Ventia awarded new maintenance contract with Seqwater

Ventia has been awarded a new four-year contract by Seqwater to deliver preventative, corrective and reactive maintenance along with electrical, mechanical and instrumental services across its water network.

The contract is expected to deliver revenue of approximately $220 million.

Seqwater is responsible for ensuring a safe, secure and reliable water supply for more than three million people across south-east Queensland. Ventia will provide services across 35 water treatment plants, 95 pump stations and 26 referable dams.

Ventia's Group Executive – Infrastructure Services Tim Harwood said that Ventia brings a strong track record in the provision of operations and maintenance for the water sector across Australia and New Zealand.

"We have decades of experience working alongside municipal and industrial water and wastewater clients and pride ourselves on a high standard of service delivery," he said.

"We look forward to commencing a new strategic relationship with Seqwater. Our team is committed to redefining service excellence for both our client and the residents of south-east Queensland."

Works are expected to commence in March 2025.

This announcement has been authorised for release by the Disclosure Committee.
