ASX Announcement

Federal Court Proceedings

Super Retail Group Limited (ASX: SUL) refers to its release of 26 April 2024 regarding expected workplace litigation.

Super Retail Group confirms today that it has been notified of a Statement of Claim in relation to these matters filed by its former employee in the Federal Court of Australia by Harmers Workplace Lawyers. The Statement of Claim is consistent with the allegations previously announced, save that the allegations have only been made by one employee and not two as previously expected.

The Group does not accept the claims that are set out in the Statement of Claim. As previously announced, Super Retail Group will defend these court proceedings in relation to these matters.

As these matters are now the subject of litigation, the Group does not intend to make any further comment at this time. Super Retail Group will continue to update the market on this matter as appropriate.

The release of this announcement has been authorised by the Board of Super Retail Group Limited.
