ASX Announcement

Federal Court Proceedings

Super Retail Group Limited (ASX: SUL) refers to its release of 30 July 2024 regarding expected workplace litigation.

Super Retail Group confirms today that it has been notified of a Statement of Claim in relation to matters filed by its former employee in the Federal Court of Australia by Harmers Workplace Lawyers. These allegations are being made by its former employee, the second employee referred to in the previous announcement.

Super Retail Group will review the Statement of Claim and intends to defend the proceedings in relation to these matters.

As these matters are now the subject of litigation, the Group does not intend to make any further comment at this time. Super Retail Group will continue to update the market on this matter as appropriate.

The release of this announcement has been authorised by the Board of Super Retail Group Limited
