter of appointment setting out the term of appointment, remuneration, the Director's roles and responsibilities and the entity's expectations of that Director (including with regards to time commitments, the requirement to disclose Directors' interests and matters affecting the Director's independence, the requirement to comply with key corporate policies, and ongoing confidentiality obligations). Existing Non-Executive Directors of Straker also have their terms of appointment formalised in a written letter of appointment setting out the above items.

All senior executive employees of Straker have their terms of employment (including a description of their position, duties and responsibilities, remuneration arrangements, the role to which they report, termination obligations and entitlements, and ongoing confidentiality obligations) contained in a written agreement with Straker.

Principle 2:

Structure the Board to add value

The Board of a listed entity should be of an appropriate size and collectively have the skills, commitment and knowledge of the entity and the industry in which it operates, to enable it to discharge its duties effectively and to add value.

Straker understands the importance of a high performing and effective Board of Directors in ensuring proper governance of a listed entity. Straker has structured its Board of Directors in accordance with the recommendations set out in the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations to ensure that the Board is of a sufficient size, independence level, and skill set composition to enable it to manage the requirements of Straker's business and the industry and market in which it operates.

People and Culture Committee

Straker's People and Culture Committee is tasked with overseeing and making recommendations to the Board on the nomination, selection, and appointment of Directors to the Board, the re-election of incumbent Directors, and the remuneration strategies and policies of the Company, including recommendations on the fees to be paid to Directors. The People and Culture Committee has three members, with current members being Steven Bayliss, James Johnstone, and Heith Mackay-Cruise (a majority all of whom are Independent Non-Executive Directors). The Committee is chaired by Steven Bayliss who is an Independent Director of Straker, in accordance with the requirements of the ASX Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations. The People and Culture Committee Charter sets out the Board's policies and practices regarding the nomination, selection and appointment of new Directors and the re-election of incumbent Directors, as well as the Board's policies regarding the remuneration of Non-Executive Directors and other senior executives and is available on the Company's website.

Skills and experience of the Board

Straker recognises that its Board should represent a diverse range of skills, experience and attributes in order to ensure effective decision-making and governance of the Company. The Board currently comprised of members with skills and experience in the following areas:

- strategic capability and leadership;
- financial management, accounting and audit;
- commercial focus and knowledge of business practices;

There are also a range of qualifications currently represented across the Board, including in the fields of finance and accounting, business management, sales and marketing, and software development.

The Board review on an annual basis the skills, experience and attributes held by the Directors and whether the Board group as a whole possess the skills and experience required to fulfil their role on the Board and relevant Board committees. Where any gaps are identified, the Board will consider what training or development could be undertaken to fill those gaps and provide resources or access to resources to help develop and maintain the skills and knowledge of its Directors.

Board composition and independence

As at the year ended 31 March 2024, the Board comprised the following five Non-Executive Directors and the Managing Director and Chief Executive Officer (CEO):

Name	Position	Date appointed to Board
Heith Mackay-Cruise	Chair and Independent Non-Executive Director	24 August 2022
Grant Straker	Managing Director & Chief Executive Officer	21 December 1999
Stephen Donovan	Non-Executive Director	1 December 2004
Amanda Cribb	Independent Non-Executive Director	20 July 2020
Steven Bayliss	Independent Non-Executive Director	24 August 2022
James Johnstone	Non-Executive Director	1 December 2022

The Board only considers a Director to be independent where they are independent of management and free of any business or other relationship that could materially interfere with, or could reasonably be perceived to interfere with, the exercise of their unfettered and independent judgement. On this basis, the following Directors have been determined as being independent as at 31 March 2024 and for the full financial year ending on that date, being Heith Mackay-Cruise, Amanda Cribb, and Steven Bayliss.

Grant Straker, Stephen Donovan and James Johnstone are regarded as non-independent based on the ASX criteria in Principle 2 of the ASX Recommendations.

The Board considers the composition of the Board to be appropriate and does not believe that it is detrimental to the Company or its Shareholders that the majority of the Board is not independent.

The People and Culture Committee re-assesses the independence of each Non-Executive Director on an annual basis and in cases where a specific need for an independence assessment is identified due to a change in the interests, positions, associations, or relationships of one or more Non-Executive Directors. If the Board determines that a Director's status as an Independent Director has changed, the Board will disclose and explain that determination to the market in a timely manner.

Chair of the Board

The Chair of the Board, Heith Mackay-Cruise, is an Independent Non-Executive Director and is not the Managing Director nor Chief Executive Officer.

Induction of new Directors and ongoing professional development

Where a new Director is appointed to the Board, Straker's Chairperson will arrange induction sessions with the new Director to brief them on the background and growth story of the Company and advise the new Director on the Board procedures, constitutional documents, corporate governance policies and procedures.

Due to the current size and growth stage of Straker's business, the Director induction and professional development processes of the Company are largely informal. However, as Straker grows in size and market significance, Straker will consider providing Directors with appropriate formalised professional training and development opportunities to allow new and existing Directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their roles effectively.

<sup>1</sup> "Corporate governance statement" is defined in Listing Rule 19.12 to mean the statement referred to in Listing Rule 4.10.3 which discloses the extent to which an entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during a particular reporting period.

Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires an entity that is included in the official list as an ASX Listing to include in its annual report either a corporate governance statement that meets the requirements of that rule or the URL of the page on its website where such a statement is located. The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during the reporting period. If the entity has not followed a recommendation for any part of the reporting period, its corporate governance statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.4, if an entity chooses to include its corporate governance statement on its website rather than in its annual report, it must lodge a copy of the corporate governance statement with ASX at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The corporate governance statement must be current as at the effective date specified in that statement for the purposes of Listing Rule 4.10.3.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.3, an entity must also lodge with ASX a completed Appendix 4G at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The Appendix 4G serves a dual purpose. It acts as a key designed to assist readers to locate the governance disclosures made by a listed entity under Listing Rule 4.10.3 and under the ASX Corporate Governance Council's recommendations. It also acts as a verification tool for listed entities to confirm that they have met the disclosure requirements of Listing Rule 4.10.3.

The Appendix 4G is not a substitute for, and is not to be confused with, the entity's corporate governance statement. They serve different purposes and an entity must produce each of them separately.
