Bowdens Silver Project Appeal Proceedings Update

Silver Mines Limited (“Silver Mines” or “the Company”) provides the following update in relation to the legal appeal proceedings in the NSW Supreme Court, Court of Appeal (“Court of Appeal”) submitted by Bingman Catchment Landcare Group Incorporated (“Bingman”).

On 14 March 2024, the Company announced that its wholly owned subsidiary Bowdens Silver Pty Ltd (“Bowdens Silver”) had successfully defended the proceedings commenced by Bingman in the Land and Environment Court of New South Wales (“Proceedings”) against the State Government’s Independent Planning Commission (“IPC”) and Bowdens Silver, challenging the development consent for the Bowdens Silver Project (“Project”) approved by the IPC on 3 April 2023 (“Development Consent”). The Land and Environment Court of New South Wales dismissed those Proceedings.

Subsequent to the decision made by the Land and Environment Court of New South Wales, Bingman filed an appeal in the Court of Appeal (“Appeal”) and a hearing was held on 22 July 2024 as previously notified to the market. The Appeal seeks to challenge the decision by the Land and Environment Court to dismiss the Proceedings.

The Company advises that the Court of Appeal will be handing down its judgement in relation to the Appeal on Friday, 16 August 2024 at 10:15am (AEST).

The Company looks forward to the speedy resolution of the Appeal and will update the market once the Court of Appeal has made a decision in relation to the Appeal.

This document has been authorised for release to the ASX by the Company’s Managing Director, Mr Jonathan Battershill.

Yours faithfully
