Investment Commentary

Pre-tax NTA fell slightly to $1.5807, due to a large tax payment of $698k in November. Adjusting for the tax payment, the monthly gain in pre-tax NTA was a positive +0.39%, our 13th consecutive positive monthly return. Ryder's 1-year pre-tax NTA return now stands at +49.09% and continues to materially outperform both our hurdle of +8.62% and the ASX Small Ords Accumulation Index of +19.88% over the same period.

Performance for the month was led by solid gains in SRG Global, Count and Janison Education offset by falls in BCI Minerals, Macmahon and Lumos Diagnostics.

Our investment in Vitrafy Life Sciences (Vfy) successfully listed on the ASX, and whilst it remains an early-stage company, we see further upside and used the IPO as an opportunity to increase our Portfolio exposure to 3.8%. We also took a position in newly listed payments business Cuscal, representing an exposure of 3.4%.

During November we exited PYC Therapeutics and Medical Developments realising substantial gains. We continued to trim weightings in Austin Engineering, Macmahon, Service Stream and SRG Global on value and risk management grounds. Proceeds from sales were partly used to fund two new positions in Humm Group and The Reject Shop.

The buyback remained active with 134,951 shares purchased at an average price of $1.2970.

Portfolio cash increased from $13.2m (10.16%) to $14.4m (11.19%).
