Nationwide Building Society (the "Society") announces Board changes

Nationwide Building Society is pleased to announce the appointment of Anand Aithal as an independent Non-Executive Director of the Society.

Anand Aithal holds over 30 years of experience across financial, business, government and professional services. Anand is currently an Independent Non-Executive Director on the Board of directors at Saga plc and Polar Capital Holdings plc. He is also a Trustee of the Institute for Government and a non-executive advisor to the Association of Certified Chartered Accountants. Previously Anand was the Lead Non-Executive Board Member for the Cabinet Office until August 2024. Prior to his non-executive career, Anand was a Managing Director at Goldman Sachs before starting his own firm which was a pioneering provider of data analytical services. He will join the Nationwide Board and will be a member of the Audit Committee and Board Risk Committee with effect from 1 October 2024.

Anand Aithal said: "I am delighted to be joining Nationwide, the UK's largest building society, particularly at this exciting time following the completion of the Virgin Money acquisition. I look forward to working with colleagues as Nationwide continues its ongoing strong financial position and deliver further value to customers and members through its products and services".

Kevin Parry OBE, Chairman, said: "It is a pleasure to welcome Anand Aithal to Nationwide. His experience across financial, business and professional services makes Anand a welcome addition to the Nationwide Board."
