	ASX Recommendation	Compliance	Further information / explanation
Principle 1 – Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
A listed entity should clearly delineate the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management and regularly review their performance.
1.1	A listed entity should have and disclose a board charter setting out: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	Yes	The Board operates under a board charter (Board Charter), a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.polymetals.com The Board Charter sets out the respective roles and responsibilities of the Board and management, and a description of those matters that are expressly reserved to the Board and those delegated to management. To assist in the execution of the Board's responsibilities, the Board has established the following committees of the Board (Board Committees): <ul style="list-style-type: none">• Nomination, Remuneration and Human Resources Committee• Audit and Risk Committee The key responsibilities of each Board Committee are set out in their respective charters. Copies of those Board Committee charters are available on the Company's website. The Board Committees do not take actions or make decisions on behalf of the Board unless specifically mandated by prior Board authority to do so.
1.2	A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a director or senior executive or putting someone forward for election as a director; and	Yes	The Constitution sets out the process of appointment, retirement and rotation of directors. In accordance with the Nomination, Remuneration and Human Resources Committee Charter, before a person is appointed as a director or put forward to shareholders as

	(b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re- elect a director.		a candidate to be elected as a director, the Company will ensure that appropriate checks are undertaken. In accordance with the requirements for listing on the ASX, the Company has undertaken background checks in respect of all of its directors. The Nomination, Remuneration and Human Resources Committee is responsible for reviewing potential candidates for directorship and making a recommendation to the Board. The Company will provide shareholders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a person as a director.
1.3	A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Yes	In accordance with the Board Charter, the appointment of any new director of the Company and each senior executive will be made by, and in accordance with, a formal letter of appointment or services agreement setting out the key terms and conditions relevant to that appointment. Each of the Company's non-executive directors has signed an appointment letter with the Company. The Company has no executive directors.
1.4	The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Yes	In accordance with the Board Charter, the company secretary of the Company is accountable directly to the Board, through the Chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the Board. The key roles and responsibilities of the company secretary are set out in the Board Charter.
1.5	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a diversity policy; (b) through its board or a committee of the board set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board, senior executives and workforce generally; and (c) disclose in relation to each reporting period: (i) the measurable objectives set for that period to achieve gender diversity;	Yes	The Company has adopted a Diversity Policy, a copy of which is available on the Company's website. The Company recognises that a diverse workforce achieved through merit-based decision-making is integral to building and sustaining a culture that fosters equal opportunity. The Board will review and approve measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in the composition of the Board, senior management and the workforce generally. The Nomination, Remuneration and Human Resources Committee will make recommendations to the Board regarding the measurable objectives. Given the Company only recently adopted its Diversity Policy (June 2021), the Company is currently in the process of establishing measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity in accordance with the Diversity Policy.

	(ii) the entity's progress towards achieving those objectives; and (iii) either: (A) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole workforce (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (B) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act. If the entity was in the S&P/ASX 300 Index at the commencement of the reporting period, the measurable objective for achieving gender diversity in the composition of its board should be to have not less than 30% of its directors of each gender within a specified period.		The Company advises that it will not be defined as being a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act. Accordingly, the statistics concerning its gender diversity performance is as follows: (i) The proportion of women on the Company's Board: 30 June 2022: 0% (2021:0%); (ii) The proportion of women in senior executive positions¹: 30 June 2022: 0% (2021:0%); and (iii) The proportion of women who are employees/contractors for the Company: 30 June 2022: 0% (2021:0%). ¹ 'Senior executive positions' are defined as those personnel who hold an executive role (CEO, CFO).
1.6	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process during or in respect of that period.	Yes	The Company has a Nomination, Remuneration and Human Resources Committee Charter, which is available on the Company's website. This charter sets out the Company's process for evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors. At least once per year the Board will, with the advice and assistance of the Nomination, Remuneration and Human Resources Committee, review and evaluate the performance of the Board, each Board Committee and each individual director against the relevant charters, corporate governance policies (including, without limitation, the Company's Nomination, Remuneration and Human Resources Committee Charter), and agreed goals and objectives.
1.7	A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives at least once every reporting period; and	Yes	Performance reviews for senior executives will take place at least annually. The Nomination, Remuneration and Human Resources Committee is responsible for overseeing these reviews and reporting to the Board on their outcome.

	(b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.		The Company will ensure that appropriate disclosures in the remuneration report are made in relation to each reporting period as to the performance evaluations that were undertaken and the process that was followed.
Principle 2 – Structure the board to be effective and add value The board of a listed entity should be of an appropriate size and collectively have the skills, commitment and knowledge of the entity and the industry in which it operates, to enable it to discharge its duties effectively and to add value.
2.1	The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (ii) is chaired by an independent director; and disclose: (iii) the charter of the committee; (iv) the members of the committee; and (v) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	Yes	The Company has established a Nomination, Remuneration and Human Resources Committee, governed by the Nomination, Remuneration and Human Resources Committee Charter. A copy of the Committee Charter is available on the Company's website. The Committee is comprised of Alistair Barton and Christopher Schroor, both of whom are non-executive directors and independent directors.
