

ASX Release

2 August 2024

Satisfaction of obligations under Court Enforceable Undertaking and revocation of additional conditions

AMP Limited today announces that the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) has confirmed that AMP's superannuation trustee, N.M. Superannuation Proprietary Limited (NM Super), has met its obligations under the Court Enforceable Undertaking (CEU) that was announced on 16 November 2021.

APRA has also revoked the additional conditions that were placed on NM Super's RSE Licence in 2019.

The CEU related to a number of historical matters in AMP's superannuation business. NM Super acknowledged APRA's concerns in relation to the matters, each of which were reported by AMP.
