Chief Financial Officer - retirement and appointment

Argo Investments (ASX: ARG) announces the retirement of its long-serving Chief Financial Officer, Mr. Andrew Hill, on 31 August 2024 and the promotion of Mr. Stephen Mortimer, currently Finance Officer at Argo, as his successor with effect from 1 September 2024.

Retirement of Andrew Hill

Andrew joined Argo as an accountant in 1993. He was appointed Chief Financial Officer in 2010 and has served the Company with distinction for over 30 years.

Andrew's diligence, consistency and in-depth knowledge of investment accounting and tax has been of great value to the Company. His experience, loyalty and commitment to Argo and its shareholders over three decades has also provided a sound base through various cycles, events, mergers and acquisitions.

Appointment of Stephen Mortimer

Stephen joined Argo in 2012 as Operations Officer and was promoted to Finance Officer in 2023, working closely in the Adelaide office with the Chief Financial Officer throughout this period. He is an experienced accountant and also manages the Company's information technology requirements.

Prior to joining Argo, Stephen worked in accounting firms Deloitte and Schulz Hobbs, providing taxation, accounting and general business advice to clients across a range of industries. He is a Certified Practising Accountant (CPA) and a Graduate of the Australian Institute of Company Directors (GAICD).
